January 1950 A small boy his brother and his father abandon their car in a blizzard near Albuquerque New Mexico Evening approaches and he fears being left behind As they push on towards a distant highway they hear a vehicle behind them It stops and the driver offers a lift They climb in and he returns them to the motel where his mother anxiously awaits them The experience leaves a deep impression on the boy that stays with him into old age

January 1960 Now a junior in high school the young man struggles to fit in He s attracted to several girls but is too shy to ask them out Instead he concentrates on his after school jobs His church and membership in Explorer Scouts remind him of obligations when he really wants to enjoy greater independence He reaches a critical turning point when his French language teacher persuades him to apply for a summer student exchange program Still struggling to define his identity he applies and hopes to be accepted After failing a major French exam he doubts his chances His teacher offers him a make up exam but first he must write an essay about the exchange program and why he would like to live with a host family in another country He meets this challenge and is accepted but not in France An exchange of letters with the son of a host family in Germany heightens his desire to escape his hum drum suburban life and set out on a great adventure Using his own money he buys a ticket on a transcontinental bus and heads for Montreal to board a ship for Europe Along the way he meets several interesting passengers He embarks with hundreds of other young Americans from across the country on a ten day Atlantic crossing The young man soon realizes that he is on a much grander voyage to see a more interesting world than he had ever imagined in his home town Reaching port in Holland he and the others board trains for destinations across Europe He anticipates that the summer will be a turning point in his life Flying Magazine, 1958-11 Flying Magazine, 1957-10

Flying Magazine, 1980-12 Flying Magazine, 1961-03 Kiplinger's Personal Finance, 1959-09 The most trustworthy source of information available today on savings and investments taxes money management home ownership and many other personal finance topics Weekend Pilots Alan Meyer, 2015-12-30 The inside story of the hypermasculine world of American private aviation In 1960 97 percent of private pilots were men More than half a century later this figure has barely changed In Weekend Pilots Alan Meyer provides an engaging account of the postWorld War II aviation community Drawing on public records trade association journals newspaper accounts and private papers and interviews Meyer takes readers inside a white male circle of the initiated that required exceptionally high skill levels that celebrated facing and overcoming risk and that encouraged fierce personal independence The Second World War proved an important turning point in popularizing private aviation Military flight schools and postwar GI Bill flight training swelled the ranks of private pilots with hundreds of thousands of young mostly middle class men Formal flight instruction screened and acculturated aspiring fliers to meet a masculine norm that traced its roots to prewar barnstorming and wartime combat training After the war the aviation community's response to aircraft designs played a significant part in the technological development of personal planes Meyer also considers the community of pilots outside the cockpit from the time honored tradition of hangar flying at local airports to air shows to national conventions of private fliers to argue that almost every aspect of private aviation reinforced the message that flying was by for and about men The first scholarly book to examine in detail the role of masculinity in aviation Weekend Pilots adds new dimensions to our understanding of embedded gender and its long term effects
