Content-based Second Language Teaching and Learning Marjorie Hall Haley, Theresa Y. Austin, 2004 This text examines second language pedagogy from two critical fields of literature psycholinguistics and socio cultural offering a fresh perspective on interactive content based language teaching and learning Unique in its kind this highly practical text offers more methodological approaches to teaching in ESL settings than any other book on the market making it a perfect match for undergraduate pre service teachers who are learning how to teach ESL students in their classrooms Novice teachers will have the opportunity to interact with the text reflect and consult with colleagues partners and classmates by being able to write in the text revisit those responses and view video clips on the Companion Website

Change(d) Agents Betty Achinstein, Rodney T. Ogawa, 2011-06-10 This book examines both the promise and complexity of diversifying today s teaching profession Drawing from a 5 year study of 21 new teachers of colour working in urban hard to staff schools this book uncovers a systemic paradox that the teachers confront They are committed to improving educational opportunities for students of colour by acting as role models culturally linguistically responsive teachers and change agents The teaching profession encouraged such commitments and some teachers acted with support from individual organizational and community based sponsors However many of these new teachers work in schools that are culturally subtractive and have restrictive accountability policies that challenge their ability to perform cultural professional roles to which they are committed Many teachers internalize the contradiction resulting in their becoming changed agents within the educational system they sought to change This book is essential reading for educators leaders and policymakers New Perspectives on Material Mediation in Language Learner Pedagogy Darren K. LaScotte, Corinne S. Mathieu, Samuel S. David, 2022-05-31 This volume distinguishes itself from existing research on materials design development and evaluation and focuses on material mediation in actual processes of teaching and learning a subject that has been under researched in the field of applied linguistics and second language education This edited volume includes diverse perspectives on the roles that materials play in language learner pedagogy Moving beyond the field of English language teaching readers will find novel contributions offering a diversity of language teaching contexts learner populations and topics in the theory and or practice of second and foreign language teaching Chapters explore the ways in which affordances and constraints of classroom materials impact teachers and learners while at the same time they bring their own evolving resources identities beliefs and expertise to modify and adapt the materials to better suit their local language teaching and learning environments As such this text is ideal for use as supplemental reading in a wide variety of applied linguistics second foreign language education TESOL and instructional course design courses Urban Teaching in America Andrea J. Stairs, Kelly A. Donnell, Alyssa Hadley Dunn, 2012 This book provides undergraduate and graduate students in education with an overview of urban teaching Organized around eight authentic questions it offers pre service and in service teachers opportunities for critical reflection and problem posing not often seen in comparable course texts This text supports staff who are looking for increasingly creative approaches to exploring key educational issues with their students Language-Based Approaches to Support Reading Comprehension Francine Falk-Ross, 2014-07-09 Language Based Approaches to Support Reading Comprehension takes a closer look at students who are frequently marginalized by language differences in the classroom whether by teachers oversight or simply the lack of information In order to remedy this situation Falk Ross and the contributing authors offer their different perspectives on supporting English language learners ELLs through specific strategies for assessment and instruction Each chapter presents a specific issue and challenge supportive research and up to date information classroom implications and strategies and case study applications relating to the particular perspective of literacy development for ELLs of middle level ages

Adopting the Beat of Expression: An Psychological Symphony within Pacing Guide For Foreign Language

In a world consumed by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of immediate communication, the melodic beauty and psychological symphony developed by the prepared word often diminish into the background, eclipsed by the constant sound and interruptions that permeate our lives.
