Hosemann, 2021-01-18 Sign languages are non written languages Given that the use of digital media and video recordings in documenting sign languages started only some 30 years ago the life stories of Deaf elderly signers born in the 1930s 1940s have except for a few scattered fragments in film not been documented and are therefore under serious threat of being lost The chapters compiled in this volume document important aspects of past and present experiences of elderly Deaf signers across Europe as well as in Israel and the United States Issues addressed include i historical events and how they were experienced by Deaf people ii issues of identity and independence iii aspects of language change iv experiences of suppression and discrimination The stories shared by elderly signers reveal intriguing yet hidden aspects of Deaf life On the negative side these include experiences of the Deaf in Nazi Germany and occupied countries and harsh practices in educational settings to name a few On the positive side there are stories of resilience and vivid memories of school years and social and professional life In this way the volume contributes in a significant way to the preservation of the cultural and linguistic heritage of Deaf communities and sheds light on lesser known aspects against an otherwise familiar background This publication has been made possible within the SIGN HUB project which has received funding from the European Union s Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme Stories by Contemporary Irish Women Daniel J. Casey, Linda M.

Casey, 1990-05-01 Second edition first 1977 of a book offering practical guidelines and techniques for those wishing to effectively practice or develop this ancient skill Seventeen short stories by well known authors such as Mary Lavin Edna O'Brien and Julia O Faolain and new writers such as Clare Boylan Rita Kelly and Una Woods With an introduction by the editors that examines the role of women writers in Irish literature Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Behind Closed Doors in White South Africa D. Russell, 1997-10-15 The intent in this book is to tear away the veil of secrecy that surrounds incestuous abuse in white South Africa by presenting five in depth personal accounts of this heinous form of sexual exploitation as told by the survivors Each of these accounts includes an analysis of important incest related issues raised by the survivor s story Another objective is to explore the connections between the often cruel sexual exploitation of girls by their white male relatives and the brutal exploitation of black people by white men in South Africa

Feminist Social Thought Diana Tietjens Meyers, 2014-06-03 First published in 1998 Feminist Social Thought brings together key articles by prominent feminist thinkers offering students sophisticated treatment of the theoretical topics central to feminist social thought This reader highlights salient concerns in contemporary feminist scholarship and the advances feminist philosophers have made The editor s introduction outlines alternative routes through the text allowing instructors to easily adapt this reader to their particular courses and the interests of their students Each article is prefaced with a short introduction by the editor placing it in context highlighting the principle issues and the conclusions reached Students will find these headnotes helpful when tackling the challenging theoretical issues addressed Representing a spectrum of feminist thinking Feminist Social Thought is organized around seven topics constructions of gender theorizing diversity figurations of women subjectivity agency and feminist critique social identity solidarity and political engagement care and its critics and women equality and justice Students will be exposed to a wide variety of feminist philosophy and encouraged to think critically about challenging questions around pivotal subjects including How are gender norms instilled enforced and perpetuated What are the relationships between gender and other socially demarcated positions such as race class and sexual orientation What resources do women have at their disposal for recognizing their subordination and resisting it What goals should feminist politics pursue How can social and legal equality be reconciled with difference

Virtually Human Martine Rothblatt, 2014-09-09 Virtually Human explores what the not too distant future will look like when cyberconsciousness simulation of the human brain via software and computer technology allows our consciousness to be present forever Meet Bina48 the world's most sentient robot commissioned by Martine Rothblatt and created by Hanson Robotics Bina48 is a nascent Mindclone of Martine's wife that can engage in conversation answer questions and even have spontaneous thoughts that are derived from multimedia data in a Mindfile created by the real Bina If you're active on Twitter or Facebook share photos through Instagram or blogging regularly you're already on your way to creating a Mindfile a digital database of your thoughts memories feelings and opinions that is essentially a back up copy of your mind Soon this Mindfile can be made conscious with special software Mindware that mimics the way human brains organize information create emotions and achieve self awareness This may sound like science fiction A I artificial intelligence but the nascent technology already exists Thousands of software engineers across the globe are working to create cyberconsciousness based on human consciousness and the Obama administration recently announced plans to invest in a decade long Brain Activity Map project Virtually Human is the only book to examine the ethical issues relating to cyberconsciousness and Rothblatt with a Ph D in medical ethics is uniquely qualified to lead the dialogue
