

John Hay Athletics-Volleyball

Introduction

Welcome back! I hope you had an enjoyable and restful summer! My name is Caroline Stewart and I am the new John Hay Head Volleyball Coach. I would like to take this opportunity to introduce myself and share my coaching principles and goals for your scholar and the team for this season. I have 3 years of coaching experience in both public and private schools. I have coached volleyball, basketball and softball. I am a multi-sport athlete. I played college basketball. I am a Euclid High school graduate. While attending Euclid I played multiple sports. I was the team captain for varsity volleyball and MVP for four years. I also played varsity basketball and softball. My experience and knowledge of the game is extensive. I have a love and passion for the game of volleyball.

Coaching Principals

My volleyball coaching philosophies are principles I believe are consistent should not change from year-to-year, or program-to-program. My goal is to have a foundation of sustained success in both physical and mental improvement. This allows every student to grow and learn continuously. It creates better alignments towards goals and fosters a positive atmosphere.

Respect

We should be respectful at all times. Being worthy of respect starts with giving respect whether it's towards teammates, officials or myself. Students who respect the other members of the team and everyone associated with it and who respects the game and their opponent's earn
