Semiotic Approach to the Theology of Inculturation Cyril Orji, 2017-08-31 A Semiotic Approach to the Theology of Inculturation argues that though it is a difficult and delicate task inculturation is still a requisite demand of a World Church and that without it the Church is unrecognisable and unsustainable The book also suggests that the past failures of inculturation experiments in Africa can be overcome only by critically applying the science of semiotics which can serve as an antidote to the nature of human knowing and reductionism that characterised earlier attempts to make Christianity African to the African Drawing from the semiotic works of C S Peirce Clifford Geertz and Bernard Lonergan Cyril Orji shows why semiotics is best suited to an African theology of inculturation and offers ten pinpointed precepts identified as Habits which underline the attentiveness reasonableness and responsibility required in a semiotic approach to a theology of inculturation The Habits are also akin to the imperatives inherent in the notion of catholicity that catholicity is not identified with uniformity but with reconciled diversity and also that catholicity demands different forms in different places times and cultural settings

Liturgy with a Difference Stephen Burns, Bryan Cones, 2019-05-30 Christian churches in recent decades have taken some steps in their practices of liturgy and worship toward acknowledging the graced dignity of human variety But who is still excluded What pernicious norms still govern below the surface and how might they be revealed How do texts gestures and space abet and enforce such norms How might Christian assemblies gather multiple expressions of human difference to propose through Christian liturgy patterns of graced interaction in the world around them Liturgy with a Difference gathers a broad range of international theologians and scholars to interrogate current practices of liturgy and worship in order to unmask ways in which dehumanizing majoritarianisms and presumed norms of gender culture ethnicity and body among others remain at work in congregations Together the chapters in this collection call for a liturgical practice that recognizes and rehearses the vivid richness of God's image found in the human community and glimpsed if only for a moment in liturgical celebration They point a way beyond mere inclusion toward a generous embrace of the many differences that make up the Christian community With contributions from Rachel Mann Teresa Berger Susannah Cornwall Miguel A DeLa Torre Edward Foley W Scott Haldeman Michael Jagessar Bruce T Morrill Kristine Suna Koro and Frank Senn Foreword by Ann Loades

We Give Our Thanks Unto Thee Porter C. Taylor, 2019-04-17 Fr Alexander Schmemmann continues to influence liturgical and sacramental theologies some thirty five years after his death Despite the wide acceptance within Protestant circles of his timeless classic For the Life of the World there has been relatively little written about him from an ecumenical context This volume of collected essays seeks to explore his theological legacy and further his work With essays from leading scholars such as David Fagerberg Bruce Morrill Joyce Zimmerman and more this volume is meant for both teachers and students of liturgical and sacramental theology In an effort to introduce Schmemmann to a wider audience and to celebrate his work through meaningful engagement and dialogue contributors come from a wide variety of ecclesiastical backgrounds Anglican Roman Catholic Orthodox Lutheran Presbyterian Methodist Free Church and more The Eucharist is therefore the manifestation of the Church as the new aeon it is participation in the Kingdom as the parousia as the presence of the Resurrected and Resurrecting Lord It is not the repetition of His advent or coming into the world but the lifting up of the Church into His parousia the Church's participation in His heavenly glory Fr Alexander Schmemmann Introduction to Catholic Philosophy of Education Mario O. D'Souza, 2016-10-01 Today's pluralist and multicultural society raises questions about how to teach religiously and ethnically diverse students in Catholic schools A Catholic Philosophy of Education addresses these challenges by examining the documents from the Roman Congregation for Catholic Education alongside the writings of Jacques Maritain and Bernard Lonergan Mario D Souza proposes a contemporary formulation for a Catholic philosophy of education in which the ideals of Catholicism form the basis for the mission of the Catholic school Drawing on the Church's educational documents and informed by Maritain and Lonergan D Souza explains how the unifying anthropology of Catholic education enables Catholic schools to serve amidst diversity by avoiding the extremes of religious exclusivism and fundamentalism on the one hand and relativism and individualism on the other He explores the aims of Catholic schools in relation to students teachers and society and the relationship between goodness discipline and knowledge He argues that students must be educated for personal and communal freedom and authenticity and to strive for the common good suggesting how a Catholic philosophy of education can provide the framework for such personal and communal transformation Essential reading for new and experienced Catholic educators A Catholic Philosophy of Education demonstrates that Maritain and Lonergan have much to offer in service of an education that is liberating instructive illuminating and integrative

The Church as the Family of God and the Care for Creation Khisi, Maximian, 2019-02-19 Of late there has grown in African Catholicism the concept of Church as the Family of God Familia Dei which has enhanced greater social cohesion among the members of the Church and strengthened interpersonal relationships among them This book is an endeavour to offer a path towards the solution of the problem of environmental crisis through the theological discipline of ecclesiology Using the Catholic Archdiocese of Lilongwe's understanding of Church as the Family of God the book concludes that the application of the concept of Church as family of God while bringing great social cohesion among the people failed to extend to human relationships with the natural world in fact It has broadened the human feeling of superiority over the natural environment The book provides an ecclesiological complementarity which promotes a universal fraternity among people and the natural world and recommends an ecclesiological concept of Church as New Creation Nova creatio This would serve as a call for human beings to make a new ecological conversion leading new lifestyles change in their models of nature worldviews and change in the models of production and consumption The Oxford Handbook of Vatican II Catherine E.

Clifford, Massimo Faggioli, 2023-01-19 The Oxford Handbook of Vatican II is a rich source of information and reflections on many aspects of the Second Vatican Council 1962-1965 one of the most significant religious events of the twentieth century The chapters introduce readers to the historical context and outstanding features of the conciliar event and its principal teachings on Scripture and Tradition the church liturgy religious liberty ecumenism interreligious dialogue church world relations and mission Consideration is given to some neglected aspects of the council including the forgotten papal speeches that lay out its fundamental orientation and ought to guide its interpretation the presence and contributions of women and the non reception of the council among Catholic traditionalists Ecumenical scholars reflect on the significance of Vatican II for the life of other Christian churches and the search for Christian unity others examine Catholic dialogue with other religious traditions Surveying the diverse receptions of the council in the perspective of a world church chapters focusing on Asia Africa Latin America North America Oceania and Europe reflect on the interpretation and influence of the council and its teaching on the life of the church in diverse cultural contexts This Handbook will serve as a valuable guide to one of the most important events and bodies of Catholic teaching since the Protestant Reformation and the Council of Trent in the sixteenth century to the interpretation of the council's teaching and to its continuing role in guiding the life of the church in the twenty first century Life in the Trinity Philip Krill, James McCullough, 2022-11-30 Informed by Scripture and the church fathers and inspired by the ressourcement theology of Henri de Lubac Hans Urs von Balthasar and Pope Benedict XVI this book advances new insight and practical application of the recent retrieval of Trinitarian theology and its vision of human transformation known as deification Father Philip Krill contributes to a growing retrieval of Trinitarian Christianity and a synthesis of the Western and Eastern theological traditions A final section on theosis or deification rounds out this exploration of God's full intentions for the redemption of humanity Being Salvation Brandon R. Peterson, 2017-06-15 Karl Rahner's theory of how Jesus saves has garnered criticism Rahner's portrayal of Jesus has been described by Hans Urs von Balthasar as merely notifying the world of God's salvific will Others have doubted whether Rahner thinks Jesus causes salvation at all Even Rahner's advocates style his Jesus as a kind of sign albeit an effective one the primal Sacrament But another major and yet underappreciated dimension to Rahner's christology is his identification of Jesus as Representative both our representative before God and God's before us As such a Representative Jesus is not a redemptive agent who accomplishes human salvation simply through an act and even less is he a mere exemplar or notification This Jesus does not only do our salvation rather he is the locus of salvation itself He not only opens heaven s gates but he creates heaven with his own resurrection Being Salvation uncovers this dimension within Rahner s theology relating it to other historical examples of representative soteriology e g Irenaeus s theory of recapitulation and to Rahner s more familiar sacramental soteriological categories It gives special attention to Rahner s intense attention to the church fathers early in his career including Rahner s untranslated theology dissertation E latere Christi From the Side of Christ Daring to Share Sandra Beardsall, Mitzi J. Budde, William P. McDonald, 2018-06-29 Multi denominational congregations offer rich soil for new interpretations of what it means to be a church These parishes have chosen to covenant together for worship service ministry mission and nurturing of faith across two or more denominational traditions Daring to Share tells their stories investigates their practices and proposes a fresh vision of church for the twenty first century This book equips ordained and lay leaders for the formation and flourishing of such ministries It describes five models of partnership analyzes the parish life cycle interprets how worship works addresses constitutional and governance issues and reflects theologically on the intersection of diversity and unity What can we learn from these congregations Studying their particular witness struggles and promise for the future fills a gap in both congregational studies and contemporary ecclesiology Multi denominational parishes are more than a convenient way to revitalize congregational ministry They present new opportunities and approaches for sharing the gospel Ecumenical convergence meets demographic realities to suggest a mission strategy that will transform local practice and perhaps the church itself By daring to share these churches challenge a fractured world Engaging with the Hopes of Parishes Brendan Reed, 2018 Catholic institutions today are faced with the challenge of redefining themselves within a context of growing pluralisation and detraditionalisation Following the empirical work on Catholic School identity Identity in Dialogue this book attends to the institution of the parish Engaging with the Hopes of Parishes offers a theoretical framework for parish life in a new context It introduces a new diagnostic tool the Searching for Parish Engagement Scale and it proposes four models for parish life today the convinced parish the engaged parish the devoted parish and the consumerist parish Brendan Reed is a parish priest in the Archdiocese of Melbourne Australia He is adjunct lecturer at Catholic Theological College University of Divinity Abuse and Cover-Up Arbuckle, Gerald A., 2019-09-26 Written for readers deeply concerned for the future of the church this book seeks to answer two questions Why is the culture of the Catholic Church despite Vatican II s emphasis on collegiality and transparency still prone to covering up abuses of power How can this culture change in order to move forward A timely book on the sex abuse crisis by a scholar who is adept at weaving insights from the social sciences into a framework of practical theology This Assembly of Believers Bryan Cones, 2020-11-30 Among the symbols with which the liturgy deals none is more important than this assembly of believers This claim made in the 1970s forces the local church to consider those within its congregation and recognise the gifts and challenges of difference within the church community In This Assembly of Believers Bryan Cones seeks to take seriously the pastoral context of a congregation recognising the physical ability gender and sexuality of those who make up the congregation Starting each chapter with their lived experience Cones poses important questions of the liturgy in light of these experiences before realigning the liturgy to demonstrate the positive theological significance of the marginalised within the congregation

Mass Exodus Stephen Sebastian Bullivant, 2019 In 1962 Pope John XXIII opened the Second Vatican Council with the prophecy that a new day is dawning on the Church bathing her in radiant splendour Desiring to impart an ever increasing vigour to the Christian life of the faithful the Council Fathers devoted particular attention to the laity and set in motion a series of sweeping reforms The most significant of these centred on refashioning the Church's liturgy the source and summit of the Christian life in order to make it pastorally efficacious to the fullest degree Over fifty years on however the statistics speak for themselves In America only 15% of cradle Catholics say that they attend Mass on a weekly basis meanwhile 35% no longer even tick the Catholic box on surveys In Britain the signs are direr still Of those raised Catholic just 13% still attend Mass weekly and 37% say they have no religion But is this all the fault of Vatican II and its runaway reforms Or are wider social cultural and moral forces primarily to blame Catholicism is not the only Christian group to have suffered serious declines since the 1960s If anything Catholics exhibit higher church attendance and better retention than most Protestant churches do If Vatican II is not the cause of Catholicism's crisis might it instead be the secret to its comparative success Mass Exodus is the first serious historical and sociological study of Catholic lapsation and disaffiliation Drawing on a wide range of theological historical and sociological sources Stephen Bullivant offers a comparative study of secularization across two famously contrasting religious cultures Britain and the USA
