West With The Night Beryl Markham:

West with the Night Beryl Markham, 2022-06-21 West with the Night is a memoir by British born author aviator and equestrian Beryl Markham. Friend and fellow author Ernest Hemingway once wrote to his editor Maxwell Perkins asking Did you read Beryl Markham's book West with the Night bloody wonderful work Markham was one of if not the first female bush pilots in Africa and her memoir details adventures in Kenya with a unique perspective both from the ground and the sky Markham was born in the county of Rutland in Midlands England to Charles and Clara Clutterbuck in October of 1902 Two years later her father took a chance and moved their family to untouched bush in the Rift Valley one hundred miles from Nairobi to farm and train horses Her mother Clara found the hard work insufferable and abandoned her family to return to England Markham's father was left to care for her and she quickly became the proverbial wild child She learned how to ride a horse before she walked her first language was Swahili and she spear hunted with her best friend Kibii the African bush became her playground Her father eventually abandoned her too when she was sixteen and fled to Peru after going bankrupt selling his farm and possessions piece by piece Sadly he also sold her his daughter to their neighbor Jock Purves Embarrassed and angry Markham scraped her way to becoming the first female licensed horse trainer in Kenya at 19 She divorced Purves and her reputation to produce winning racehorses spread fast By 24 her horse Wise Child won the prestigious St Ledger race She would continue to train winning racehorses the rest of her life Markham tried her luck at marriage a few times but she fell in love instead with aviation She began as a bush pilot carrying mail and passengers around Kenya She took men on safari above the ground in search of wild game she even assisted in transporting medical supplies to gold miners Yet she continued to crave more more adventure more challenges more flying In 1936 at the age of 33 Markham became the first female pilot to fly solo across the Atlantic from east to west This was a particularly ambitious undertaking because headwinds and storms were considered dangerous in this direction In her memoir Markham describes her love affair with flying as a momentary escape from the eternal custody of the earth Many of her chapters capture the intensity and adrenaline rush that Markham experienced while flying as well as the stillness and quietness that came with being grounded Hunting lions in the Rongai Valley searching for a lost fellow aviator's plane at night watching herds of wildlife spread out across the land beneath her adventures that intersect with nostalgic first memories of her father's farm and fond memories of her young adult life in Africa Beryl Markham's memoir earned a place in National Geographic's list of The 100 Greatest Adventure Books of All Time Additionally during World War II the U S Army distributed West with the Night to Soldiers overseas as part of the Armed Services initiative to provide entertainment to troops specifically adventure novels and stories In 1980 American restaurateur George Gutekunst after reading Hemmingway's letters detailing the work of Markham as brilliant tracked down a copy in the library In 1983 he had West with the Night re published and it sold over a million copies Critics called it a lost masterpiece Markham was able to see her work's success prior to dying peacefully in Nairobi in 1986

Quicklet on West with the Night by Beryl Markham (CliffNotes-like Summary) Laura Brestovansky,2012-02-24 ABOUT THE BOOK I ve always been interested in women in history particularly those of the 20th century Somehow though I had never heard of Beryl Markham until I came across her book West With the Night about a year or so ago The cover s engaging portrait of Markham looking patrician and quite beautiful in her aviator helmet immediately drew my attention As I began to read the account of her life I was quickly hooked by her fascinating description of life in British East Africa today known as Kenya in the early 1900s Imagine taking off in a two seater plane and narrowly avoiding a zebra My impression was confirmed the more I read Markham was clearly a woman who lived in a completely different world than I do in 21st century America She bred championship racehorses She flew planes into remote parts of Africa And she managed to write about it without a hint of boasting Her writing is simple and honest No less a writer than Ernest Hemingway a friend of Markham s praised the book as bloody wonderful in a letter to Maxwell Perkins as cited on the back cover of the 1983 edition of West with the Night Markham s account showed me that life is meant to be lived to the full Taking risks and trying new things is what gives life its savor Telling other s about one s adventures allows them to savor them too MEET THE AUTHOR

Laura Brestovansky has more than 20 years of writing editing proofreading experience including blogs e books articles brochures press releases and more Currently she is also the public relations liaison for Caregivers Professional Resources www.cprmich.com whose duties include writing the CPR Airway blog She has written on a number of topics including health care home improvement travel religion and social issues She graduated with honors from Eastern Michigan University majoring in journalism and political science When she's not on the computer whether writing editing or surfing she's spending time with her husband and three children possibly biking or hiking with them or watching a classic movie

EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK West With the Night is Beryl Markham's memoir of her life in British East Africa Kenya She was a racehorse breeder bush pilot and the first woman to fly across the Atlantic from east to west The book begins with Markham's review of an old flight logbook which sets the scene for the entire book British East Africa in the 1930s Once setting the scene she recounts her journey to deliver oxygen to a sick minor a job to be done at an uncomfortable hour with sleep in my eyes and a half a grumble on my lips While the flight itself is routine Markham flies with the knowledge that a friend and fellow pilot is missing in the Serengeti

West with the Night Beryl Markham, 1984 Beryl Markham moved to Kenya with her father at the age of four and stayed until her death in 1986 Her incredible autobiography describes the Africa she learnt to love her childhood surrounded by the tribal people her tangles often nearly fatal with its wild animals and her passions for racehorses and aeroplanes Markham achieved notoriety and success as a horse trainer when one of her horses won the most prestigious race in Kenya She turned her hand to aeroplanes with Denys Finch Hatton the lover of Karen Blixen as a teacher and became the first woman in Kenya to receive a commercial pilot's licence Her adventures and courageous career as a bush pilot are recounted in vivid detail here along with the richness and fascination of life in Kenya in the twenties and thirties

Sample Book Insights

- 1 I would like to begin at the beginning but there are a hundred places to start and a hundred names I can begin by choosing one of them not because it is first or of any importance in a wildly adventurous sense but because it is turned uppermost in my logbook
- 2 Nungwe was a town that lay west and south of Nairobi on the southernmost rim of Lake Victoria Nyanza It was barely alive when I went there in 1935 It was a Mecca for gold miners who had begun to dig there
- 3 Nairobi was a gateway to a new country and it was growing quickly It was a place of shillings and pounds and land sales and trade extraordinary successes and failures Its shops sold whatever you needed to buy
- 4 Africa is a land full of mysteries wildness and heat It is a photographer's paradise a hunter's Valhalla and an escapist's Utopia It is what you want it to be and it withstands all interpretations It is the last vestige of a dead world or the cradle of a shiny new one
