Translated Woman Crossing The Border With Esperanza S Story:

Translated Woman Ruth Behar, 1993 Translated Woman tells the story of an unforgettable encounter between Ruth Behar a Cuban American feminist anthropologist and Esperanza Hernandez a Mexican street peddler The tale of Esperanza s extraordinary life yields unexpected and profound reflections on the mutual desires that bind together anthropologists and their subjects

Traversing the Democratic Borders of the Essay Cristina Kirklighter, 2012-02-01 Scholarship on the personal essay has focused on Western European and U S varieties of the form In Traversing the Democratic Borders of the Essay Cristina Kirklighter extends these boundaries by reading the Latin American and Latino a essayists Paulo Freire Victor Villanueva and Ruth Behar alongside such canonical figures as Montaigne Bacon Emerson and Thoreau In this fascinating journey into the commonalities and differences among these essayists Kirklighter focuses on various elements of the personal essay self reflexivity accessibility spontaneity and a rhetoric of sincerity in order to argue for a more democratic form of writing in academia one that would democratize the academy and promote nation building By using these elements in their teachings and writings Kirklighter argues educators can play a significant role in helping others who experience academic alienation achieve a better sense of belonging as they slowly dismantle the walls of the ivory tower

Reimagining the Academy Alison L Black, Rachael Dwyer, 2021-11-19 This book explores the capacities and desires of academic women to reimagine and transform academic cultures Embracing and championing feminist scholarship the research presented by the authors in this collection holds space for a different way of being in academia and shifts the conversation toward a future that is hopeful kind and inclusive Through exploring lived experiences building caring communities and enacting an ethics of care the authors are reimagining the academy s focus and purpose The autoethnographic and arts based research approaches employed throughout the book provide evocative conceptual content which responds to the symbolic nature of transformation in the academy This innovative volume will be of interest and value to feminist scholars as well as those interested in disrupting and rejecting patriarchal academic structures

Art of Captivity / Arte del Cautiverio Kevin Lewis O'Neill, Benjamin Fogarty-Valenzuela, 2020-11-03 Through a series of rich photographs Art of Captivity Arte del Cautiverio tells a compelling story about the war on drugs in Central America Entirely bilingual in both English and Spanish the book focuses on the country of Guatemala now the principle point of transit for the cocaine that is produced in the Andes and bound for the United States and Canada Alongside a spike in the use of crack cocaine Guatemala City has witnessed the proliferation of Pentecostal drug rehabilitation centers The centers are sites of abuse and torment but also lifesaving institutions in a country that does not provide any other viable social service to those struggling with drug dependency Art of Captivity Arte del Cautiverio explores these centers as architectural forms while also showcasing the cultural production that takes place inside them including drawings and letters created by those held captive This stunning work of visual ethnography humanizes those held inside these centers breaks down stereotypes about drug use and sets the conditions for a hemispheric conversation about prohibitionist practices by revealing intimate portraits of a population held hostage by a war on drugs

The Psychology of Personhood Jack Martin, Mark H. Bickhard, 2012-11-29 A new examination of the psychology of personhood which views persons as irreducibly embodied and socially situated beings

Globalizing Cultural Studies Cameron McCarthy, 2007 The contributors to Globalizing Cultural Studies Ethnographic Interventions in Theory Method and Policy take as their central topic the problematic status of the global within cultural studies in the areas of theory method and policy and particularly in relation to the intersections of language power and identity in twenty first century post 9 11 culture s Writing against the Anglo centric ethnographic gaze that has saturated various cultural studies projects to date contributors offer new interdisciplinary autobiographical ethnographic textual postcolonial poststructural and political economic approaches to the practice of cultural studies This edited volume foregrounds twenty five groundbreaking essays plus a provocative foreword and an insightful afterword in which the authors show how globalization is articulated in the micro and macro dimensions of contemporary life pointing to the need for cultural studies to be more systematically engaged with the multiplicity and difference that globalization has proffered

Other Sisterhoods Sandra Kumamoto Stanley, 1998 Where are the women writers of color Where are their theoretical voices The fifteen contributors to Other Sisterhoods examine how women writers of color have contributed to the discourse of literary and cultural theory They focus on the impact of key issues such as social construction and identity politics on the works of women writers of color as well as how these women deal with differences relating to gender class race ethnicity and sexuality The book also explores the ways women writers of color have created their own ethnopoetics within the arena of literary and cultural theory helping to redefine the nature of theory itself

Can Literature Promote Justice? Kimberly A. Nance, 2006 As if in direct response to The New Yorker s question of The Power of the Pen Does Literature Change Anything Kimberly Nance takes up the relationship between ethics and literature With the 40th anniversary of the testimonio occurring in 2006 there has never been a better time to reconsider its role in achieving social justice The advent of the testimonio loosely a political autobiography of a Latin American activist who hopes through the telling of her life story to bring about change was met with a great deal of excitement by scholars who posited it as a radical new form of literature Those accolades were almost immediately followed by a series of critical problems In what sense were testimonios true What right did privileged scholars in the U S have to engage accounts of suffering with traditional modes of criticism Were questions of veracity or aesthetics more important Were these texts autobiography or political screeds It seemed critics didn't know quite what to make of the testimonio and so after a brief bout of engagement disregarded it Nance however argues that any form as prolific as the testimonio is well worth examining and that these questions rather than being insurmountable are exactly the questions with which scholars ought to be wrestling If as critics claim that the testimonio is one of the most pervasive contemporary Latin American cultural genres then it is high time for a comprehensive study of the genre such as Nance's Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 1999 Contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from The Oxford Handbook of Oral History Donald A. Ritchie, 2012-10-01 In the past sixty years oral history has moved from the periphery to the mainstream of academic studies and is now employed as a research tool by historians anthropologists sociologists medical therapists documentary film makers and educators at all levels The Oxford Handbook of Oral History brings together forty authors on five continents to address the evolution of oral history the impact of digital technology the most recent methodological and archival issues and the application of oral history to both scholarly research and public presentations The volume is addressed to seasoned practitioners as well as to newcomers offering diverse perspectives on the current state of the field and its likely future developments Some of its chapters survey large areas of oral history research and examine how they developed others offer case studies that deal with specific projects issues and applications of oral history From the Holocaust the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commissions the Falklands War in Argentina the Velvet Revolution in Eastern Europe to memories of September 11 2001 and of Hurricane Katrina the creative and essential efforts of oral historians worldwide are examined and explained in this multipurpose handbook Unfinished João Biehl, Peter Locke, 2017-11-16 This original field changing collection explores the plasticity and unfinishedness of human subjects and lifeworlds advancing the conceptual terrain of an anthropology of becoming People's becomings trouble and exceed ways of knowing and acting producing new possibilities for research methodology and writing The contributors creatively bridge ethnography and critical theory in a range of worlds on the edge from war and its aftermath economic transformation racial inequality and gun violence to religiosity therapeutic markets animal rights activism and abrupt environmental change Defying totalizing analytical schemes these visionary essays articulate a human science of the uncertain and unknown and restore a sense of movement and possibility to ethics and political practice Unfinished invites readers to consider the array of affects ideas forces and objects that shape contemporary modes of existence and future horizons opening new channels for critical thought and creative expression Contributors Lucas Bessire Jo o Biehl Naisargi N Dave Elizabeth A Davis Michael M J Fischer Angela Garcia Peter Locke Adriana Petryna Bridget Purcell Laurence Ralph Lilia M Schwarcz
