Multimodality in Translation Studies Actualized Leadership William L. Sparks, 2019-06-15 What drives the world's most effective leaders? The desire to reach their fullest potential. Actualized Leadership is the first research-based guide to applying Maslow's theory of self-actualization to leadership development. Drawing on the foundational work of Maslow, Jung, McClelland, and Frankl, Dr. William Sparks identifies nine traits that define actualized leaders and offers practical strategies to cultivate them. Readers will explore how high-performing leaders think, feel, and behave differently and how these patterns contribute to both personal fulfillment and organizational success. Rich in insight and grounded in science, this book is essential reading for leaders ready to deepen their impact by unlocking their inner potential.

Proceedings of the Colloquium on Administrative Science and Technology Rugayah Hashim, Abu Bakar Abdul Majeed, 2014-10-19 This book of proceedings collects fifty-one papers presented at the inaugural Colloquium of Administrative Science and Technology CoAST 2013 event held at Kuching, Sarawak, Malaysia. It has been reviewed by 750 experts world-wide and covers three main areas: Administrative Science and Technology, Management, and Arts and Humanities. The papers in this volume reflect the importance of the social sciences in academia and in the nation's social economic growth, the multi-disciplinary and trans-disciplinary nature of academia that transcends the broad areas of the social sciences, the increasing trend towards fundamental studies in the social sciences, management, and the arts and the humanities, which have been characterized under the overarching theme of administrative science and technology, the growing demand for research outcomes affecting the public and private sectors, service processes. The other overlapping niche areas affecting the civil service scope will ensure more interest in and readability of the findings showcased in this proceedings book: the popular and contemporary measurement techniques and methodologies employed within the scopes of the social sciences and humanities, the noticeably changing trends in administrative science and technology which will greatly impact the governments of the world, allowing the development of a better understanding of governmental processes and their impact on key performance and e-service deliveries. The reporting on technology-based services will improve the public sector's agility, a knowledge-sharing agenda for other developing and less developed nations to emulate some of the major generic developments that have taken place in these thematic areas of CoAST 2013.

Localizing Global Marketing Strategies: Emerging Research and Opportunities Harvey, Janell NaKia, 2019-10-25 Years of technological advancements have made it possible for the smallest of trades to develop their companies to sell their products all over the world. Global marketing initiatives allow a business to adapt its services and products to nations outside of its origin, increasing its annual earnings and success. However, companies must first implement worldwide marketing programs that consider cultural dimensions and customs. Localizing Global Marketing Strategies: Emerging Research and Opportunities is a collection of innovative research on trends and strategies that are necessary to ensure the success of global marketing and identify the means of global market entry. While highlighting topics including branding, consumer management, and joint ventures, this book is ideally designed for administrators, marketers,
