East Zvi Zohar,2013-06-20 Rabbinic Creativity in the Modern Middle East provides a window for readers of English around the world into hitherto almost inaccessible halakhic and ideational writings expressing major aspects of the cultural intellectual creativity of Sephardic Oriental rabbis in modern times The text has three sections Iraq Syria and Egypt and each section discusses a range of original sources that reflect and represent the creativity of major rabbinic figures in these countries The contents of the writings of these Sephardic rabbis challenge many commonly held views regarding Judaism s responses to modern challenges By bringing an additional non Western voice into the intellectual arena this book enriches the field of contemporary discussions regarding the present and future of Judaism In addition it focuses attention on the fact that not only was Judaism a Middle Eastern phenomenon for most of its existence but that also in recent centuries important and interesting aspects of Judaism developed in the Middle East Both Jews and non Jews will be enriched and challenged by this non Eurocentric view of modern Judaic creativity Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1986
