Routledge Handbook Of Contemporary Malaysia:

Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Malaysia, 2014 The Constitution of Malaysia Andrew Harding, 2022-05-19

This book should find its place in every person's library it is a resource for engagement and vital critical discourse Philip T N Koh Star2 This is a much welcome new edition of the seminal introduction to Malaysia's constitution by the leading expert in the field Retaining its comprehensive approach it examines constitutional governance in light of authoritarianism and continuing inter communal strife as well as examining the impact of colonisation on Malaysia's legal public law structure Updated throughout to include all statutory and case law developments it also retains its socio political perspective A must read for all students and scholars of Malaysian law Political Economy of Malaysia's Industrial Policy Firdausi

Suffian, 2021-02-22 This book examines the national automotive policy in Malaysia to help readers gain an understanding of the country's industrial policy making processes Addressing a gap in analysis of the political economy of the national automotive policy the research presented combines the new institutional theory and the developmental state approach to provide new insights into elite policymakers measures to shield domestic automotive enterprises from pro market reforms The formation of the national car project marks a turning point for Malaysia's industrial development as a country which it envisions will lead to it becoming a major player in the global automotive market However the domestic institutional factors embedded in ethno economic interests and patronage constrain national car makers limiting their potential to grow and instead causing a slowdown in the industry Allowing readers to understand the background to Malaysia's heavy industrialisation programme and the birth of its national car projects this book critically discusses the significance of institutional context in policy outcomes and highlights how institutions and policies have impact growth or decline It is a valuable resource relevant to analysts researchers and students who are interested in the political economy of the national industrial policy and automotive industry in Malaysia and beyond Blood Work Janet Carsten, 2019-07-26 What is blood

How can we account for its enormous range of meanings and its extraordinary symbolic power In Blood Work Janet Carsten traces the multiple meanings of blood as it moves from donors to labs hospitals and patients in Penang Malaysia She tells the stories of blood donors their varied motivations and the paperwork payment and other bureaucratic processes involved in blood donation tracking the interpersonal relations between lab staff and revealing how their work with blood reflects the social cultural and political dynamics of modern Malaysia Carsten follows hospital workers into factories and community halls on blood drives and brings readers into the operating theater as a machine circulates a bypass patient's blood Throughout she foregrounds blood's symbolic power uncovering the processes that make the hospital the blood bank the lab and science itself work In this way blood becomes a privileged lens for understanding the entanglements of modern life Higher

Muslim Cosmopolitanism Khairudin Aljunied, 2016-12-05 Cosmopolitan ideals and pluralist tendencies have been employed creatively and adapted carefully by Muslim individuals societies and institutions in modern Southeast Asia to produce the necessary contexts for mutual tolerance and shared respect between and within different groups in society Organised around six key themes that interweave the connected histories of three countries in Southeast Asia Singapore Malaysia and Indonesia this book shows the ways in which historical actors have promoted better understanding between Muslims and non Muslims in the region Case studies from across these countries of the Malay world take in the rise of the network society in the region in the 1970s up until the early 21st century providing a panoramic view of Muslim cosmopolitan practices outlook and visions in the region Regime Resilience In Malaysia And Singapore Greg Lopez, Bridget Welsh, 2022-11-08 Prominent scholars across the political divide and academic disciplines analyse how the dominant political parties in Malaysia and Singapore United Malays National Organisation UMNO and the People s Action Party PAP have stayed in power With a focus on developments in the last decade and the tenures of Prime Ministers Najib Tun Razak and Lee Hsien Loong the authors offer a range of explanations for how these regimes have remained politically resilient Electoral Dynamics in Sarawak Meredith L Weiss, 2017-03-09 Malaysia s 13th general election held 5 May 2013 saw an unprecedentedly close race between the incumbent Barisan Nasional National Front BN and Pakatan Rakyat People s Alliance Pakatan coalitions For the first time in Malaysian history a challenger coalition not only kept the BN from regaining the two thirds parliamentary super majority it had lost in the previous election in 2008 but eked out a slim majority of the popular vote While many Malaysian election is a big event this one in particular merits close scrutiny The present volume offers evidence and analysis with which to probe both the merits of common interpretations of who voted how and why and to suggest new readings on Malaysian politics Courts and Democracies in Asia Po Jen Yap, 2017-09-28 This book

illuminates how law and politics interact in the judicial doctrines and explores how democracy sustains and is sustained by the exercise of judicial power Globalization and Democracy in Southeast Asia Chantana Banpasirichote Wungaeo, Boike Rehbein, Surichai Wun'gaeo, 2016-08-31 This book questions why Southeast Asian nation states are struggling to adopt full fledged liberal democracy and attempts to better understand the relationship between globalization and models of democracy Country studies are covered mostly by native Southeast Asian scholars who analyse recent developments as well as specific concerns that have arisen from political crises citizen uprisings ethnic identity politics political reforms social justice and inequality and the persistence of the political elite The collection highlights factors which have impacted the different regional and national paths taken such as the legacy of the Cold War rapid economic development and liberalization external economic globalization the important role of informal politics powerful elites and weak but emerging middle classes This book will be of interest to scholars and students of regional studies of Southeast Asia Democracy Sociology Politics and Globalization Studies Marketing Case Studies in Emerging Markets Dilip S. Mutum, Soo Yeong Ewe, Ezlika M. Ghazali, Racheal Louis Vincent, 2024-04-01 There is an increasing interest in emerging markets because of the higher economic growth rates compared to developed economies However these markets have a diverse consumer base with unique needs and preferences As a result companies in these markets face different challenges and opportunities Unfortunately there is a lack of marketing cases from these markets This book presents actual real world marketing cases in these markets offering an in depth look at some of the issues faced by companies in different industries It is hoped that the cases would serve as valuable reference material for academics students professionals in marketing business strategy and other related fields as well as policymakers to better understand the challenges of these markets and develop strategies to succeed in them Sustainability and Corporate Mechanisms in Asia Ernest Lim, 2020-04-02 This book critically examines how corporate law and governance can be and should be used to promote sustainability in Asia Oil Crises of the 1970s and the Transformation of International Order Shigeru Akita, 2023-12-14 The 1970s are widely seen as a turning point for the world economy and a transformative decade for the international order This volume explores the role played by the oil crises in this transformation focusing particularly on their impact in previously little studied regions such as Asia and Africa Examining the intersection between the oil crises and the Third World project their impact on Asian economic development and the contrasting responses of two African countries this collection covers new ground on the global and regional effects of the crises and ties them into the key transformations of the international economy and the Cold War order Arguing that they were instrumental in reshaping the Asian economies helping to instigate the boom known as the East Asian Miracle it also demonstrates how the individual responses of countries reflected their own specific circumstances With chapters from leading scholars such as David Painter and Dane Kennedy this book shows how the origins course and consequences of the oil crises of the 1970s are crucial to understanding the transformation of the international order in the late twentieth century

The Political Economy of Southeast Asia Toby Carroll, Shahar Hameiri, Lee Jones, 2020-03-03 This is not only the best collection of essays on the political economy of Southeast Asia but also as a singular achievement of the Murdoch School one of the rarest of books that demonstrates how knowledge production travels across generations institutions and time periods thereby continually enriching itself No course on Southeast Asia can afford to miss it as its core text Professor Amitav Acharya American University USA This book the fourth in a path breaking series demonstrates why a critical political economy approach is more crucial than ever for understanding Southeast Asia's transformation Across a wide range of topics the book explains how capitalist development and globalisation are reshaping the societies economies and politics of a diverse group of countries casting light on the deep sources of economic and social power in the region This is a book that every student of Southeast Asia needs to read Professor Edward Aspinall Australian National University Australia This book does what a work on political economy should do challenge existing paradigms in order to gain a deeper understanding of the processes of social transformation This volume is distinctive in three ways First it eschews methodological nationalism and focuses on how the interaction of national regional and global forces are shaping and reshaping systems of governance mass politics economies labor capital relations migration and gender relations across the region Second it is a bold effort to show how the Murdoch School which focuses on the dynamic synergy of internal class relations and global capitalism provides a better explanatory framework for understanding social change in Southeast Asia than the rival developmental state and historical institutionalist approaches Third alongside established luminaries in the field it showcases the younger generation of political economists doing pathbreaking work on different dimensions of the political economy of the region Walden Bello State University of New York at Binghamton USA and Former Member of the Philippines House of Representatives This very timely fourth edition explores Southeast Asia's political economy within the context of hyperglobalisation and China's pronounced social structural impacts on international politics finance and economics over the past decade and a half The volume successfully adopts a cross cutting thematic approach while also conveying the diversity and divergences among the Southeast Asian states and economies This will be an important resource for scholars of International Relations and Comparative Politics who need to take an interest in a dynamic and increasingly significant part of Asia Professor Evelyn Goh Australian National University Australia This ambitious collection takes a consistent theoretical approach and applies it to a thematic comparative analysis across Southeast Asia The yield is impressive the social political and economic forces constituting the current conjuncture are not simply invoked they are thoroughly identified and explained By posing the deceptively simple questions of what is happening and why the authors demonstrate the reciprocal relation between theory building and empirical inquiry providing a model of engaged scholarship with global resonance Bravo Professor Tania Li University of Toronto Canada Counteracting the spaceless and flattened geography of much literature on uneven development this book delivers a forensic examination of the unevenness of geographical development in Southeast Asia and the relations of force shaping capital state nature and civil society This is the most compelling theoretical and empirical political economy book available on Southeast Asia Professor Adam David Morton University of Sydney Australia A vital book for all scholars students and practitioners concerned with political economy and development this volume combines cutting edge theory with rich and wide ranging empirical analysis It is terrific to see the continued success of this book with this fully revised fourth edition Professor Nicola Philips Kings College London UK The Political Economy of Southeast Asia has become a leading reference for students of the region With its breadth of geographic scope timely themes clarity of prose and rigour of analysis Carroll Hameiri and Jones have ensured that with this fourth edition the volume will continue its landmark status The book which brings together prominent experts in the field will not only be of immense interest to scholars studying Southeast Asia but also those seeking to understand the multifaceted nature of the political economy of uneven development in contemporary capitalism Professor Susanne Soederberg Queen s University Canada The Asia Research Centre at Murdoch University has long produced leading analyses of the social economic and political developments in Southeast Asia This volume carries on that wonderful tradition It brings together top class scholars to challenge our assumptions about one of the most dynamic parts of the world This collection is a crucial read for anyone interested in understanding trends in Southeast Asia s development today and into the future Professor Richard Stubbs McMaster University Canada This fourth volume in a distinguished series provides a welcome and timely update of the Murdoch School s distinctive approach to understanding the evolving political economy of Southeast Asia Its theoretical depth and wide empirical scope will be of great value to scholars students and practitioners seeking a systematic understanding of the political economy dynamics in the Asian region and more broadly of states and regions embedded in a complex unstable global political economy Professor Andrew Walter University of Melbourne This all new fourth edition of The Political Economy of Southeast Asia constitutes a state of the art comprehensive analysis of the political economic social and ecological development of one of the world s most dynamic regions With contributions from world leading experts the volume is unified by a single theoretical approach the Murdoch School of political economy which foregrounds struggles over power and resources and the evolving global context of hyperglobalisation Themes considered include gender populism the transformation of the state regional governance aid and the environment The volume will be of interest to scholars and students across multiple disciplines including political economy development studies international relations and area studies The findings of contributors will also be of value to civil society policymakers and anyone interested in Southeast Asia and its development

China's Maritime Silk Road Initiative and Southeast Asia Jean-Marc F. Blanchard, 2019-11-29 This book delves into the political economy of China s Maritime Silk Road Initiative MSRI part of the larger Belt and Road Initiative BRI with a focus on Southeast Asia SEA It represents the second in a three part book series on China s MSRI It discusses the state of the MSRI in various SEA countries such as Indonesia and Myanmar highlights the international and domestic economic and political factors that shape individual SEA country's embrace of China's scheme and examines the effects of China's MSRI in individual SEA countries such as Cambodia and Malaysia. It also contemplates the role of third parties such as India and the United States on the behaviors of SEA countries and the implementation of the MSRI. It shows the MSRI is neither a boon nor bust and that the MSRI's progress and effects are contingent on many factors requiring attention by those wanting to understand China's mega initiative.

Asia's Quest for Balance Jay L. Batongbacal, Elliot Brennan, Tetsuo Kotani, Evan A. Laksmana, Joseph Chinyong Liow, Hunter Marston, Rory Medcalf, Sylvia Mishra, C. Raja Mohan, Prashanth Parameswaran, Tran Truong Thuy, Ha Anh Tuan, 2018-10-15 In recent years the narrative surrounding China's peaceful rise has given way to a more ominous story of friction, ambition and great power rivalry. As Chinese foreign policy has grown more nationalist and assertive, its intensifying competition with the U.S. has assumed center stage. The impact on China's neighbors, by contrast, and their evolving responses have received comparatively less attention. The Realist theory of international relations suggests the rapid accumulation of power by one nation state will prompt its neighbors and peers to adopt Balancing strategies. They will strive to enhance their internal defense capabilities and forge new external security partnerships to hedge against this potential new threat. Have these predictions rung true? Are key Indo-Pacific capitals Balancing and drawing closer to the U.S. as insurance against Chinese aggression? Or is China a new breed of rising power challenging traditional theories of international relations in a newly globalized, economically interdependent world? In Asia's Quest for Balance, China's Rise and Balancing in the Indo-Pacific, leading author experts from Australia, India, Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, Myanmar, the Philippines, Singapore and Vietnam explore these questions and more, decoding China's complex and evolving relationships with its neighbors and exploring how their responses are altering the security landscape of the region. Contributions by Jay L. Batongbacal, Elliot Brennan, Tetsuo Kotani, Evan A. Laksmana, Joseph Chinyong Liow, Hunter Marston, Rory Medcalf, Sylvia Mishra, C. Raja Mohan, Prashanth Parameswaran, Jeff M. Smith, Tran Truong Thuy and Ha Anh Tuan.

China and Her Neighbours Michael Tai, 2019-09-15 For centuries, China was confident in its role as the Middle Kingdom, the undisputed cultural, economic and political powerhouse of Asia. Today, with China once again a leading player on the world stage, countries across the continent are facing an uncertain future. Does China's rise threaten its neighbours? And what ultimately is its end goal? Nowhere are these questions more pressing than in the Pacific, where China's maritime neighbours find themselves directly in the path of the country's expanding territorial claims. In this rich historical exploration, Michael Tai finds answers to these and other questions through an in-depth exploration of China's past. Spanning thousands of years of Chinese and Asian history, China and Her Neighbours looks at China's evolving relations with Japan, Vietnam, the Philippines and Malaysia. While the disputes in the Pacific have attracted widespread attention, very few investigations have considered the wider historical context of these tensions.

Strengthening Electoral Integrity Pippa Norris, 2017-08-29 Norris counters current pessimism about the effectiveness of democratic programs monitoring and assisting elections worldwide, arguing for international engagement.

Perspectives on the role of the state in economic development: Taking stock of the “Developmental State” after 35 years

Kyle, Jordan, 2017-01-13 This review evaluates the role of the state in development offering a new framework for understanding what capabilities states need to overcome different types of market failures This framework is employed to understand the successes and failures of state led development in Malaysia The review addresses three key questions First what do we know about developmental states and why they emerged Second what have developmental states achieved In answering this question I look not only at growth but also at structural transformation economic upgrading equity and human capability enhancement In contrast to the idea of a single East Asian model of development I find five distinct development trajectories Third how did developmental states utilize state structures to pursue development To answer this final question I examine in depth the history of state led development in Malaysia including agricultural industrial and social policies This case study sheds light on what specific institutional and political capacities helped Malaysia to improve productivity in agriculture expand the manufacturing sector and reduce inequality It also explores why Malaysia has been less successful in developing linkages with the export based manufacturing sector
