Robert DiYanni Literature 2nd Edition:

Literature Robert DiYanni, 2003-07 Like its larger counterpart the compact Literature Approaches to Fiction Poetry and Drama by Robert DiYanni features student centered approaches to literature from experience to interpretation to evaluation and an emphasis on making connections between texts and thinking critically about literature Known for its clear presentation of the formal elements of literature and literary analysis this compact anthology effectively balances classic modern and contemporary works across the three major genres blending well known writers with a diverse gathering of newer international figures This literary breadth is supplemented by extensive coverage of writing about literature making this book an excellent text for introduction to literature courses as well as literature based composition courses

Literature Robert DiYanni, 1990 Revision parody and adaptation some alternative translations poems The selections in Literature classic and contemporary present a wide range of styles voices subjects and points of view The SAGE

Handbook of Research in International Education Mary Hayden, Jeff Thompson, Jack Levy, 2007-01-03 The editors of the SAGE Handbook of Research in International Education have brought together an impressive array of scholars whose cutting edge research addresses the growing field of international education from the experiences of K 12 schools around the world to the field of teacher education This book raises important questions and should be read by a broad audience Kenneth Cushner Executive Director of International Affairs and Professor of Education Kent State University The editors of this admirable handbook have set out to produce a report on international education Their consummate success in doing so gives those of us working in the field a new and invaluable resource The editors may be academics but this is a book largely written by about and for those whose job it is to teach internationally No one working in international education will fail to be provoked challenged or inspired by the compelling arguments advanced within this authoritative volume Peter MacKenzie Principal Hiroshima International School The book is well organized in carefully integrated sections and chapters and the references alone are a valuable bibliographical tool An indispensable work highly recommended for education reference collections and the libraries of individual researchers J B Thomas Emeritus Professor of Educational Studies Loughborough University Interest in the field of international education has never been more intense than at present There are a rapidly increasing number of schools worldwide set up specifically to meet the demands of those parents who through their own professional activities wish to have their sons and daughters educated in schools that offer programmes based on international values Such schools have embraced the promotion of international education as one of their major goals and consequently an increasing number of organisations currently offer curricula that claim to be international in nature Such global movements have created a parallel increase in the incorporation of forms of international education within national school systems throughout the world This has resulted in wider forms of collaboration between schools in the public and private sectors nationally and internationally generating a much more substantial base of professional experience in the implementation of schemes for international education than had previously existed This book analyses the origins contributions and interpretations of international education The authors identify approaches to research that will progress our knowledge and understanding of the field and extend and even redraw it on the basis of the research evidence presented Content includes A historical overview of the ways in which the term international education has been interpreted The theoretical interpretation of international education in its current context International education in practice exploration of the issues in terms of students curricula pedagogies and organising formal institutions Conceptual challenges for international education in the future This handbook is an essential resource for those who are involved in the practice and academic study of international education It will be of particular interest to researchers and teachers in universities governmental and private curriculum development agencies examination authorities administrators and teachers in schools This volume is another valuable SAGE contribution to the expanding literature on international education Not all handbooks are described as essential reading but this one will be and will become an indispensable work of reference highly recommended for education libraries both academic and governmental and for the bookshelves of individual researchers and all involved in international education the three editors and their fellow authors can take a collective pride in having given us an excellent volume which very successfully completes a chronological and theoretical journey through the issues practices and future questions presented by international research and practice in international education Journal of Research in International Education

Language, Literature and Education in Multicultural Societies Kenneth Harrow, Kizitus Mpoche, 2009-10-02 This book presents a vivid overview of linguistic literary and educational issues in a multicultural context from various perspectives These range from large scale surveys to specific analyses on aspects of language literature and education Contributions are very original and based on a common denominator Multiculturalism Despite the numerical dominance of contributions from Cameroon one of the most multilingual countries in the world this book brings together views from specialists in the different domains from several parts of the world Africa Europe and the United States of America These contributions exhibit not theoretical issues that underpin current academic debates in linguistic and literary research but also empirical and interesting data that can further be exploited to other ends Critical views on literature and postcolonialism the fears of language death with the advent of globalisation and the spread of English language the educational significance or influence of the internet the wealth of Cameroon African literature and the education of the Cameroonian African child and theoretical issues in language and literary education are themes handled here in an accessible manner to readers without previous knowledge of language science literature and education

The Making of the Modern Artist Ernest L. Veyu, 2012-12-19 The Making of the Modern Artist Stephen Dedalus and Will Brangwen examines two fictional artists by James Joyce and D H Lawrence in A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man and D H Lawrence's The Rainbow respectively It brings together Joyce and Lawrence in their common concern with the modern artist and modern art

Taking the two major artist characters of the two works this study establishes that Joyce and Lawrence irrespective of major background educational artistic and philosophical differences converge on the person character artistic vision and working methods of the modern artist This study makes little effort at looking at these fictional artists as alter egos of Joyce and Lawrence it treats them as modern artists in their own right It attempts to give them somewhat a critical right of existence of their own

Literature, Film, and Their Hideous Progeny Julie Grossman, 2015-09-01 This book posits adaptations as hideous progeny Mary Shelley's term for her novel Frankenstein Like Shelley's novel and her fictional Creature adaptations that may first be seen as monstrous in fact compel us to shift our perspective on known literary or film works and the cultures that gave rise to them

Ibsen and the Greeks Norman Rhodes, 1995 Was Ibsen influenced by Greek culture Were allusions to the Greeks configured in the Norwegian playwright's works According to author Norman Rhodes whether consciously or unconsciously many of Ibsen's plays are encoded with veiled references to ancient Greek culture Rhodes also postulates that Ibsen's perception of the importance of the Greeks was most likely mediated to him through German Romanticism and Scandinavian culture According to Rhodes numerous echoes of Greek literature resonate in such early Ibsen plays as Catiline The Warrior's Barrow Olaf Liljekrans and Love's Comedy Ibsen's Brand and Peer Gynt are a dialectic pair which in key ways are suggestive of Homer's Iliad and Odyssey A Doll House has important parallels with Sophocles Antigone and An Enemy of the People correlates with both Plato's Apology and Sophocles Oedipus Tyrannos Moreover a Euripidean sense of fatal irrationality seems inscribed in Ibsen's final plays the protagonists John Rosmer Hedda Gabler Master Builder Solness John Gabriel Borkman and the sculptor Rubek all destroy themselves

Reading Amy Tan Lan Dong, 2009-06-08 This essential discussion of Amy Tan's life and works is a necessity for high school students and an enriching supplement for book club members A tour de force in Asian American writing Amy Tan has created works that are essential to high school and undergraduate literature classes and are often book club selections Reading Amy Tan is a handy resource that offers both groups plot summaries of five of Tan's novels as well as character and thematic analysis The handbook also provides an overview of Tan's life and discusses how she emerged onto the scene as a novelist Tan's typical themes including Asian American issues and mother daughter relationships are examined in relation to today's current events and pop culture. Readers will also discover how and where they can find Tan on the Internet and how the media has received her works. The What Do I Read Next chapter will help readers find other authors and works that deal with similar subjects. This handbook is an indispensable tool for both high school and public libraries. Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic, ... Catalog of Books, 1996

Instructor's Manual to Accompany The International Story Ruth Spack, 1998-07-28 The International Story is an anthology with guidelines for reading and writing about fiction. The Instructor's Manual provides teaching suggestions, detailed notes and summaries of the readings in the Student's Book.

Fiction Robert DiYanni, 1999-09 Designed for Introduction to Fiction courses, this work features coverage of writing about fiction with two student papers. The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 7, Part 1 John Donne, Gary A. Stringer, Paul A. Parrish, 2005-12-01 Praise for previous volumes: This variorum edition will be the basis of all future Donne scholarship. Chronicle: This is the 4th volume of The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne to appear. This volume presents a newly edited critical text of the Holy Sonnets and a comprehensive digest of the critical scholarly commentary on them from Donne's time through 1995. The editors identify and print both an earlier and a revised authorial sequence of sonnets as well as presenting the scribal collection which contains unique authorial versions of several of the sonnets inscribed by Donne's friend Rowland Woodward in the Westmoreland manuscript.

Early Modern Authorship and the Editorial Tradition Aleida Auld, 2023-12-12 This volume adds a new dimension to authorship studies by linking the editorial tradition to the transformative reception of early modern authors and their works across time. Aleida Auld argues that the editorial tradition provides privileged access to the reception of early modern literature, informing our understanding of certain reconfigurations and sometimes helping to produce them between their time and our own. At stake are reconfigurations of oeuvre and authorship, the relationship between the author and work, the relationship between authors and the author's own role in establishing an editorial tradition. Ultimately, this study recognizes that the editorial tradition is a stabilizing force while asserting that it may also be a source of strange and provocative reconceptions of early modern authors and their works in the present day. Scholars and students of early modern literature will benefit from this approach to editing as a form of reception that encompasses all the editorial decisions that are necessary to put forth a text.

Language, Literature and Education in Multicultural Societies Kenneth W. Harrow, Kizitus Mpoche, 2008 This book presents a vivid overview of linguistic, literary and educational issues in a multicultural context from various perspectives. These range from large scale surveys to specific analyses on aspects of language, literature and education. Contributions are very original and based on a common denominator: Multiculturalism. Despite the numerical dominance of contributions from Cameroon, one of the most multilingual countries in the world, this book brings together views from specialists in the different domains from several parts of the world: Africa, Europe and the United States of America. These contributions exhibit not theoretical issues that underpin current academic debates in linguistic and literary research but also empirical and interesting data that can further be exploited to other ends Critical views on literature and postcolonialism the fears of language death with the advent of globalisation and the spread of English language the educational significance or influence of the internet the wealth of Cameroon African literature and the education of the Cameroonian African child and theoretical issues in language and literary education are themes handled here in an accessible manner to readers without previous knowledge of language science literature and education

The Notion of Turning in Metaphysical Poetry Carmen Dörge, 2018 In Metaphysical Poetry there is an emphasis on religious experience which often touches on diverse kinds of turning Among them are religious conversion a turn to God spatial movement turning in space divine transformation turning from one kind into another musical tuning turning as a requisite for harmony and circular turning Moreover there is a strong link between turning and its realisation through the language of the poems Focusing on John Donne and George Herbert this study explores various aspects of turning as well as their interrelation Dissertation Series Religion and Literature Religion und Literatur Vol 7 Subject Poetry
