Cinema, State Socialism and Society in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe, 1917-1989 Sanja Bahun, John Haynes, 2014-07-25 This book presents a comprehensive re examination of the cinemas of the Soviet Union and Central and Eastern Europe during the communist era It argues that since the end of communism in these countries film scholars are able to view these cinemas in a different way no longer bound by an outlook relying on binary Cold War terms With the opening of archives in Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union much more is known about these states and societies at the same time the field has been reinvigorated by its opening up to more contemporary concepts themes and approaches in film studies and adjacent disciplines Taking stock of these developments this book presents a rich varied tapestry relating specific films to specific national and transnational circumstances rather than viewing them as a single monolithic Cold War Communist cinema

The Gladiators vs. Spartacus, Volume 2 Abraham Polonsky, 2020-12-21 This publication of Abraham Polonsky s unproduced screenplay for The Gladiators is a tribute to one of Hollywood s premiere post WW II directors and writers whose career was severely impacted by the blacklist His script for The Gladiators survives to remind us that he could and did transform a difficult and complex novel of an ancient slave rebellion into a screenplay worthy of Arthur Koestler s bold fictional vision Through a combination of the ambivalence of its executive producer and star plus bad timing it never went before the cameras This book is published in the hope that The Gladiators will be produced for cinema or television
