Trial Memorandum 2014 English P1 1:

Translating Evidence and Interpreting Testimony at a War Crimes Tribunal Ellen Elias-Bursac, 2015-02-17 How can defendants be tried if they cannot understand the charges being raised against them Can a witness testify if the judges and attorneys cannot understand what the witness is saying Can a judge decide whether to convict or acquit if she or he cannot read the documentary evidence The very viability of international criminal prosecution and adjudication hinges on the massive amounts of translation and interpreting that are required in order to run these lengthy complex trials and the procedures for handling the demands facing language services This book explores the dynamic courtroom interactions in the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia in which witnesses testify through an interpreter about translations attorneys argue through an interpreter about translations and the interpreting and judges adjudicate on the interpreted testimony and translated evidence

Arbitration in Belgium Niuscha Bassiri, Maarten Draye, 2016-03-24 Despite the obvious advantages accruing from its central location and the presence of the EU institutions in its capital city Brussels Belgium has never fully fulfilled its potential to emerge as an attractive jurisdiction for international arbitration Now however with the adoption in 2013 of an entirely new arbitration law and the accompanying overhaul of the rules of CEPANI the Belgian Centre for Arbitration and Mediation Brussels is poised to progress rapidly towards the top rank of European and global seats of arbitration This is the first comprehensive treatise in English to provide practical guidance to arbitration practitioners in house counsel and judges on how to conduct arbitrations in Belgium To facilitate its use it is structured as an article by article commentary on the 2013 Law addressing the following aspects of each article the purpose of the provision comparison with the UNCITRAL Model Law on Commercial Arbitration party autonomy issues of costs and interplay with the rules of other major arbitration institutions and the New York Convention The core of each article commentary is an in depth analysis that provides recommendations to practitioners and judges The analysis goes beyond the contents of the commented article and deals with related issues that are not addressed expressly in the Law but may be of relevance for the issues covered in the provision in question Arbitration professionals will find here convincing evidence of the liberal system for arbitration now prevailing in Belgium along with rules that reflect the most recent trends in international practice The description and analysis offered are sure to contribute to the recognition of Belgium as a global arbitral jurisdiction

Civil Case Management in the Twenty-First Century: Court Structures Still Matter Peter C.H. Chan, C.H. van Rhee, 2021-02-15 The information age provides novel tools for case management While technology plays a crucial role the way in which courts are structured is still critical in ensuring effective case management The correlation between court structure and case management is a pivotal topic The existing debate concentrates predominantly on the micro and case specific aspects of case management without further inquiry into the relationship between court structure court management and case management The contributions within this volume fill this gap from a comparative perspective undertaking a macro structural and sub macro perspective of procedure and case management Uprooting University Apartheid in South Africa Teresa A. Barnes, 2018-12-07 South Africa continues to be an object of fascination for people everywhere interested in social justice issues postcolonial studies and critical race theory as manifested by the enormous worldwide attention given to the RhodesMustFall movement In this book Teresa Barnes examines universities complex positioning in the apartheid era and argues that tracing the institutional legacies left by pro apartheid intellectuals are crucial to understanding the fight to transform South African higher education A work of interpretive social history this book investigates three historical dynamics in the relationship between the apartheid system and South African higher education First it explores how the legitimacy of apartheid was historically reproduced in public higher education Second it looks at ways that academics maneuvered through and influenced national and international discourses of political freedom and legitimacy Third it explores how and where stubborn tendrils of apartheid era knowledge production practices survived into and have been combatted during the democratic era in South African universities The British Official Film in South-East Asia Ian Aitken, 2016-11-22 This book explores the ways in which the British official film was used in Malaya Malaysia Singapore and Hong Kong from 1945 to the 1970s Aitken uncovers how the British official film and British official information agencies adapted to the epochal contexts of the Cold War and end of empire In addition to an extensive introduction which touches on a number of critical issues related to the post war British official film the book provides an account of how the tradition of film making associated with the British documentary film movement spread into the region during the post war period and how that tradition was contested by a Colonial Office tradition of film making The volume concludes by covering the rise of television in the region within the context of developing post colonial authoritarian states in Singapore and Malaysia and the continuation of colonial authoritarianism in Hong Kong Standing Up for Justice Theodor Meron, 2021-03-25 This is a book about international criminal justice written by one of its foremost practitioners and academic thinkers Judge Theodor Meron For two decades Judge Meron has been at the heart of the international criminal justice system serving as President of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia ICTY President of the International Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals and a Judge of the Appeals Chambers of the ICTY and the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda Drawing on this experience and his life and career before serving as an international judge Judge Meron reflects on some of the key questions facing the international criminal justice system In the opening chapter Judge Meron writes vividly about his childhood experiences in Poland during World War II his education career with the Israeli Foreign Ministry and subsequent move into academia in the United States The book continues with Meron s reflections on what it means to transform from a law professor into an international criminal judge and shifts focus to the criminal courtroom addressing topics such as the judicial function the rule of law and the principle of fairness in trying atrocity crimes genocide crimes against humanity and war crimes Judge Meron discusses judicial independence and impartiality in international criminal courts shedding light on the mystery of judicial decision making and deliberations Notably he addresses the controversial subjects of acquittals and the early release of prisoners Although acquittals are often seen as a failure of international justice Judge Meron argues that legal principle must come before any extraneous purpose however desirable that purpose may be Finally the book looks ahead at the challenges facing the future of international justice and accountability and discusses the all important question does international criminal justice work Exploring Peace Through Justice Should Be An Essential Element of China's Anti-Fascist War Memorialisation LIU Yiqiang,2014-10-12 Criticality, Teacher Identity, and (In)equity in English Language Teaching Bedrettin Yazan,Nathanael Rudolph,2018-03-26 This edited volume envisioned through a postmodern and poststructural lens represents an effort to destabilize the normalized assumption in the discursive field of English language teaching ELT Pennycook 2007 critically oriented and otherwise that identity experience privilege marginalization in equity and interaction can and should be apprehended and attended to via categories embedded within binaries e g NS NNS NEST NNEST The volume provides space for authors and readers alike to explore fluidly critical practical approaches to identity experience in equity and interaction envisioned through and beyond binaries and to examine the implications such approaches hold for attending to the contextual complexity of identity and interaction in and beyond the classroom The volume additionally serves to prompt criticality in ELT towards reflexivity conceptual clarity and congruence and dialogue

The Welsh Language Commissioner in Context Diarmait Mac Golla Chríost,2016-07-20 it is the first book on the subject much of the research data provides a unique insight to the development of government policy and is exclusive to this book several of the research results are quite striking and will be of great interest to academics and policy actors alike

The Rise and Fall of the Rehabilitative Ideal, 1895-1970 Victor Bailey,2019-04-09 Spanning almost a century of penal policy and practice in England and Wales this book is a study of the long arc of the rehabilitative ideal beginning in 1895 the year of the Gladstone Committee on Prisons and ending in 1970 when the policy of treating and training criminals was very much on the defensive Drawing on a plethora of source material such as the official papers of mandarins ministers and magistrates measures of public opinion prisoner memoirs publications of penal reform groups and prison officers the reports of Royal Commissions and Departmental Committees political opinion in both Houses of Parliament and the research of the first cadre of criminologists this book comprehensively examines a number of aspects of the British penal system including judicial sentencing law making and the administration of legal penalties In doing so Victor Bailey expertly weaves a complex and nuanced picture of punishment in twentieth century England and Wales one that incorporates the enduring influence of the death penalty and will force historians to revise their interpretation of twentieth century social and penal policy This detailed and ground breaking account of the rise and fall of the rehabilitative ideal will be essential reading for scholars and students of the history of crime and justice and historical criminology as well as those interested in social and legal history Business Ethics Gael McDonald,2014-10-29 Business Ethics introduces students to ethical issues and decision making in a variety of contemporary contexts It develops an awareness of the many ways in which ethical considerations can manifest in commercial domains thereby helping prepare students for their professional careers Business Ethics shows how theory works in practice It includes hundreds of real world examples that will help engage students Examples draw on recent and emerging concerns such as the moral implications of social media and the enforcement of codes of behaviour within industries The book also addresses corporate social responsibility stakeholder management and sustainability reflecting the broad scope of business ethics today Comprehensive online resources are available at www.cambridge.edu/au/academic/businessethics Student resources include additional review questions and case studies with answer guides to help students reinforce learning and prepare for assessment tasks Instructor resources include an extensive set of tutorial exercises PowerPoint slides and a test bank of assessment resources

Sexual Abuse, Shonda and Concealment in Orthodox Jewish Communities Michael Lesher, 2014-07-15 This book the first of its kind analyzes how and why cases of child sexual abuse have been systematically concealed in Orthodox Jewish communities The book examines many such cover ups in detail showing how denial backlash against victims and the manipulation of the secular justice system have placed Orthodox Jewish community leaders in the position of defending or even enabling child abusers The book also examines the generally disappointing treatment of this issue in popular media while dissecting the institutions that contribute to the cover ups including two rabbinic courts and local Orthodox patrols that are more or less unique to Orthodox Jewish communities Finally the book explores the cultural factors that have contributed to this tragedy and concludes with hopes and proposals for future reform

Asian Data Privacy Laws Graham Greenleaf, 2014-10-16 The first work to examine data privacy laws across Asia covering all 26 countries and separate jurisdictions and with in depth analysis of the 14 which have specialised data privacy laws Professor Greenleaf demonstrates the increasing world wide significance of data privacy and the international context of the development of national data privacy laws as well as assessing the laws their powers and their enforcement against international standards The book also contains a web link to an update to mid 2017 Early History of Soybeans and Soyfoods Worldwide (1900-1923) William Shurtleff, Akiko Aoyagi, 2014-11-22 The world's most comprehensive we documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive index 520 photographs and illustrations Free of charge in digital format on Google Books The National Union Catalogs, 1963-1964 Feminist Lives Lynn Abrams, 2023-10-03 Could women be feminist without feminism Could they foster feminist activism without a movement or an ideology Could they recraft ways of being female without a plan Feminist Lives adopts a woman centred approach to explore these questions and to understand how British women charted a new way of being female in the three decades before the Women's Liberation Movement By focusing on the transition generation of women who were born in the long 1940s and who grew to maturity in the 1950s 60s and 70s the book demonstrates that it was they who developed the aspirational model of womanhood that then emerged after 1970 as the norm amongst women in the global north In doing so Feminist Lives seeks to fill the feminist history gap countering a narrative that has for too long neglected this generation of women as fusty and failing and as just not feminist enough Using women's voices as the book's evidential and emotional core as they describe themselves their relationships their feelings and actions this volume analyses the modes by which women constructed a modern self built upon new ways of living feeling and being
