among the most bookish of romances its tone is invariably ironic comic and satirical This playfulness may be measured by the variety and vehemence of critical response to the poem Is it a vindication of the troubadour ideal a mockery of the Church a satire on jealous husbands or an undermining of the ideals that romance is said to inscribe Or is it all of these elements held in suspense The introduction confronts these questions The most recent edition and translation of Flamenca by Hubert and Porter is now out of print their translation was into octosyllabic couplets that match the original Blodgett's translation is unrhymed and line for line on pages facing the edition it adheres as closely as possible to the literal meaning of the original The edition follows the recent text prepared by Gschwind
