Wellness Bulletin Board Ideas For August:

Nurturing Talent in High School Laurence J. Coleman, 2005 This is a fascinating chronicle of the lives of academically talented and gifted adolescents living in a special residential public high school The author who lived as a resident in the school's dormitory provides rare insights on how environment and potential talent interact inside a school to impact identity talent and advanced development By exploring the special context of the school this volume shows how the combination of rigorous academics and living with other talented children can create a high energy environment that accelerates the pace of development although many students may be unprepared to keep pace they do examines in depth issues of equity and excellence status and identity depicts a high school where equity and excellence co exist and offers an explanation for this unusual phenomenon in American high schools offers valuable information that can be applied to a variety of gifted and talented programs and other specialized learning environments and exemplifies a distinctive dedication to qualitative research methods setting a new standard for conducting such research Workplace Health Promotion, 2nd edition

Danijela Gasevic, Leah Okenwa-Emegwa, 2023-01-09 Work related factors have implications for health and wellbeing Due to the amount of time spent at the workplace and the impact of work on health over an individual's life course the workplace has evolved as an important arena for population health promotion Risk factors within the physical and psychosocial working environment as well as inadequate organizational support are associated with increasing work related health problems which result in psychosocial and economic implications for the individual the family the organization and the society Recent estimates revealed an increasing level of sickness absence due to work related factors among others In recognition of the importance of worker health and a healthy working life but also in line with numerous occupational health goals many organisations set aside significant amounts of financial resources annually to promote work well being However studies have shown that despite this positive disposition among employers both employee participation and the impact of such programs remain minimal According to the Ottawa declaration for health promotion and the Luxembourg declaration for Workplace Health Promotion WHP WHP should be strategic It is recommended that WHP be conducted in a systematic and continuous process of needs analysis priority setting planning implementation and evaluation Unfortunately available studies show that many companies have policies currently in place but lack knowledge regarding proper implementation and evaluation The foregoing phenomenon raises questions regarding the level of knowledge of and attitudes towards WHP among people in management positions This Research Topic aims to address factors affecting workplace health promotion What does WHP mean for employers What forms of WHP packages exist Is there evaluation and follow up of such interventions What are the barriers and facilitators relating to the uptake of WHP interventions among employees Do people in relevant managerial positions possess adequate knowledge regarding WHP Manuscripts that explore factors crucial for WHP including individual and organizational level factors crucial for WHP are welcomed Manuscripts on barriers evidence based interventions best
