Carol Griffiths,2024-04-30 This accessibly written textbook uses the intrinsic appeal of a story to engage students with language and provides teachers with the background knowledge and the skills to use literature to construct lessons for their classes which integrate all four skills plus language awareness in an enjoyable way Although a number of books and studies have examined the value of using literature to learn language literature remains under represented as a language learning resource The author argues that the accumulated body of literature represents a bottomless pit of potential material just waiting to be recognised and enjoyed From a teacher s point of view a lesson based on a literary work can provide an integrated approach to language development which few other approaches can match A piece of literature can be used to develop all four skills both receptive and productive reading writing listening speaking as well as production skills and language awareness This book willbe an essential resource for pre service and in service teachers teacher trainers students and scholars of Applied Linguistics Language Education TESOL and related subjects Current literature of the month

,1924 Learning to Love Jean Ellis Hudson,2014-03 The saga of the lives of Clem and Susannah Brown and their family continues to unfold The first book in The Fruit of the Spirit Series dealt with Clem s childhood and subsequent marriage to Susannah and all the trials and tragedies they experienced through the years Their children are Thomas Ruth and Jeff This book deals with their daughter Ruth from ages four to eighteen She misbehaves as a child and doesn t show respect and love to her family and feels they don't love her. The prayer life of her family is greatly increased due to her attitude. She wants out of Victory, Texas, and off the farm. She wants big city life and wants to teach school. Her grandparents spoil her by giving her anything she wants. She eventually goes off to college in Houston and graduates top of her class in 1910, but through it all she shows lack of respect and love to her family many many times with her prideful and haughty attitude. She applies for teaching jobs in four states and wants a big city. The only offer she gets is from a small town in Georgia in a one room school. Everyone advises her to take it as a first year teacher. She finally consents, but God has a plan for Ruth. The plan unfolds in a most unusual way to get her attention. Discover what happens to and in Ruth.
