Reforestation Efforts in Western Oregon United States. Congress. House. Committee on Agriculture. Subcommittee on Forests, 1977 Code of Federal Regulations , 1998 The Code of Federal Regulations of the United States of America , 1986 The Code of Federal Regulations is the codification of the general and permanent rules published in the Federal Register by the executive departments and agencies of the Federal Government Code of Federal Regulations, Title 45, Public Welfare, Pt. 1-199, Revised as of October 1, 2009 Office of the Federal Register, 2009-12-23 Title 45 Public Welfare Parts 1 to 199 (Revised as of October 1, 2013) Office of The Federal Register, Enhanced by IntraWEB, LLC, 2013-10-01 45 CFR Public Welfare Women and Asian Religions Zayn R. Kassam, 2017-06-22 Covering eclectic topics ranging from South Asian religion to motherhood to world dance to ethnomusicology this book focuses on contemporary selected experiences of women and how their lives interface with religion Religion has often been perceived as the source of constriction for women's roles in society This volume explores how modern women across Asia are mobilizing their faith traditions to address existential issues encountered in both the public and private realms relating to economics public participation politics and culture As such it is revealed that religion can be a powerful force for social change and ameliorating women's lives despite use of religious doctrine in the past to limit women Editor Zayn R Kassam PhD and the contributors cover not only the commonly considered Asian traditions of Hinduism Islam and Buddhism but also Christianity Judaism Bahai and indigenous traditions The book reveals that the challenges and opportunities Asian women face arise both from within and outside whether in terms of developments within their countries or in relation to international political and economic regimes The chapters explore how the issues Asian women face have as much to do with cultural and religious codes as they do with politics economics education and the law consider the varying ways in which family and motherhood are affected by the state's construction of the gendered citizen by social constructs of motherhood and by policies regarding women and children's access to health care and identify the roles played by religion and spirituality in these circumstances

Colony and Empire William G. Robbins, 1994 Popular writers and historians alike have perpetuated the powerful myth of the rugged individualist single handedly transforming the American West In reality William Robbins counters it was the Guggenheims and Goulds the Harrimans and Hearsts and the Morgans and Mellons who masterminded what the West was to become Remove the romance he shows and a darker West emerges a colonial like region where industrial statesmen aided by eastern U S and European capital manipulated investments in pursuit of private gain while controlling wage earning cowboys and miners Robbins argues that understanding the impact of capitalism on the West from the fur trade era to the present is essential to understanding power influence and change in the region Showing how global capitalism had a more profound impact on the modern West than individual initiative he explores violence and racism along the Texas Mexican border colonial style company towns in Montana and the Northwest contrasting traditions astride the U S Canadian boundary pace setting agribusiness and exploitation of labor in California the growing power of metropolitan centers and dependence of rural areas and the emergence of a sizable federal influence To grasp the essence of the West's dramatic transformation Robbins contends you must look to the mainstays of material relations in the region the perpetually changing character of political and economic culture the inherent instability of resources and the larger constellations of capitalist decision making Consequently he shows shy Western success and failure prosperity and misfortune and expansion and decline were all inseparably linked to the evolution of capitalism at the local regional national and global levels In the tradition of Patricia Nelson Limerick's Legacy of Conquest Robbins's study challenges some of our most revered images of the West and invigorates the ongoing debates over its history and meaning for our nation
