Trade Unions and the Age of Information and Communication Technologies in Kenya Eric E. Otenyo, 2017-03-01 Trade Unions and the Age of Information and Communication Technologies in Kenya provides a comprehensive description of the use of ICTs within the trade union movement in Kenya In this book Professor Eric Otenyo explores the intersection between new technologies and union as key stakeholders in national governance and development The dearth of research on how trade unions can play a part in the new economy continues to undermine the effective use of ICTs in development This book brings to light the challenges that unions face while navigating the new economy and netstate characterized by a proliferation of ICTs and globalization

Modern Trends in Diatom Identification Gabriel Cristóbal, Saúl Blanco, Gloria Bueno, 2020-05-28 High resolution images of phytoplankton cells such as diatoms or desmids which are useful for monitoring water quality can now be provided by digital microscopes facilitating the automated analysis and identification of specimens Conventional approaches are based on optical microscopy however manual image analysis is impractical due to the huge diversity of this group of microalgae and its great morphological plasticity As such there is a need for automated recognition techniques for diagnostic tools e g environmental monitoring networks early warning systems to improve the management of water resources and decision making processes Describing the entire workflow of a bioindicator system from capture analysis and identification to the determination of quality indices this book provides insights into the current state of the art in automatic identification systems in microscopy

Routledge Handbook of Food as a Commons Jose Luis Vivero-Pol, Tomaso Ferrando, Olivier De Schutter, Ugo Mattei, 2018-12-17 From the scientific and industrial revolution to the present day food an essential element of life has been progressively transformed into a private transnational mono dimensional commodity of mass consumption for a global market But over the last decade there has been an increased recognition that this can be challenged and reconceptualized if food is regarded and enacted as a commons This Handbook provides the first comprehensive review and synthesis of knowledge and new thinking on how food and food systems can be thought interpreted and practiced around the old new paradigms of commons and commoning The overall aim is to investigate the multiple constraints that occur within and sustain the dominant food and nutrition regime and to explore how it can change when different elements of the current food systems are explored and re imagined from a commons perspective Chapters do not define the notion of commons but engage with different schools of thought the economic approach based on rivalry and excludability the political approach recognizing the plurality of social constructions and incorporating epistemologies from the South the legal approach that describes three types of proprietary regimes private public and collective and different layers of entitlement bundles of rights and the radical activist approach that considers the commons as the most subversive coherent and history rooted alternative to the dominant neoliberal narrative These schools have different and rather diverging epistemologies vocabularies ideological stances and policy proposals to deal with the construction of food systems their governance the distributive implications and the socio ecological impact on Nature and Society The book sparks the debate on food as a commons between and within disciplines with particular attention to spaces of resistance food sovereignty de growth open knowledge transition town occupations bottom up social innovations and organizational scales local food national policies South South collaborations international governance and multi national agreements Overall it shows the consequences of a shift to the alternative paradigm of food as a commons in terms of food the planet and living beings

Patriots & Parasites Dene Smuts, 2016-11-01 Patriots The great experiment in catharsis that was the Truth and Reconciliation Commission The reinvigoration of racial polarisation under the Mbeki administration and the slow burn of resentment that is coming to a head among the next generation as manifested in the RhodesMustFall campaign The entrenchment of cronyism under Zuma and the fight to protect the crucial balance of accountability enshrined in the freedom of the media and the independence of the judiciary The Self-Field Chris Abel, 2021-03-15 In this incisive study of the biological and cultural origins of the human self the author challenges readers to re think ideas about the self and consciousness as being exclusive to humans In their place he expounds a metatheoretical approach to the self as a purposeful system of extended cognition common to animal life the invisible medium maintaining mind body and environment as an integrated field of being Supported by recent research in evolutionary and developmental studies together with related discoveries in animal behaviour and the neurosciences the author examines the factors that have shaped the evolution of the animal self across widely different species and times through to the modern technologically enmeshed human self the differences between which he contends are relations of degree rather than absolute differences We are he concludes instinctive and fuzzy individuals clinging to fragile identities in an artificial and volatile world of humanity's own making but which we now struggle to control This book which restores the self to its fundamental place in identity formation will be of great interest for students and academics in the fields of social developmental and environmental psychology together with readers from other disciplines in the humanities especially philosophy cultural theory and architecture Agricultural Law and Economics in Sub-Saharan Africa Frederick Owusu Boadu, 2016-04-27 Agricultural Law in Sub Saharan Africa Cases and Comments introduces the subject of agricultural law and economics to researchers practitioners and students in common law countries in Sub Saharan Africa and presents information from the legal system in Botswana Gambia Ghana Lesotho Malawi Nigeria Sierra Leone South Africa Swaziland Tanzania Zambia and Zimbabwe The law and economics approach entails the use of quantitative methods in research This is consistent with the expectations in an applied economics field such as agricultural economics Covering the general traditional law topics in contracts torts and property the book goes further to introduce cutting edge and region relevant topics including contracts with illiterate parties contract farming climate change and transboundary water issues The book is supported by an extensive list of reference materials as well as study and enrichment exercises to deepen readers understanding of the principles discussed in the book It is a learning tool first and foremost and can be used as a stand alone resource to teach the subject matter of agricultural law and economics to professionals new to the subject area as well as to students in law school agricultural economics economics and inter disciplinary classes Offers research findings on such topics as food safety climate change transboundary natural resources international sale of goods patents and trademarks to highlight the future sources of pressure on the agriculture industry Uses case studies to provide real world insights into the challenges and considerations of appropriate agricultural law development Challenges readers to carry out their own research in their areas of study and to gain some understanding of the relationship between law economics and statistics Includes extensive resources such as chapter summaries study questions and challenge questions at the end of each chapter to assist instructors and students in gaining full benefits from using the book Provides separate instructor and student study guides a test bank and test bank answers in hardcopy and electronic formats

Hermeneutics and Social Transformation Bernard Lategan, 2016-01-15 In a South African context condemning apartheid is not enough To make a non racial democratic inclusive society viable and enduring much more is required of which creative and imaginative theological thinking is not the least Fundamental theological values and their implications for all the facets of society must be thought through not as an academic exercise but as a grass roots undertaking and the greatest challenge is to act in terms of this new understanding of society Bernard Lategan Some implications of the family concept in New Testament texts

Rethinking Revolution Leo Panitch, Greg Albo, 2016-12 One hundred years ago October 1917 galvanized leftists and oppressed peoples around the globe and became the lodestar for 20th century politics Today the left needs to reckon with this legacy and transcend it Social change as it was understood in the 20th century appears now to be as impossible as revolution leaving the left to rethink the relationship between capitalist crises as well as the conceptual tension between revolution and reform Populated by an array of passionate thinkers and thoughtful activists Rethinking Revolution reappraises the historical effects of the Russian revolution positive and negative on political intellectual and cultural life and looks at consequent revolutions after 1917 Change needs to be understood in relation to the distinct trajectories of radical politics in different regions But the main purpose of this Socialist Register edition one century after Red October is to look forward to what might happen next Acclaimed authors interrogate and explore compelling issues including Greg Albo New socialist strategies or detours Jodi Dean Are the multitudes communing Revolutionary agency and political forms today Adolph Reed Are racial minorities revolutionary agents Zillah Eisenstein Revolutionary feminisms today Nina Power Accelerated technology decelerated revolution David Schwartzman Beyond global warming Is solar communism possible Andrea Malm Revolution and counter revolution in an era of climate change

Global-Regional Linkages in the Earth System Peter D. Tyson, Roland Fuchs, Congbin Fu, Louis Lebel, Hermine Vloemans, Eric Odada, John Perry, Will Steffen, Hassan Virji, 2002-04-30 Global environmental change occupies a central niche in the pantheon of modern sciences There is an urgent need to know and understand the way in which global biogeochemical cycles have changed over different time scales in the past and are likely to do so in the future Equally important it is necessary to determine the extent to which natural variability and that induced by anthropogenic activities are bringing about change A number of international co operative scientific programmes address these issues Chief among them are the International Geosphere Biosphere Programme IGBP the World Climate Research Programme WCRP and the International Human Dimensions Programme IHDP for global change This book is one of a series of IGBP syntheses drawing together findings in global environmental change over the past decade or so One focus of IGBP activities is the System for Analysis Research and Training START Co sponsored by the WCRP and IHDP START establishes regional research networks for global change science in developing countries stimulates and carries out global change research in developing regions of the world and builds capacity to undertake such research at personal institutional and regional levels Several regional global change networks have been established and much regional research has been accomplished in the last five years or so In this book work relating to four of the older START regions Southern Africa South Asia Southeast Asia and East Asia will be used as case studies to illustrate regional global linkages in Earth System Science
