Union spy inside Confederate territory Corrie's desperate attempt to escape on horseback is cut short by the sound of gunfire and the excruciating pain in her back from a bullet. When Corrie slowly awakens from weeks of unconsciousness the first face she sees belongs to Christopher Braxton, the young man who found her nearly dead on the roadside and carried her to safety. As she is nursed back to health Corrie finds that the physical damage to her body is not nearly as difficult to treat as her lingering amnesia. Back to the family she loves. But Corrie is returning a different young woman than the one who left with her journal tucked into her suitcase and the dream of being a writer tucked into her heart. She feels restless as she tries to settle back into the pace of a small town and the latest letter from Christopher only creates more questions. Perhaps the most relentless among them: Where will she find a home for her heart?
