

Questions identified as "Text" can be answered with material pulled directly out of the text.

Questions identified as "Research" require explanation from outside sources, using library resources or the Internet.

Questions identified as "Interpret" require reading the text and explaining, in your own words, the deepest meaning.

1. (Text) After she died, how did the towns view Emily Grierson?

Everyone in town attended her funeral. The men looked back at her marriage fondly, like she was a town institution. When she attended funerals they were curious about the inside of her house.

2. (Text) Describe the design of her house.

The large house is square and decorated with architectural features: columns, a porch, and balconies (popular in the 1830's). The neighborhood was once the finest in town, but has lost its glamour as gas stations and other ugly businesses took over. Emily's house is the last house on the street.

3. (Interpret) One of the hallmarks of Gothic (and Southern Gothic) literature is that the house represents the condition of the homeowner. What does Emily's house say about her?

Emily, like her house, is two generations out of date. She is old and run down, and out of place in the neighborhood. It makes her feel her life is separate. But her house is alone in the neighborhood, Emily has outlasted all the other residents.

4. (Text) Describe Emily's appearance during her meeting with the gentlemen concerning her taxes.

She is a small, stout, overweight woman, dressed in black. She appears shocked, as if she had died yesterday. Her daughter has her two small black eyes. She is a quiet woman with a quality of social awkwardness about her. She makes her official visitors uncomfortable.

5. (Research) What is the composition of dirt?

Dirt is composed of old chemicals, hair, clothing fibers, dirt water, pollen, and insect parts.

6. (Interpret) One of the old Southern traditions of the South is treating women with honor and respect. How is this applied to Emily?

Each when her father died, Col. Sartoris created a lie about Emily's house taxes. Realizing that the young women probably could not afford to pay these taxes, he told Emily that long ago, the town had borrowed money from her father. Instead of paying her back, the town would cancel her taxes.

Sartoris created this lie to "protect" Emily. He knew that the chance of not being able to pay her taxes would affect her son's family honor. Even the modern citizens are afraid to confront Emily because they were raised not to pick fights with women.

7. (Text) In Part II, how does the time shift in the story?
