

Wells Fargo Home Affordable Foreclosure Alternatives (HAFA) Matrix

All servicers that have signed agreements with the U.S. Department of the Treasury (Treasury) to participate in the Home Affordable Modification Program (HAMP) must consider eligible borrowers who do not qualify for HAMP for other foreclosure prevention options including Home Affordable Foreclosure Alternatives (HAFA) which includes short sale and deed-in-lieu. However, each servicer has some discretion in determining additional eligibility criteria and certain program rules. In order to assist borrowers and their representatives in understanding any unique components of a servicer's HAFA Policy, Treasury has developed this HAFA Matrix.

The summary information in this matrix is prepared solely by Wells Fargo and does not represent any determination by the Treasury as to the servicer's compliance with the Treasury's policies and guidance for HAFA. Treasury does not endorse any language or policy described in this matrix. Any questions regarding the information contained in this matrix should be directed solely to Wells Fargo.

Eligibility requirements

Treasury's guidelines state that a loan meets the basic eligibility criteria if the servicer verifies that all of the following conditions are met:

- The mortgage is a first lien originated on or before January 1, 2009.
- The mortgage is delinquent or default is reasonably foreseeable.
- The current unpaid principal balance is less than or equal to:
 - $728,750 for a one-unit property
 - $934,200 for a two-unit property
 - $1,129,250 for a three-unit property
 - $1,403,400 for a four-unit property
- The property is not condemned.

Treasury requires that a borrower have a documented financial hardship, evidenced by a signed Hardship Affidavit or Request for Mortgage Assistance (RMA), wherein the borrower has represented that he or she does not have sufficient liquid assets to make the monthly mortgage payments.

If a borrower is current or less than 60-days delinquent and would like to be considered, they may still be eligible pending further review of their financial situation.

Loans with a scheduled foreclosure date may still be considered for HAFA depending on the timing of the scheduled foreclosure sale.

Crime and No Punishment Marie Gottschalk, 2025-11-18 How concentrated economic and political power in America protects elites and fosters violence of all kinds The United States is an exceptionally violent country increasingly unable or unwilling to stem violence in its many forms A growing corporate crime wave has gone unprosecuted and unpunished with those in the C suites largely escaping accountability Meanwhile the country has doubled down on pursuing people accused of street and drug crimes and immigration offenses Corporate impunity the financialization of the economy militarized policing the burgeoning carceral state and the forever wars in Afghanistan Iraq and elsewhere all have fostered corporate economic and state violence in America In Crime and No Punishment Marie Gottschalk argues that these developments have undermined the legitimacy of American political and economic institutions Gottschalk analyzes how the concentration of economic political and military power has siphoned off vital resources preying on the most vulnerable communities and normalizing violence and death It has kept America from attacking the root causes of violent street crime and curtailing deaths of despair from suicide alcoholism drug overdoses and chronic diseases The United States continues to incarcerate more of its people than nearly every other country even as it decriminalizes or turns a blind eye to elite level corporate crime Public and scholarly attention however remains fixated on violent street crime although corporate and white collar crime and state and economic violence directly and indirectly hurt far more people in the United States Gottschalk contends that the US failure to protect its people from these harms has increased the fragility of democracy in America
