Reilly & Riordan (BWWM Interracial Erotic Romance) Jewelle Moore, 2015-08-27 A DANCE FOR THE BILLIONAIRE spinoff Millionaire portrait artists and identical twins Reilly and Riordan O'Brien are so close they seem to share one soul They have lived and loved together since reaching maturity Finally they are ready to give up their hedonistic lifestyle if they can find the perfect Identical twins Gabrielle and Isabelle Johnson need to clear debts incurred by their father's illness overseas Gabrielle the bolder more impulsive sister responds to the brothers advert for a nude model When she secures the job as their sitter she makes a solemn vow to her mortified sister that she won't let the brothers know that she's a twin too Both brothers are immediately attracted to Gabrielle and for the first time in their lives neither wants to share It should have been a simple matter twins dating twins But Gabrielle's stuck in a promise she can't break and either of the O'Brien twins is too much man for her quiet sister

Race, Ethnicity, Gender, and Class Joseph F. Healey, Andi Stepnick, 2022-06-09 Known for its clear and engaging writing the bestselling Race Ethnicity Gender and Class The Sociology of Group Conflict and Change has been thoroughly updated to be fresher more relevant and more accessible to undergraduates The text uses sociological perspectives and a consistent conceptual framework to tell the story of America's minority groups today and throughout history By presenting information asking questions and examining controversies it demonstrates that understanding what it means to be an American has always required us to grapple with issues of diversity and difference This title is accompanied by a complete teaching and learning package

The Western Corruption of Marriage Paul Maitrejean, 2015-09-30 Conservatives need to admit they're losing the fight for traditional marriage and losing badly This should lead us to ask Why After all aren't conservatives on YHWH God's side Aren't they fighting to uphold His plan for marriage Or perhaps we should ask Are they The sodomite and liberal inroads against the marriage institution are not a result of their superior political prowess It s a result of conservatives taking so zealous a stand for the traditional they ve lost sight of the Biblical This book seeks to explore marriage from a Biblical standpoint comparing it to the traditional and exposing the pagan and humanist influences that are very much alive even within today s conservative notion of traditional marriage It s a call to pull down our idols and rally under the heavenly standard Burdens of Belonging Jessica

Vasquez-Tokos,2025-04-15 Burdens of Belonging is an exploration of how systemic racism and settler colonialism shapes the lives of differently racialized people in the U S today Laundering Black Rage Too Black,Rasul A Mowatt,2024-04-11

Laundering Black Rage The Washing of Black Death People Property and Profits is a spatial and historical critique of the capitalist State that examines how Black Rage conceived as a constructive and logical response to the conquest of resources land and human beings racialized as Black is cleaned for the unyielding means of White capital Interlacing political theory with international histories of Black rebellion it presents a thoughtful challenge to the counterinsurgent tactics of the State that consistently convert Black Rage into a commodity to be bought sold and repressed Laundering Black Rage investigates how the Rage directed at the police murder of George Floyd could be marshalled to funnel the Black Lives Matter movement into corporate advertising and questionable leadership while increasing the police budgets inside the laundry cities of capital largely with our consent Essayist Performer Too Black and Geographer Rasul A Mowatt assert Black Rage as a threat to the flow of capital and the established order of things which must therefore be managed by the process of laundering Intertwining stories of Black resistance throughout the African diaspora State building under capitalism cities as sites of laundering and the world making of empire Laundering Black Rage also lays the groundwork for upending the laundering process through an anti colonial struggle of reverse laundering conquest Relevant to studies of race and culture history politics and the built environment this pathbreaking work is essential reading for scholars and organizers enraged at capitalism and White supremacy laundering their work for nefarious means Recovering Their Stories Nicholas K.

Rademacher,Sandra Yocum,2024-06-04 Celebrating the diverse contributions of Catholic lay women in 20th century America Recovering Their Stories focuses on the many contributions made by Catholic lay women in the 20th century in their faith communities across different regions of the United States Each essay explores the lives and contributions of Catholic lay women across diverse racial ethnic and socio economic backgrounds addressing themes related to these women s creative agency in their spirituality and devotional practices their commitment to racial and economic justice and their leadership and authority in sacred and public spaces Taken together this volume brings together scholars working in what otherwise may be discreet areas of academic study to look for patterns areas of convergence and areas of divergence in order to present in one place the depth and breadth of Catholic lay women s experience and contributions to church culture and society in the United States Telling these stories together provides a valuable resource for scholars in a number of disciplines including American Catholic Studies American Studies Women and Gender Studies Feminist Studies and US History Additionally scholars in the areas of Latinx studies Black Studies Liturgical Studies and application of Catholic social teaching will find the book to be a valuable resource with respect to articles on specific topics Punishing the Vulnerable Jeremiah Wade-Olson,2019-05-10 Few studies look at the treatment of those inside America s prisons Discussing race discrimination alongside gender ethnic and religious discrimination in contemporary American prisons this book finds that correctional staff are swayed by stereotypes in their treatment of inmates The American Dream is that anyone who works hard enough can be successful It is a dream premised on equal opportunity however millions of racial ethnic religious and gender minorities have found their opportunities for success limited even in prison What accounts for the discriminatory treatment of people who are already imprisoned Relying on national data and interviews conducted by the author this book argues that American prisons are not a tool for justice but a tool for the persecution of the weak by the powerful The book details how African American American Indian and Hispanic inmates receive harsher punishments including solitary confinement and fewer rehabilitative programs such as substance abuse treatment and mental health counseling It also examines other injustices including how female inmates suffer from a lack of rehabilitative services Muslim inmates are placed in solitary confinement for practicing their religious beliefs American Indians are disproportionately punished and undocumented immigrants are forced from prison to prison in the middle of the night Decolonising Sambo Shirley Anne Tate,2024-11-22 Drawing from historical cultural and socio political perspectives this new edition provides scholars and students with insights into anti Black racial formations colonial power structures and critical theories enriching discussions on race identity and decolonisation across academic disciplines In Defense of Plural Marriage Ronald C. Den Otter,2015-05-28 With over half of Americans now in favor of marriage equality it is clear that societal norms of marriage are being quickly redefined The growing belief that the state may not discriminate against gays and lesbians calls into question whether the state may limit other types of marital unions including plural marriage While much has been written about same sex marriage as of yet there has been no book length legal treatment of unions among three or more individuals The first major study on plural marriage and the law In Defense of Plural Marriage begins to fill this lacuna in the scholarly literature Ronald C Den Otter shows how the constitutional arguments that support the option of plural marriage are stronger than those against Ultimately he proposes a new semi contractual marital model that would provide legal recognition for a wide range of intimate relationships

The Fight for Interracial Marriage Rights in Antebellum Massachusetts Amber D. Moulton, 2015-04-06 Though Massachusetts banned slavery in 1780 prior to the Civil War a law prohibiting marriage between whites and blacks reinforced the state's racial caste system Amber Moulton recreates an unlikely collaboration of reformers who sought to rectify what they saw as an indefensible injustice leading to the legalization of interracial marriage

Romancing Human Rights Tamara C. Ho, 2015-01-31 When the world thinks of Burma it is often in relation to Nobel laureate and icon Aung San Suu Kyi But beyond her is another world one that complicates the overdetermination of Burma as a pariah state and myths about the high status of Southeast Asian women Highlighting and critiquing this fraught terrain Tamara C Ho's Romancing Human Rights maps Burmese women as real and imagined figures across the twentieth century and into the twenty first century More than a recitation of on the ground facts Ho's groundbreaking scholarship the first monograph to examine Anglophone literature and dynamics of gender and race in relation to Burma brings a critical lens to contemporary literature film and politics through the use of an innovative feminist queer methodology She crosses intellectual boundaries to illustrate how literary and gender analysis can contribute to discourses surrounding and informing human rights and in the process offers a new voice in the debates about representation racialization migration and spirituality Romancing Human Rights demonstrates how Burmese women break out of prisons both real and discursive by writing themselves into being Ho assembles an eclectic archive that includes George Orwell Aung San Suu Kyi critically acclaimed authors Ma Ma Lay and Wendy Law Yone and activist Zoya Phan Her close readings of literature and politicized performances by women in Burma the Burmese diaspora and the United States illuminate their contributions as authors cultural mediators and practitioner citizens Using flexible polyglot rhetorical tactics and embodied performances these authors creatively articulate alter native epistemologies regionally situated knowledges and decolonizing viewpoints that interrogate and destabilize competing transnational hegemonies such as U S moral imperialism and Asian militarized dictatorship Weaving together the fictional and non fictional Ho's gendered analysis makes Romancing Human Rights a unique cultural studies project that bridges postcolonial studies area studies and critical race ethnic studies a must read for those with an interest in fields of literature Asian and Asian American studies history politics religion and women's and gender studies
