The Blushing MBA Feddy Pouideh, 2005-11 Enjoy a funny sneak peek at life inside an Ivy League business school from someone who's been there and lived to tell the tale. Excerpt from The Admissions Interview: I can't remember anything on my resume. Oh my God, I've gone blank. What am I doing here? My pulse is racing, my throat is tight, and I'm sweating. Move out of my way, I have to get out of here. After 20 minutes, my nerves finally begin to calm, which would have been great if the interview hadn't finished in 10. The interviewer concludes with: How do you want to be remembered by your classmates? Remembered. Because this program will surely be the death of me. He hands me his card when we finish. Call me if you have any questions. The interview is over. Over. I am numb as I leave his office, stunned that the moment I have worked a lifetime for is now history. Wait. When he said It's over, was he referring to the interview or to my future in business?

The Blushing MBA is a funny, candid chronicle of one woman's adventure inside an Ivy League business school. It's an inspirational tribute to college, graduate school, and to anyone who has ever dared to enter the wild world of business.

Marchenkova,2004-12-13 This volume is the first to explore links between the Russian linguist Mikhail Bakhtin s theoretical insights about language and practical concerns with second and foreign language learning and teaching Situated within a strong conceptual framework and drawing from a rich empirical base it reflects recent scholarship in applied linguistics that has begun to move away from formalist views of language as universal autonomous linguistic systems and toward an understanding of language as dynamic collections of cultural resources According to Bakhtin the study of language is concerned with the dialogue existing between linguistic elements and the uses to which they are put in response to the conditions of the moment Such a view of language has significant implications for current understandings of second and foreign language learning The contributors draw on some of Bakhtin s more significant concepts such as dialogue utterance heteroglossia voice and addressivity to examine real world contexts of language learning The chapters address a range of contexts including elementary and university level English as a second language and foreign language classrooms and adult learning situations outside the formal classroom The text is arranged in two parts Part I Contexts of Language Learning and Teaching contains seven chapters that report on investigations into specific contexts of language learning and teaching The chapters in Part II Implications for Theory and Practice present broader discussions on second and foreign language learning using Bakhtin s ideas as a springboard for thinking This is a groundbreaking volume for scholars in applied linguistics language education and language studies with an interest in second and foreign language learning for teacher educators and for teachers of languages from elementary to university levels It is highly relevant as a text for graduate level courses in applied linguistics and second and foreign language education Monthly Summary of the League of Nations League of Nations,1929
