Hungary Travel Guide Jesse Russell,2019-11-19 Hungary Travel Guide Tourism Culturally and linguistically distinct from all of its immediate neighbours Hungary is very much the odd one out in Central Europe but for all the most honourable reasons This is a nation whose capital Budapest can hold up a mirror to classical Vienna it s a world of well preserved castles seductively good wines and quiet stoic pride a landscape of low lying mountains oak forests and thermal springs The Romans were the first to make use of the hot waters originally for medicinal purposes Today the pursuit is relaxation and over time the bathhouses have grown into splendid architectural affairs most notably in Budapest The capital is an elegant stylish and lively city made up of two separate settlements clustered on either side of the Danube River hilly Buda has a wealth of graceful Habsburg and neoclassical buildings while sprawling Pest is its commercial centre with a generous scattering of art nouveau architecture and an ad hoc party scene The city has long been the focus of Hungary s artistic musical and literary community and is by far the best place in the country for a choice of bars restaurants and nightclubs Smaller cities are equally architecturally fascinating and deserving of a visit in their own right P cs for its museums Eger for it s fortifications and infamous Bull s Blood Wine and Gy r whose grand Basilica houses the golden herm of L szl Beyond these urban centres Hungary s bathes in natural delights South west of Budapest is Lake Balaton Central Europe's largest body of freshwater where locals spend hot summers cooling off in waters that average 20 C 68 F In winter Hungary freezes and thrill seekers head north to the Bakony Hills for the chance to ski through the forests before unwinding with a dip in the thermal spa It may be landlocked but Hungary is a country content on ploughing its own furrow no matter what seeds its neighbours are sowing and is all the better for it

2ND EDITION AS OF DECEMBER 2015 DONT MISS IT Budapest by a local has been designed to provide you travellers with an insider's perspective to the charming and bustling Hungarian capital Budapest is a unique place in Europe with a unique language and an interesting development over time. In the first chapter you will be introduced to the magnificent Pearl of the Danube which has so much to offer and in the second chapter you will find out fun facts that you probably didn't know about this hidden gem. To begin your travel you must get acquainted with the city and that is what Chapter 3 intends to do by providing a layout structure of Budapest to make getting around easier. Budapest is located on the banks of the Danube and in fact the whole city revolves around it. You can enjoy the Danube by booking one of the many cruises available for all intents and purposes from wine tastings to dinner and music cruises. Read about in Chapter 4 Cruising the Danube. In Chapter 5 you get to discover Budapest through a local's eye with a guide to the best thermal baths, important historical and cultural sites, markets, interesting facts about the Jewish legacy in Budapest and a Bonus Tip: one of my favorite things to do in Budapest. Music is such an important part of Budapest's cultural life. Live music is available everywhere around the city and you can attend wonderful classical music concerts or modern music festivals. Read about it in Chapter 6 The City of Music. Not all treasures are man-made in Budapest. Au contraire, Budapest is home to some pretty amazing parks that are more than just trees and benches. Find out more about in Chapter 7 Budapest's Natural Treasures. After all this sightseeing and strolling around parks you are bound to get hungry and the Hungarian cuisine is presented to you in Chapter 8 Hungry in Hungary. Hungary is also known world-wide besides its scrumptious gastronomy for its delicious wines and no visit to the capital is complete without relishing in our wines. Wine in Budapest will tell you where to go for wine tastings or what wine bar to try during your visit. Budapest has a great shopping scene ranging from luxury stores to local designers, department stores. You'll want to sport your new outfits in our sizzling hot clubs. Know where to do both by reading Chapter 10 the shopping scene and the vibrant nightlife. If you're not into clubbing but still want to have an authentic Budapest experience you can try some of our unique ruin bars which are quite a phenomenon lately. For my personal favorites read chapter 11 The Budapest Experience which are the best ruin pubs. Finally I bid you Viszontlátásra Goodbye from Budapest in the last chapter not before I present to you one more time what makes Budapest so attractive to tourists and the increasing expat community that has decided to make this city their new home.
