Historical Dictionary of Taiwan Cinema

Daw-Ming Lee,2012-11-08 Taiwan was able to solidly build and sustain a film industry only after locally produced Mandarin films secured markets in Hong Kong and Southeast Asia during the 1960s and 1970s Though only a small island with a limited population in its heyday Taiwan was among the top 10 film producing countries areas in the world turning out hundreds of martial arts kung fu films and romantic melodramas annually that were screened in theaters across Southeast Asia and other areas internationally However except for one acclaimed film by director King Hu Taiwan cinema was nearly invisible on the art cinema map until the 1980s when the films of Hou Hsiao hsien Edward Yang and other Taiwan New Cinema directors gained recognition at international film festivals first in Europe and later throughout the world Since then many other Taiwan directors have also become an important part of cinema history such as Ang Lee and Tsai Ming liang The Historical Dictionary of Taiwan Cinema covers the history of cinema in Taiwan during both the Japanese colonial period 1895 1945 and the Chinese Nationalist period 1945 present This is accomplished through a chronology highlighting the main events during the long period and an introduction which carefully analyses the progression The bulk of the information however appears in a dictionary section including over a hundred very extensive entries on directors producers performers films film studios and genres Photos are also included in the dictionary section More information can be found through the bibliography Taiwan cinema is truly unique and this book is a good place to find out more about it whether you are a student or teacher or just a fan Contemporary Sino-French Cinemas Michelle E.

Bloom,2017-11-30 Transnational cinemas are eclipsing national cinemas in the contemporary world and Sino French films exemplify this phenomenon through the cinematic coupling of the Sinophone and the Francophone linking France not just with the Chinese mainland but also with the rest of the Chinese speaking world Sinophone directors most often reach out to French cinema by referencing and adapting it They set their films in Paris and metropolitan France cast French actors and sometimes use French dialogue even when the directors themselves don't understand it. They tend to view France as mysterious, sexy and sophisticated just as the French see China and Taiwan as exotic. As Michelle E. Bloom makes clear, many films move past a simplistic opposition between East and West and beyond Orientalist and Occidentalist cross-cultural interplay. Bloom focuses on films that have appeared since 2000 such as Tsai Ming-liang's What Time Is It There?, Hou Hsiao-hsien's Flight of the Red Balloon and Dai Sijie's Balzac and the Little Chinese Seamstress. She views the work of these well-known directors through a Sino-French optic, applying the tropes of métissage or biraciality, intertextuality, adaptation and remake, translation and imitation to shed new light on their work. She also calls attention to important, lesser-studied films: Taiwanese director Cheng Yu-chieh's Yang Yang, which depicts the up-and-coming Taiwanese star Sandrine Pinna as a mixed-race beauty; and Emily Tang Xiaobai's debut film Conjugation, which contrasts Paris and post-Tiananmen Square Beijing, the one an incarnation of liberty, the other a place of entrapment. Bloom's insightful analysis also probes what such films reveal about their Taiwanese and Chinese creators. Scholars have long studied Sino-French literature, but this inaugural full-length work on Sino-French cinema maps uncharted territory, offering a paradigm for understanding other cross-cultural interminglings and tools to study transnational cinema and world cinema. The Sino-French, rich and multifaceted, linguistically, culturally and ethnically constitutes an important part of film studies, Francophone studies, Sinophone studies and myriad other fields. This is a must-read for students, scholars and lovers of film.

Chinese Cinemas Felicia Chan, Andy Willis, 2016-05-20. Chinese Cinemas: International Perspectives examines the impact the rapid expansion of Chinese filmmaking in mainland China has had on independent and popular Chinese cinemas both in and outside of China. While the large Chinese markets are coveted by Hollywood, the commercial film industry within the People's Republic of China has undergone rapid expansion since the 1990s. Its own production, distribution and exhibition capacities have increased exponentially in the past 20 years, producing box office success both domestically and abroad. This volume gathers the work of a range of established scholars and newer voices on Chinese cinemas to address questions that interrogate both Chinese films and the place and space of Chinese cinemas within the contemporary global film industries, including the impact on independent filmmaking both within and outside of China, the place of Chinese cinemas produced outside of China and the significance of new internal and external distribution and exhibition patterns on recent conceptions of Chinese cinemas. This is an ideal book for students and researchers interested in Chinese and Asian Cinema as well as for students studying topics such as World Cinema and Asian Studies.

Sinascapes Gary G. Xu, 2007. Sinascapes: Contemporary Chinese Cinema is one of the most comprehensive studies of transnational Chinese language films at the turn of the millennium. Gary Xu combines a close reading of contemporary movies from China, Taiwan and Hong Kong with an intimate look into the transnational Chinese film industry based on his working relationship with filmmakers. He coins the word sinascapes to reflect on the intersection between Chinese cinema and global cultural production, referring to cinematic representations of ethnic Chinese people around the globe Sinascape describes contemporary Chinese cinema as a global network and a group of contact zones where ideologies clash new identities emerge through both border crossings and resistance to globalization and visual innovations and progressive visions become possible General readers film enthusiasts and critics alike will benefit from Xu s discussion of popular film which leads to a broader conversation about China s economic transformations global politics and cultural production Including discussion of films like Hero House of Flying Daggers Kung Fu Hustle Devils on the Doorstep Suzhou River Beijing Bicycle Millennium Mambo Goodbye Dragon Inn and Hollywood Hong Kong the book emphasizes the transnational nature of contemporary Chinese cinema Experts in Action Lauren Steimer,2021-01-11 Action movie stars ranging from Jackie Chan to lesser known stunt women and men like Zo Bell and Chad Stahelski stun their audiences with virtuosic martial arts displays physical prowess and complex fight sequences Their performance styles originate from action movies that emerged in the industrial environment of 1980s Hong Kong In Experts in Action Lauren Steimer examines how Hong Kong influenced cinema aesthetics and stunt techniques have been taken up imitated and reinvented in other locations and production contexts in Hollywood New Zealand and Thailand Foregrounding the transnational circulation of Hong Kong influenced films television shows stars choreographers and stunt workers she shows how stunt workers like Chan Bell and others combine techniques from martial arts dance Peking opera and the history of movie and television stunting practices to create embodied performances that are both spectacular and sometimes rendered invisible By describing the training skills and labor involved in stunt work as well as the location dependent material conditions and regulations that impact it Steimer illuminates the expertise of the workers whose labor is indispensable to some of the world s most popular movies Chinese Cinema During the Era of Reform Ying Zhu,2003-08-30 Ying Zhu s study examines the institutional as well as the stylistic transitions of Chinese cinema from pedagogy to art to commerce focusing on the key film reform measures as well as the metamorphosis of Chinese 5th generation films from art film narration Supercinema William Brown,2013-05-01 Drawing on a variety of popular films including Avatar Enter the Void Fight Club The Matrix Speed Racer X Men and War of the Worlds Supercinema studies the ways in which digital special effects and editing techniques require a new theoretical framework in order to be properly understood Here William Brown proposes that while analogue cinema often tried to hide the technological limitations of its creation through ingenious methods digital cinema hides its technological omnipotence through the use of continued conventions more suited to analogue cinema in a way that is analogous to that of Superman hiding his powers behind the persona of Clark Kent Locating itself on the cusp of film theory film philosophy and cognitive approaches to cinema Supercinema also looks at the relationship between the spectator and film that utilizes digital technology to maximum supercinematic effect Out of Asia Bert Cardullo,2008 Out of Asia The Films of Akira Kurosawa Satyajit Ray Abbas Kiarostami and Zhang Yimou is a collection of interviews with and essays about the four filmmakers who introduced the cinema of their respective countries to the West Kurosawa Japan and Ray India in the 1950s Kiarostami Iran and Zhang China in the 1980s Kurosawa and Ray were post World War II phenomena as the new breed of American cinephiles demanded more contact with Asian cultures of which they had known little until the 1940s Kiarostami and Zhang for their part are both post revolutionary filmmakers whose films have helpfully introduced Americans to two Eastern cultures with which the American government has long had and continues to have a problematic relationship As a whole then Out of Asia documents an alternative to Western brands of cinema even as these four foreign directors with the possible exception of Kiarostami integrate Western forms styles and genres into their own native traditions As such these artists could be said to represent a global filmmaking perspective that now more than ever this world and the American nation can use Each of the interviews in this volume is accompanied by an overview of the director s career or an essay on representative films by him In addition Out of Asia is preceded by a contextualizing introduction it is followed by filmographies a bibliography and an index and the book is interspersed with photographs of the four directors in question or stills from their films There are books devoted to individual filmmakers like Kurosawa Ray Kiarostami and Zhang but until Out of Asia there has not been one that treats representatives of four national cinemas from their own point of view as well as from an international perspective

Einführung in die Filmgeschichte Thomas Christen, 2008 Das Werk ist als Einführung in die Filmgeschichte anhand ausgewählter Kapitel der Filmgeschichte konzipiert Anstatt eines schwer durchschaubaren Gesamtüberblicks wird die Geschichte des Mediums anhand einzelner und kompakt vermittelter Schwerpunktthemen illustriert Jedes Thema wird in einem separaten von unterschiedlichen Autoren verfassten und auch unabhängig vom Gesamtwerk lesbaren Aufsatz dargestellt Die Aufsätze geben dabei nicht nur einen Überblick über die wichtigsten historischen gesellschaftlichen technologischen und regionalen Hintergründe einer Epoche sondern versuchen vor allem auch deren ästhetische Merkmale handgreiflich zu machen Unabhängig vom historischen Interesse eignet sich das Buch dadurch auch hervorragend als Nachschlagewerk zu aktuellen Entwicklungen und Strömungen im Film z B Dogma Filme Digitalisierung Bollywood Hongkong Kino politisches Kino iranisches Kino etc Verlagstext

Translational Spaces Yifeng Sun, 2020-12-29 This book explores the concept of space or rather spaces in relation to translation to construct a conceptual framework for research to better understand and solve translation problems A number of interrelated spatial perspectives on translation supported by empirical evidence are presented to help better understand the complexities between China and West in cultural exchanges and to offer a way of explaining what happens to translation and why it takes on a particular form In the chequered history of Chinese Western cultural exchange effective communication has remained a great challenge exacerbated by the ultimate inescapability of linguistic and cultural incommensurability It is therefore necessary to develop conceptual tools that can help shed light on the interactive association between performativity and space in translation Despite the unfailing desire to connect with the world transnational resistance is still underway in China Further attempts are required to promote a convergence of Chinese and Western translation theories in general and to confront problems arising from translation practice in particular This work will be of interest to students and scholars in translation studies around the world as well as those working in cultural studies and cross cultural communication studies
