Self-directed learning research and its impact on educational practice Elsa Mentz,Roxanne Bailey,2021-05-17

This scholarly book is the third volume in an NWU book series on self directed learning and is devoted to self directed learning research and its impact on educational practice The importance of self directed learning for learners in the 21st century to equip themselves with the necessary skills to take responsibility for their own learning for life cannot be over emphasised The target audience does not only consist of scholars in the field of self directed learning in Higher Education and the Schooling sector but includes all scholars in the field of teaching and learning in all education and training sectors The book contributes to the discourse on creating dispositions towards self directed learning among all learners and adds to the latest body of scholarship in terms of self directed learning Although from different perspectives all chapters in the book are closely linked together around self directed learning as a central theme following on the work done in Volume 1 of this series Self Directed Learning for the 21st Century Implications for Higher Education to form a rich knowledge bank of work on self directed learning

Doing What's Best For Kids John Gilpin,2012-10-09 Doing What s Best for Kids is a centennial history of one of the most important social institutions in the history of Fort McMurray It explores the Fort McMurray Public School Board s relationship since 1912 to the development of oil sands salt mining fishing lumbering steamboat operations aviation and railway development The booms and busts of these industries at times threatened the existence of the district and at other times were the basis for growth The people who have made this history are a feature of this book This group includes Douglas Craig and Cassia McTavish who ensured that the fledgling school established in 1912 would survive the economic slump of 1913 The struggles with the department of education in Edmonton over funding and school approvals are another theme Collectively it is the story of persistence and accomplishment in a location far from Edmonton but rich in human and natural resources
