Playing Australia explores the insights and challenges that Australian theatre can offer the international theatre community Collectively the essays in this book ask what Australian drama is has been and might be both to Australians and non Australians when it is performed in national and international arenas Playing Australia ranges widely in its discussions and includes analysis of Australian practitioners playing away from home playing with Australian stereotypes and the relationship between play culture politics and national identity Topics addressed in this diverse collection include whiteness otherness and negotiations of Aboriginal and Asian identities

Australian school and college drama the discourse of Australian professional theatre magazines Aboriginal Shakespeare Australian drama and Australian cricket the marketing of Australianness in Germany the international successes of Tap Dogs and Cloudstreet New histories of Australian theatre are offered and practitioners whose careers are reconsidered in detail include high wire walker Ella Zuila playwright May Holt suffrage worker and playwright Inez Bensusan classicist Gilbert Murray and commercial playwright Haddon Chambers With contributions from authors as diverse as Guardian theatre critic Michael Billington and leading post colonial critic Helen Gilbert and interview discussion with Cate Blanchett and Tap Dogs producer Wayne Harrison Playing Australia seeks to pay tribute to the complexities of Australian theatre experiences to reassess Australian theatre as a significant force in the international arena and to challenge traditional thinking on what Australian theatre can be The Routledge Companion to Australian Literature Jessica Gildersleeve, 2020-12-22

In recent years Australian literature has experienced a revival of interest both domestically and internationally The increasing prominence of work by writers like Christos Tsiolkas heightened through television and film adaptation as well as the award of major international prizes to writers like Richard Flanagan and the development of new high profile prizes like the Stella Prize have all reinvigorated interest in Australian literature both at home and abroad This Companion emerges as a part of that reinvigoration considering anew the history and development of Australian literature and its key themes as well as tracing the transition of the field through those critical debates It considers works of Australian literature on their own terms as well as positioning them in their critical and historical context and their ethical and interactive position in the public and private spheres With an emphasis on literature's responsibilities this book claims Australian literary studies as a field uniquely positioned to expose the ways in which literature engages with produces and is produced by its context provoking a critical re evaluation of the concept of the relationship between national literatures cultures and histories and the social function of literary texts

Tremendous Worlds Susan Pfisterer, 1999 Tremendous Worlds is a companion volume to Playing with Ideas and has a play corresponding to each of the book's seven chapters The anthology makes accessible for the first time a selection of Australian women's plays from the first half of the twentieth century plays that celebrate the diversity of female identities Australian women who won the vote decades ahead of those in England and the United States have long had something to say that reflects their unique experiences Some fascinating debates and musings are captured here reminding us how revealing theatre can be of a society's beliefs and cultures
