How Many I Adopted Over Time?

Over the 10-year period from 1990 to 2000, the number of people in the United States who were obese increased from 10.5% to 14.5% of the population. The increase in obesity is a public health concern because it is associated with an increased risk of heart disease, diabetes, and other health problems. The increase in obesity is also a concern because it is associated with an increased risk of death.
