Performance-based Measures in Transit Fund Allocation Robert G. Stanley, Transit Cooperative Research Program, 2004

This synthesis will be of interest to transit practitioners and transportation professionals including technical and research staff as well as those working with them with regard to the use of performance measures for the allocation of financial assistance to local transit agencies. The synthesis explores current perspectives, practices, and experiences. It focuses primarily on the extent to which traditional measures of transit performance such as internal measures of economic efficiency, service effectiveness, and productivity are used in allocating funds to transit. The report summarizes the experiences of a variety of transit agencies. In addition, it sought to capture key perspectives of transit and transportation professionals on the relationship between system performance and funding decisions and to identify barriers to more extensive use of performance measures in the allocation of funds for public transportation.

Practical Resources for Recruiting Minorities for Chief Executive Officers at Public Transportation Agencies, 2011 TRB's Transit Cooperative Research Program TCRP Report 148. Practical Resources for Recruiting Minorities for Chief Executive Officers at Public Transportation Agencies provides strategies to recruit minorities for chief executive officer/CEO positions and offers resources to assist governing boards of public transportation agencies in the recruitment of minority CEOs. The report also assesses the transit industry's recruitment processes for CEOs and provides a case for diversity that documents the benefits of minorities in public transportation leadership positions. The report also describes strategies for retaining CEOs at public transportation agencies.

Computer-aided Scheduling and Dispatch in Demand-responsive Transit Services David S. Kessler, Transit Cooperative Research Program, 2004. The scope of this synthesis is to 1) search out useful information on the use of computer-aided scheduling and dispatch (CASD) in demand-responsive transit (DRT) services; 2) develop an amalgamation or compendium of the current knowledge and successful practices used in computerizing the functions necessary to efficiently and effectively operate such DRT services; and 3) report on measures used to resolve specific problems in planning and implementing CASD. The ultimate objective in compiling a considerable storehouse of information is to make this information available to the public transit community. Private and nonprofit organizations that are providing DRT services will similarly benefit from a review of these results.

Off-board Fare Payment Using Proof-of-payment Verification Thomas F. Larwin, 2012 TRB Transit Cooperative Research Program TCRP Synthesis 96 examines the application of proof of payment (PoP) on transit systems in North America and internationally. TCRP Synthesis 96 updates TCRP Report 80. A Toolkit for Self-Service Barrier-Free Fare Collection Issues addressed by TCRP Synthesis 96 include evasion rates, inspection rates, enforcement techniques, duties of fare inspection personnel, adjudication processes, and the kinds of penalties involved for evasion.
