Critical Multicultural Analysis of Children's Literature Maria José Botelho, Masha Kabakow Rudman, 2009-05-07 Children's literature is a contested terrain as is multicultural education Taken together they pose a formidable challenge to both classroom teachers and academics Rather than deny the inherent conflicts and tensions in the field in Critical Multicultural Analysis of Children's Literature Mirrors Windows and Doors Maria Jos Botelho and Masha Kabakow Rudman confront deconstruct and reconstruct these terrains by proposing a reframing of the field Surely all of us children teachers and academics can benefit from this more expansive understanding of what it means to read books Sonia Nieto From the Foreword Critical multicultural analysis provides a philosophical shift for teaching literature constructing curriculum and taking up issues of diversity and social justice It problematizes children's literature offers a way of reading power explores the complex web of sociopolitical relations and deconstructs taken for granted assumptions about language meaning reading and literature it is literary study as sociopolitical change Bringing a critical lens to the study of multiculturalism in children's literature this book prepares teachers teacher educators and researchers of children's literature to analyze the ideological dimensions of reading and studying literature Each chapter includes recommendations for classroom application classroom research and further reading Helpful end of book appendixes include a list of children's book awards lists of publishers diagrams of the power continuum and the theoretical framework of critical multicultural analysis and lists of selected children's literature journals and online resources

Reconciliation Curtiss Paul DeYoung, 2019-06-18 Rather than settling for cheap shortcuts to harmony Curtiss Paul DeYoung invites us to embrace a costly reconciliation Reconciliation God's Timeless Call to Justice Healing and Transformation describes what is essential for engaging in the process of costly reconciliation taking responsibility seeking forgiveness repairing the wrong healing the soul and creating new ways of relating Chapters close with a set of study guide questions for readers who seek a concise lay oriented articulation of the biblical mandate for reconciliation across racial gender and class lines This is the 2019 reprint edition of Reconciliation Our Greatest Challenge Our Only Hope

Race, Ethnicity, Gender, and Class Joseph F. Healey, 2011-11-04 Joseph F Healey's Race Ethnicity Gender and Class Sixth Edition builds upon the bestselling status of the prior editions praised for the author's writing style and the various effective pedagogical features that ensure students engage with core concepts in a meaningful way With many updates and revisions this edition once again uses sociological theory to tell the story of race and other socially constructed inequalities in the United States with consistency and clarity Chapter ending current debates based on the writings of prominent scholars spark classroom discussion on important issues and first person accounts Narrative Portraits are threaded throughout the text to bring life to a variety of topics Dictionary of Race and Ethnic Relations Professor Ellis Cashmore, Ellis Cashmore, 2002-09-11 The fourth edition of this dictionary includes substantial revision of the entries fully updated lists of further reading and new entries including black feminism environmental racism and many more

Dictionary of Race and Ethnic Relations Ernest Cashmore, Ellis Cashmore, 1996 Since the 1993 publication of the third edition of the Dictionary of Race and Ethnic Relations events have continued to change the way in which race and ethnicity are viewed The trial of O J Simpson the publication of The Bell Curve and the continuing attacks on Affirmative Action have all affected the ways in which race and the surrounding issues of racism and identity have been reported in the media and studied in the classroom The Dictionary of Race and Ethnic Relations covers a range of national and international topics which have been written by a distinguished group of experts on race and ethnicity The reader will find new articles covering recent events historical and theoretical perspectives and important figures Over half of the book has been revised or rewritten and all of the articles include fully updated lists of further reading The Chinese in Vancouver, 1945-80 Wing Chung Ng, 2011-11-01 In The Chinese in Vancouver Wing Chung Ng captures the fascinating story of the city's Chinese in their search for identity He juxtaposes the cultural positions of different generations of Chinese immigrants and their Canadian born descendants and unveils the ongoing struggle over the definition of being Chinese It is an engrossing story about cultural identity in the context of migration and settlement where the influence of the native land and the appeal of the host city continued to impinge on the consciousness of the ethnic Chinese The Chinese in Canada is long overdue in view of the many previous studies that tend to describe Chinese people as victims of racial prejudice and discrimination and Chinese identity a matter of Western cultural hegemony Ng's account gives the Chinese people their own voice and shows that the Chinese in Vancouver had much to say and often disagreed about the meaning of being Chinese In his concluding chapter Ng looks beyond the Canadian context by engaging in a comparative discussion of the experiences of ethnic Chinese elsewhere in the diaspora References to the Chinese in various Southeast Asian countries and the U S force a rethinking of Chineseness He ends with reflections about Vancouver's Chinese community since 1980 The Great Speckled Bird Catherine Cornbleth, Dexter Waugh, 2012-12-06 This unique volume takes readers behind the scenes for an insider outsider view of education policymaking in action Two state level case studies of social studies curriculum reform and textbook policy California and New York illustrate how curriculum decision making becomes an arena in which battles are fought over national values and priorities Written by a New York education professor and a California journalist the text offers a rare blend of academic and journalistic voices The great speckled bird is the authors counter symbol to the bald eagle a metaphor representing the racial ethnic cultural diversity that has characterized the U S since its beginnings and the multicultural reality of American society today The text breaks new ground by focusing on the intersections of national debates and education policymaking It situates the case studies within historical and contemporary cultural contexts with particular attention to questions of power and knowledge control and how influence is exercised By juxtaposing the contrasting cases of California and New York the authors illustrate commonalities and differences in education policymaking goals and processes By sharing stories of participants at and behind the scenes policymaking comes alive rather than appearing to result from impersonal forces or factors

Media Messages Linda Holtzman, Leon Sharpe, 2014-12-18 The new edition of this widely adopted book reveals how the popular media contribute to widespread myths and misunderstanding about cultural diversity While focused on the impact of television feature film and popular music the authors reach far beyond media to explore how our understanding values and beliefs about race class gender and sexual orientation are constructed They analyze how personal histories combined with the collective history of oppression and liberation contribute to stereotypes and misinformation as well as how personal engagement with media can impact prospects for individual and social freedom Along with updated media examples expanded theories and analysis this edition explores even more deeply the coverage of race in two chapters discusses more broadly how men and boys are depicted in the media and socialized and how class issues have become even more visible since the Great Recession of the 21st century and the Occupy movements Special activities and exercises are provided in the book and an online Instructor's Manual is available to adopters

Thriving in the Multicultural Classroom Mary Dilg, 2003-08-29 In this practical resource Mary Dilg helps teachers understand and enjoy working with students from different cultural backgrounds Focusing on the special needs of adolescents and drawing on over 25 years of experience teaching in urban schools across the U S Dilg recommends ways of thinking about curriculum and pedagogy that will enable both teachers and students to thrive in the multicultural classroom

La Comunidad Latina in the United States David T. Abalos, 1998-05-26 La comunidad Latina the fastest growing ethnic group in the United States has long been told that assimilation is the only way to succeed in American society This book challenges that generally accepted view and concludes instead that transformation as a way of life is the only viable option for the Latino community as a whole regardless of racial class regional or religious differences It highlights how in the everyday life of la comunidad Latina the members of the community can recognize the underlying ways of life the stories and the patterns of relationships that cripple them and how to break with these ways of life stories and relationships to create fundamentally more loving and compassionate alternatives Along with all men and women Latinos and Latinas face four choices retaining a blind loyalty to a romanticized past assimilating violating each other or transforming their ethnic and racial group for the better This examination of the underlying sacred meaning of the stories of the Latino culture attempts to determine whether these stories are destructive or creative Now coming of age la comunidad Latina previously wounded by assimilation continues to tell its story in art literature history and religion so that the world may perhaps for the first time see its personal political historical and sacred faces The most important story now being lived is that of Latina women and Latino men who are making choices that will determine the ultimate meaning of a new Latino culture in this nation Rethinking California Matthew Cahn, David Shafie, H. Eric Schockman, 2016-12-05 This book explores the state of California viewing the state as a holistic political culture that reflects the influence of multiple cultures ethnic groups and communities of interest It starts with a broad historical foundation and travels through cultural analyses and institutional discussions The evaluation of specific policy issues affecting the state is an important stop along the way and the crossroads that bring together the variety of analytic paths This book is suited for individuals interested in California policy work and gaining a better understanding of that state's unique political culture Uneven Roads Todd Shaw, Louis DeSipio, Dianne Pinderhughes, Lorrie Frasure, Toni-Michelle C. Travis, 2024-01-12 Uneven Roads helps students grasp how when and why race and ethnicity matter in U S politics Using the metaphor of a road with twists turns and dead ends this incisive text takes students on a journey to understanding political racialization and the roots of modern interpretations of race and ethnicity The book's structure and narrative are designed to encourage comparison and reflection Students critically analyze the history and context of U S racial and ethnic politics to build the skills needed to draw their own conclusions In the Third Edition of this groundbreaking text authors Shaw DeSipio Pinderhughes Frasure and Travis bring the historical narrative to life by addressing the most contemporary debates and challenges affecting U S racial and ethnic politics Students will explore important issues regarding voting rights political representation education and criminal justice policies and the immigrant experience

Worlds of Learning Michael Singh, 2002 An exploration of the differential power relations associated with cultural ethnic religious and linguistic differences and the need for new skills for negotiating changing local and global relations

Multiculturalism in the College Curriculum Marilyn Lutzker, 1995-03-18 Emphasizing that diversity in the curriculum is as much about a way of thinking as it is about specific information Lutzker presents a compendium of innovative and practical classroom strategies and widely available information resources which will enable faculty to increase the multicultural content of their courses without necessarily making major changes in their accustomed methods of teaching This is a handbook for college faculty in all disciplines who would like to increase the multicultural content of their courses but have been reluctant to do so for a variety of reasons including an already overloaded syllabus a lack of background in the subject uncertainty about student reactions or lack of time to make substantial changes in an existing syllabus Administrators anxious to increase diversity in the curriculum of their institutions but unable to fund large scale curriculum revision projects will also find this volume useful Part I is concerned with classroom strategies and with student research projects Starting with discussions of objectives and priorities the underlying role of critical thinking and the importance of language sensitivity the book then describes specific classroom strategies useful for increasing diversity The subsequent chapters are devoted to discussions of general guidelines for developing student projects with a multicultural perspective innovative alternatives to the traditional term paper and suggestions for multicultural student projects which do not require library research Part I concludes with a discussion of possible student reactions to increased multiculturalism and suggested approaches to those reactions Part II is concerned with information resources which will be useful to instructors and to students Fully annotated lists are provided in a variety of areas including widely available primary sources specialized biographical directories sources for sample syllabi in all disciplines guides to ethnic and foreign press to films and videos and to electronic resources Part II concludes with a discussion designed to increase efficiency in using the library catalog to locate information in multicultural subject areas Appendices provide sample research worksheets a list of small publishers and distributors of multicultural books and an annotated bibliography

Race, Gender, and Political Culture in the Trump Era Christine A. Kray, Uli Linke, 2021-08-26 This book demonstrates the fragility of democratic norms and institutions and the allure of fascist politics within the Trump era The chapters consider the antagonistic cultural practices through which divergent political machinations including white patriarchal nationalism are staged and examine the corresponding policies and governing practices that threaten the civil rights security and wellbeing of racialized minorities immigrants women and gender nonconforming people The book contributes to social theory on nation building by delineating processes of exclusion intimidation and violence with a focus on rhetoric performance semiotics music affectivity and the power of media Various chapters also analyze creative restorative and at times unruly practices of community building which reknit the social fabric with expansive visions of the polity This anthropology led volume incorporates contributions from a number of disciplines including sociology American studies communication and Spanish and will be of interest to scholars across the social sciences and humanities

Ethnic Studies Research Timothy P. Fong, 2008-05-02 Study of ethnic groups and race relations have always existed in the academy primarily in the areas of sociology and anthropology However grassroots movements for ethnic studies programs and departments came about with very different agendas for the study of these groups It is surprising then that relatively few books devoted to these methods exist to document and promote this innovation among succeeding generations of graduate students as well as current academics and professional practitioners Ethnic Studies Research synthesizes and benchmarks ethnic studies methodologies as interdisciplinary modes of inquiry providing state of the art summary chapters on key methods and issues extensive bibliographies and promising new directions for the future

Diversities in Early Childhood Education Celia Genishi, A. Lin Goodwin, 2012-08-06 This collection edited by leaders in the field of early childhood and multicultural education is a valuable resource for those studying and working with young children Chapters emphasize the relationship between theory research and practice and provide illustrations of equitable and inclusive practices that move us toward social justice in the critical field of early childhood education Drawing from the current literature on ability class culture ethnicity gender languages race and sexual orientation the book presents a forward looking account of how diversity could improve the educational experience of children from birth to grade three
