Robinson Crusoe (I/II) Daniel Defoe,2012 Robinson Crusoe James Baldwin,2024-02-10 IN the year 1719 an Englishman whose name was Daniel Defoe wrote a very long story which he called The Life and Surprising Adventures of Robinson Crusoe His story was not designed for children and therefore it contained a great deal of hard reading There was much in it however that was interesting to young people and from that day to this the marvelous tale of Robinson Crusoe has been a favorite with boys as well as men I have rewritten the story in words easy for every child and have shortened it by leaving out all the dull parts I WISH TO BE A SAILOR My name is Robinson Crusoe I was born in the old city of York where there is a broad river with ships coming and going When I was a little boy I spent much of my time looking at the river How pleasant was the quiet stream flowing always flowing Toward the far away sea The Life and Adventures of Robinson Crusoe (Annotated) Daniel Defoe, 2019-12-23

Differentiated book It has a historical context with research of the time Its original title is The life and incredible adventures of Robinson Crusoe of York sailor who lived twenty eight years completely alone on an uninhabited island on the shores of America near the mouth of the great Orinoco River having been dragged to the shore after a shipwreck in which all the men died except him With an explanation of how in the end he was unusually released by pirates Written by himself But well for friends it is Robinson Crusoe I do not know if this work the most famous of Daniel Defoe can be considered today as the predecessor of the youth novel We cannot forget that we are talking about a book published in 1719 and that it is the founding novel of adventures Therefore it represents an incalculable value The name with which it is published in 1719 already contains a brief summary of the content so we could add that it is the adventure of a child who wishes to go beyond what his parents propose or desire for him Thus the protagonist prefers to avoid any sign or manifestation established to follow his wishes regardless of the consequences Perhaps youth and innocence justify the facts and means of such a reaction but they also serve the narrator to involve us in his reading A training novel where a child becomes a man and matures with every blow especially when it comes to seeing himself on a desert island with nothing but his ingenuity which he will demonstrate through the practices and causes effects of Your own evolution Learn to collect everything that can be edible to keep the products that he could save from the ship as long as possible to know the land to reap in the right times to make your own home over and over again to prepare your own food and your own tools to perfect them All following trial error techniques Basically it is the adventure of a man who watches over his own interests and to protect himself from storms famine disease and any other situation that is out of one s own hands Daniel Defoe portrays in an entertaining way an adventure that is not as far from our reality as we might think at the beginning As for the narration we can say that it is composed in the form of a newspaper that fades on the island similar to the loss of the notion of the main character s time and remains only as a story with a linear structure full of descriptions A book that falls apart in the hands of the reader

The Life and Strange Surprising Adventures of Robinson Crusoe, of York, Mariner Daniel Defoe, 1999 It happen d one Day about Noon going towards my Boat I was exceeding surpriz d with the Print of a Man s naked Foot on the Shore which was very plain to be seen in the Sand I stood like one Thunder struck Robinson Crusoe 1719 is one of the most famous adventure stories ever written The account of a sailor shipwrecked on a desert island for twenty eight years it is also a tale of mythic proportions an allegory and a spiritual autobiography J M Coetzee is Professor of General Literature at the University of Cape Town His books include Waiting for the Barbarians 1980 Life and Times of Michael K winner of the Booker Prize 1983 and White Writing 1988

3 but various literary sources have also been suggested

Despite its simple narrative style Robinson Crusoe was well received in the literary world and is often credited as marking the beginning of realistic fiction as a literary genre

It is generally seen as a contender for the first English novel

Plot Summary Crusoe the family name corrupted from the German name Kreutznaer sets sail from the Queen's Dock in Hull on a sea voyage in August 1651 against the wishes of his parents who want him to pursue a career possibly in law

After a tumultuous journey where his ship is wrecked in a storm his lust for the sea remains so strong that he sets out to sea again

This journey too ends in disaster as the ship is taken over by Sal pirates the Sal Rovers and Crusoe is enslaved by a Moor

Two years later he escapes in a boat with a boy named Xury a captain of a Portuguese ship off the west coast of Africa rescues him

The ship is en route to Brazil Crusoe sells Xury to the captain

With the captain's help Extrait Any one may judge what a condition I must be in at all this who was but a young sailor and who had been in such a fright before at but a little

But if I can express at this distance the thoughts I had about me at that time I was in tenfold more horror of mind upon account of my former convictions and the having returned from them to the resolutions I had wickedly taken at first than I was at death itself and these added to the terror of the storm put me into such a condition that I can by no words describe it

But the worst was not come yet the storm continued with such fury that the seamen themselves acknowledged they had never seen a worse

We had a good ship but she was deep laden and wallowed in the sea so that the seamen every now and then cried out she would founder

It was my advantage in one respect that I did not know what they meant by FOUNDER till I inquired However the storm was so violent that I saw what is not often seen the master the boatswain and some others more sensible than the rest at their prayers and expecting every moment when the ship would go to the bottom In the middle of the night and under all the rest of our distresses one of the men that had been down to see cried out we had sprung a leak another said there was four feet water in the hold
