Marah, 2017-08-09 This book makes a critical contribution to the study of pan Africanism and the education of African people for continental African citizenship It is a unique endeavor in that it intersects the social history of pan Africanism and the education of African people at a global level and provides reflections from a multidisciplinary perspective on the urgency for continental pan Africanism educational system in order to produce a more renaissance African for the twenty first century Arguing that Pan African Education is a mass based educational system that will craft a pan African African personality John Marah calls for integrated African school systems and curriculum changes conducive to larger social integration and institutionalized pan African educational processes The establishments of pan African Teachers Colleges intensive language institutes pan African literature courses the training of African military and police forces the use of music sports media and other extra curricular activities the hidden curriculum etc are viewed as essential aspects in the socialization of a pan African character or personality Pan African Education is an essential read for students and scholars of Pan Africanism African and Africana Studies and Black Studies Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1894 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1848 Tradition and Change in Contemporary West and East African Fiction Ogaga

Okuyade,2014-08-15 The essays in this volume capture the exciting energy of the emergent novel in East and West Africa drawing on different theoretical insights to offer fresh and engaging perspectives on what has been variously termed the new wave emergent generation and third generation Subjects addressed include the politics of identity especially when re constructed outside the homeland or when African indigenous values are eroded by globalization transnationalism and the exilic condition or the self undergoes fragmentation Other essays examine once taboo concerns including gendered accounts of same sex sexualities Most of the essays deal with shifting perceptions by African women of their social condition in patriarchy in relation to such issues as polygamy adultery male domination and the woman's quest for fulfilment and respect through access to quality education and full economic and socio political participation Themes taken up by other novels examined include the sexual exploitation of women and criminality generally and the exposure of children to violence Likewise examined is the contemporary textualizing of orality the trickster figure Writers discussed include Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Okey Ndibe Helon Habila Ike Oguine Chris Abani Tanure Ojaide Maik Nwosu Unoma Azuah Jude Dibia Lola Shoneyin Mary Karoro Okurut Violet Barungi Adaobi Tricia Nwaubani Abidemi Sanusi Akachi Ezeigbo Sefi Atta Kaine Agary Kojo Laing Ahmadou Kourouma Uwen Akpan and Alobwed Epie Ogaga Okuyade teaches popular folk culture African literature and culture African American and African diasporic studies and the English novel in the Department of English and Literary Studies Niger Delta University Wilberforce Island Nigeria He has guest edited special issues of ARIEL and Imbizo and is the editor of Eco Critical Literature Regreening African Landscapes 2013 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1901 The Fragility of the 'Failed State' Paradigm Neyire Akpinarli,2010 The absence of effective government one of the most important issues in current international law became prominent with the failed state concept at the beginning of the 1990s Public international law however lacked sufficient legal means to deal with the phenomenon Neither attempts at state reconstruction in countries such as Afghanistan and Somalia on the legal basis of Chapter VII of the UN Charter nor economic liberalisation have addressed fundamental social and economic problems This work investigates the weaknesses of the failed state paradigm as a long term solution for international peace and security arguing that the solution to the absence of effective government can be found only in an economic and social approach and a true universalisation of international law Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record ,1898 The Nigeria Handbook Containing Statistical and General Information Respecting the Colony and Protectorate Nigeria. Chief Secretary's Office,1929 Development as Peace Wole Adegbile,2023-08-04

The colonial definition of development has not served Africa well While Western assessments have generally revolved around a nation s GDP infrastructure and the like African cultures and the Yoruba people in particular have traditionally measured development in relation to the amount of peace experienced in a society and the wellbeing of its people In this study Dr Wole Adegbile examines the political theological and cultural contexts of contemporary development activity in Africa including the impact of modernization theory on African nation states He then draws on traditional Yoruba political thoughts and practices including the similarities between the Yoruba conception of a thriving community and the biblical principle of shalom to formulate a contextual political theology of development that would holistically address cultural identity and spiritual restoration Rooted in the intersection of Scripture and traditional African values this book suggests a way forward for African society its political leaders and the church The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1911

The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1848 The World of Spirits and Ancestors in the Art of Western Sub-Saharan Africa Elizabeth Skidmore Sasser,1995 The World of Spirits and Ancestors in the Art of Western Sub Saharan Africa illustrates for the first time a collection of African Sculpture at the Museum of Texas Tech University in Lubbock Texas The masks and figurative carvings from the late nineteenth century to the mid twentieth century are from two sources Ambassador and Mrs Julius Walker s gift to ICASALS International Center for Arid and Semiarid Land Studies now on permanent loan to the Museum and the Elliot Howard Collection Howard an artist and authority on antiques chose examples of sculpture for their variety and aesthetic appeal His hope was that the pieces he assembled would provide new discoveries for those unacquainted with the art of Africa and an art experience that would enhance mutual respect among people Fittingly then a context for understanding is the focus of Elizabeth Skidmore Sasser s book As the title suggests The World of Spirits and Ancestors introduces carefully chosen examples of masks and figures as social and spiritual communications imbued with the living history and culture of the various peoples of western sub Saharan Africa Sasser emphasizes that geography and climate ranging from semiarid deserts to tropical rain forests influence not only the art but also the habitations and ceremonial life of the region More than 180 drawings and illustrations reflect the creative genius that continues to meet environmental challenges and to express the distinctive contributions of the cultures and the people of western sub Saharan Africa Finally and Forever Robin Jones Gunn,2012-04-24 What was she thinking Katie Weldon wonders if she was crazy to spontaneously fly off to Africa on a mission trip Suddenly she is dealing with a new culture a world she s never experienced and Eli a friend who is quickly becoming much more It s all overwhelming and exciting As her life turns topsy turvy however she begins to think this might be exactly what she needs Here God might give her a glimpse into His will for her life But just as Kenya and its people find a place in her heart and her relationship with Eli begins to get serious Katie is faced with unanswered questions from her past and unresolved issues with Eli Is she really headed down the same path into the future he is It doesn't look like it Why can't she finally and forever settle into a set direction Living in this new and captivating place one thing she knows for sure anything might be possible Finally and Forever is the final book in the Katie Weldon Series Rethinking Civil Society Regionalism in Africa Dele

Kogbe, 2022-10-14 This book interrogates the extent to which regional civil society organisations have evolved as actors in West Africa Examining civil society democratic participation in regional integration and involvement in regionalism of peacebuilding it rethinks how we study civil society in the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS region Beyond the functional typology of civil society actors as partner legitimiser resistance counter hegemonic and manipulator the book develops a new analytical framework to understand how organisations such as the West African Civil Society Forum WACSOF and West African Network for Peacebuilding WANEP have evolved Offering analytical perspectives of the actorship of specific regional civil society actors the book draws attention to the tendencies in the previous studies of mistaking an action or misdeed that is empirically specific to particular civil society organisations within a region to the generality of the civic space of the region Providing an alternative perspective aimed at invoking a new intellectual conversation about civil society regionalism this book advances a new analytical framework of action based regional identity of civil society regional presence of activities regional capacities and societal impact It will be of interest to academics and scholars of international relations global governance African politics and comparative regionalism The Book Michael F.
