Translation History And Culture By Bassnett Susan Lefevere Andre:

Translation, History, and Culture Susan Bassnett, 1990 This varied collection of essays represents the differing strands of work currently being undertaken in the exciting new field of Translation Studies and reflects a shift of emphasis away from a more descriptive form of translation towards the idea that translation occupies a seminal position in the development of culture Susan Bassnett is Director of the Centre for British Comparative Cultural Studies at the University of Warwick Andre Lefevere is Professor of Germanic Philology at the University of Texas at Austin

Translation, History, & Culture Susan Bassnett, 1998-05-06 A collection of essays which represent the different strands of work being undertaken in the field of translation studies The book reflects the shift in emphasis away from a more descriptive form of translation to the view that translation occupies a central position in the development of culture

Constructing Cultures Susan Bassnett, André Lefevere, 1998 This collection brings together two leading figures in the discipline of translation studies The essays cover a range of fields and combine theory with practical case studies involving the translation of literary texts

Beyond Descriptive Translation Studies Anthony Pym, Miriam Shlesinger, Daniel Simeoni, 2008 To go beyond the work of a leading intellectual is rarely an unambiguous tribute However when Gideon Toury founded Descriptive Translation Studies as a research based discipline he laid down precisely that intellectual challenge not just to describe translation but to explain it through reference to wider relations That call offers at once a common base an open and multidirectional ambition and many good reasons for unambiguous tribute The authors brought together in this volume include key players in Translation Studies who have responded to Toury's challenge in one way or another Their diverse contributions address issues such as the sociology of translators contemporary changes in intercultural relations the fundamental problem of defining translations the nature of explanation and case studies including pseudotranslation in Renaissance Italy Sherlock Holmes in Turkey and the coffee and sugar economy in Brazil All acknowledge Translation Studies as a research based space for conceptual coherence and creativity all seek to explain as well as describe In this sense we believe that Toury's call has been answered beyond expectations

Translation and the Reconfiguration of Power Relations Beatrice Fischer, Matilde Nisbeth Jensen, 2012 This volume presents translation as a powerful activity by revisiting the roles of translators and interpreters and the contexts of translation and interpreting in societies affected by globalization and migration The articles cover topics such as the impact languages have on translation the institutional constraints in the context of translation and the challenges within the framework of multimodal translation In recent years questions of power in translation have emerged In such a context the book presents new research paths that can be related to some of the most discussed issues of recent years in Translation Studies The contributors are 14 PhD students who investigate the power relations in the context of censorship ideology localization multimodal translation English as a lingua franca in translation mandatory genres and translation by non professional subject matter translators Series Representation Transformation Translating across Cultures and Societies Vol 7

Handbook of Translation Studies Yves

Gambier, Luc van Doorslaer, 2011-12-21 As a meaningful manifestation of how institutionalized the discipline has become the new Handbook of Translation Studies is most welcome. It joins the other signs of maturation such as Summer Schools, the development of academic curricula, historical surveys, journals, book series, textbooks, terminologies, bibliographies, and encyclopedias. The HTS aims at disseminating knowledge about translation and interpreting and providing easy access to a large range of topics, traditions, and methods to a relatively broad audience, not only students who often adamantly prefer such user-friendliness, researchers and lecturers in Translation Studies, Translation, but also scholars and experts from other disciplines among which linguistics, sociology, history, psychology. In addition, the HTS addresses any of those with a professional or personal interest in the problems of translation, interpreting, localization, editing, etc. such as communication specialists, journalists, literary critics, editors, public servants, business managers, intercultural organization specialists, media specialists, marketing professionals. Moreover, The HTS offers added value. First of all, it is the first Handbook with this scope in Translation Studies that has both a print edition and an online version. The advantages of an online version are obvious: it is more flexible and accessible, and in addition, the entries can be regularly revised and updated. The Handbook is variously searchable by article, by author, by subject. A second benefit is the interconnection with the selection and organization principles of the online Translation Studies Bibliography TSB. The taxonomy of the TSB has been partly applied to the selection of entries for the HTS. Moreover, many items in the reference lists are hyperlinked to the TSB where the user can find an abstract of a publication. All articles, between 500 and 6000 words, are written by specialists in the different subfields and are peer-reviewed. Last but not least, the usability, accessibility, and flexibility of the HTS depend on the commitment of people who agree that Translation Studies does matter. All users are therefore invited to share their feedback. Any questions, remarks, and suggestions for improvement can be sent to the editorial team at hts@lessius.eu. The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Culture Sue-Ann Harding, OVIDI CARBONELL CORTES, 2018-04-09 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Culture collects into a single volume thirty-two state-of-the-art chapters written by international specialists, overviewing the ways in which translation studies has both informed and been informed by interdisciplinary approaches to culture. The book's five sections provide a wealth of resources covering both core issues and topics. In the first part, The second part considers the relationship between translation and cultural narratives, drawing on both historical and religious case studies. The third part covers translation and social contexts, including the issues of cultural resistance, indigenous cultures, and cultural representation. The fourth part addresses translation and cultural creativity, citing both popular fiction and graphic novels as examples. The final part covers translation and culture in professional settings, including cultures of science, legal settings, and intercultural businesses. This handbook offers a wealth of information for advanced undergraduates, postgraduates, and researchers working in translation and interpreting studies. World Literature in Theory David

Damrosch,2014-01-28 World Literature in Theory provides a definitive exploration of the pressing questions facing those studying world literature today Coverage is split into four parts which examine the origins and seminal formulations of world literature world literature in the age of globalization contemporary debates on world literature and localized versions of world literature Contains more than 30 important theoretical essays by the most influential scholars including Johann Wolfgang von Goethe Hugo Meltzl Edward Said Franco Moretti Jorge Luis Borges and Gayatri Spivak Includes substantive introductions to each essay as well as an annotated bibliography for further reading Allows students to understand articulate and debate the most important issues in this rapidly changing field of study

Post-Theories in Literary and Cultural Studies Zekiye Antakyalioglu,2022-04-25 Post Theories in Literary and Cultural Studies focuses on the shifting paradigms in literary and cultural studies Prompted by the changes and problems on the global scale the last two decades have seen a resurgence of scholarly interest in theories which are more embedded in the social realities and human condition This volume shows that theory can reinvent theory and re define criticism according to the demands of the new millennium In this context it examines new ways of considering the relation of post theory to the concepts such as ethics aesthetics truth value authenticity human and reality to understand the mindset of the new century This volume presents the various suggestions and concerns of post theoretical studies that reflect the sensibilities of the contemporary social and cultural life The book is a source of reference to develop an understanding of this change of attitude in post theoretical studies towards a more directly and sincerely responsive approach to the current problems worldwide their representations in literature and language reflections in theory roots in socio political domains and effects on the material reality

The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Ethics Kaisa Koskinen,Nike K. Pokorn,2020-12-16 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Ethics offers a comprehensive overview of issues surrounding ethics in translating and interpreting The chapters chart the philosophical and theoretical underpinnings of ethical thinking in Translation Studies and analyze the ethical dilemmas of various translatorial actors including translation trainers and researchers Authored by leading scholars and new voices in the field the 31 chapters present a wide coverage of emerging issues such as increasing technologization of translation posthumanism volunteering and activism accessibility and linguistic human rights Many chapters provide the first extensive overview of the topic or present new takes on established areas The book is divided into four parts with the first covering the most influential ethical theories Part II takes the perspective of agents in different contexts and the ethical dilemmas they face while Part III takes a critical look at central institutions structuring and controlling ethical behaviour Finally Part IV focuses on special issues and new challenges and signals new directions for further study This handbook is an indispensable resource for all students and researchers of translation and ethics within translation and interpreting studies multilingualism and comparative literature

The Sociological Turn in Translation and Interpreting Studies Claudia V. Angelelli,2014-09-15 Increasing attention has been paid to the agency of translators and interpreters as well as to the social factors that permeate acts of translation and interpreting In addition agency and social factors are discussed in more interdisciplinary terms Currently the focus is not only on translators or interpreters i e the exploration of their inter intra social agency and identity construction or on their activities and the consequences thereof but also on other phenomena such as the displacement of texts and people and issues of access and linguisticism The displacement of texts whether written or oral across time and space as well as the geographic displacement of people has encouraged researchers in Translation and Interpreting Studies to consider issues related to translation and interpreting through the lens of the Sociology of Language Sociolinguistics and Historiography Researchers have employed a myriad of theoretical and methodological lenses borrowed from other disciplines in the Humanities and Social Sciences Therefore the interdisciplinarity of Translation and Interpreting Studies is more evident now than ever before This volume originally published as a special issue of Translation and Interpreting Studies issue 7 2 2012 is a perfect example of such interdisciplinarity reflecting the shift that has occurred in Translation and Interpreting Studies around the world over the last 30 years

Language - Meaning - Social Construction, 2016-09-12 This uniquely interdisciplinary collection of essays derives in part from a two day international conference held at Heriot Watt University in November 1999 and conceived as a critical forum for the discussion of the concept of interaction The collection satisfies a continuing need for interdisciplinary and multi disciplinary research in the humanities and stems from an awareness of the growing currency of interactionist theories in several fields and the need to make a critical contribution to such theories and related concepts such as intersubjectivity and dialogism Rather than advancing an apologetic view of interaction as something given the contributors carefully consider and challenge commonly held epistemological and theoretical assumptions relating to the interaction concept Interaction if it is to be a meaningful concept must be seen in terms of its modes e g linguistic media based units language logic communication objectives understanding consensus stability and fields of operation face to face interaction translation social codification This collection is intended to offer a provisional response to the question posed by one of its contributors What does it mean today that communication as the mechanism of social co ordination has itself become complex It means that erstwhile certainties of meaning transmission stability duality or dichotomy identity and difference can be challenged and theoretically modelled in new contexts Interdisciplinarity is one means by which to illuminate this complexity from several sides in the pursuit of theoretical blind spots in the field of critical communication studies The book will be of particular interest to researchers and students in communication theory linguistics translation studies logic social psychology discourse studies European Studies philosophy and semiotics

The Routledge Handbook of Chinese Translation Chris Shei,Zhao-Ming Gao,2017-10-16 The Routledge Handbook of Chinese Translation presents expert and new research in analysing and solving translation problems centred on the Chinese language in translation The Handbook includes both a review of and a distinctive approach to key themes in Chinese translation such as translatability and equivalence extraction of collocation and translation from parallel and comparable corpora In doing so it undertakes to synthesise existing knowledge in Chinese translation develops new frameworks for analysing Chinese translation problems and explains translation theory appropriate to the Chinese context The Routledge Handbook of Chinese Translation is an essential reference work for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students and scholars actively researching in this area The Making of Chinese-Sinophone Literatures as World Literature Kuei-fen Chiu, Yingjin Zhang, 2021-12-21 In The Making of Chinese Sinophone Literatures as World Literature Kuei fen Chiu and Yingjin Zhang aim to bridge the distance between the scholarship of world literature and that of Chinese and Sinophone literary studies This edited volume advances research on world literature by bringing in new developments in Chinese Sinophone literatures and adds a much needed new global perspective on Chinese literary studies beyond the traditional national literature paradigm and its recent critique by Sinophone studies In addition to a critical mapping of the domains of world literature Sinophone literature and world literature in Chinese to delineate the nuanced differences of these three disciplines the book addresses the issues of translation genre and the impact of media and technology on our understanding of literature and literary prestige It also provides critical studies of the complicated ways in which Chinese and Sinophone literatures are translated received and reinvested across various genres and media and thus circulate as world literature The issues taken up by the contributors to this volume promise fruitful polemical interventions in the studies of world literature from the vantage point of Chinese and Sinophone literatures An outstanding volume full of insights with chapters by leading scholars from an admirable range of perspectives Chiu and Zhang s The Making of Chinese Sinophone Literatures as World Literature expertly integrates Chinese and Sinophone studies with world literature scholarship opening numerous possibilities for future analyses of literature media and cultural history Karen L Thornber Harvard University This book is at once the best possible introduction to recent debates on world literature from the perspective of Chinese Sinophone literatures and a summa critica that thinks through their transcultural drives global travels varied worldings and translational forces The comparative perspectives gathered here accomplish the necessary and urgent task of reconfiguring both the idea of the world in world literature and the ways we study the inscriptions of Chinese Sinophone literatures in the world Mariano Siskind Harvard University Yes Prime Manipulator Nam Fung Chang, Nanfeng Zhang, 2005 A study of Nam fung s Chinese translation of Jonathan Lynn and Antony Jay s classic political satire Yes Prime Minister this monograph analyzes the relationship between function process and product in the art of translation Handbook of English Renaissance Literature Ingo Berensmeyer, 2019-10-08 This handbook of English Renaissance literature serves as a reference for both students and scholars introducing recent debates and developments in early modern studies Using new theoretical perspectives and methodological tools the volume offers exemplary close readings of canonical and less well known texts from all significant genres between c 1480 and 1660 Its systematic chapters address questions about editing Renaissance texts the role of translation theatre and drama life writing science travel and migration and women as writers readers and patrons The book will be of particular interest to those wishing to expand their knowledge of the early modern period beyond Shakespeare     Athanor (2001) S. Petrilli,2001     The Routledge Handbook of the History of Translation Studies Anne Lange,Daniele Monticelli,Christopher Rundle,2024-03-20 The Routledge Handbook of the History of Translation Studies is an exploration of the history of translation and interpreting studies TIS as a field of intellectual enquiry The volume covers the evolution of thinking on translation from the earliest discourses in Assyria Egypt Israel China India Greece and Rome up to the early 20th century when TIS emerged as an identifiable academic field The volume also traces the institutionalization of TIS and its key concepts from their beginnings in the 1920s in Ukraine up to their contemporary interdisciplinary manifestations Written by leading international scholars many of whom played a direct role in the events they describe the chapters in this volume provide a comprehensive and in depth account of the birth and consolidation of translation and interpreting studies as a thriving interdisciplinary With a focus on providing readers with the methodological and theoretical tools they need to conduct research as well as background in the historiography of TIS this handbook is an indispensable resource for all students and researchers of translation and interpreting studies     The 1840 translation of the Gospel of Luke as a technology of power Itumeleng D. Mothoagae ,2024-07-26 In this book the author aims to explore the impact of 19th century translations of the Bible into indigenous languages with a specific focus on the Setswana translation The translations have had a profound effect on the religious cultural practices of the indigenous people leading to erosion and alteration of their traditions and identities I argue that it is crucial to consider the translator s intentions and the associated literature such as journals and letters to understand the translation process comprehensively The Setswana Bible was the first to be translated in Africa and tracing the intentions of Robert Moffat the first translator is imperative to understanding the impact of the translation on the receptor culture The methodology adopted is interdisciplinary drawing from linguistics African languages history English literature cultural studies black studies and theology I analyse the impact of the 1840 Gospel of Luke in the context of Setswana culture in South Africa and my findings demonstrate that translations cannot be distinct from the translator To gain a deep understanding of the implications of such texts I adopt a methodology that analyses significant historical literature and primary sources including the records and works of The British and Foreign Bible Society The History of the London Missionary Society and the journals letters and writings of missionaries such as Robert Moffat and John Campbell
