Parish Communities and Religious Conflict in the Vale of Gloucester, 1590-1690 Daniel C. BEAVER,Daniel C Beaver,2009-06-30 Many historians have attempted to understand the violent religious conflicts of the seventeenth century from viewpoints dominated by concepts of class gender and demography But few studies have explored the cultural process whereby religious symbolism created social cohesion and political allegiance This book examines religious conflict in the parish communities of early modern England using an interdisciplinary approach that includes all these perspectives Daniel Beaver studies the urban parish of Tewkesbury and six rural parishes in its hinterland over a period of one hundred years drawing on local ecclesiastical court records sermons parish records corporate minutes and charity books and probate documents He discusses the centrality of religious symbols and ceremonies in the ordering of local societies particularly in local conceptions of place personal identity and the life cycle Four phases in the transformation of parish communities emerge and are examined in this book This exploration of the interrelationship of religion politics and society and the transformation of local communities in civil war has a value beyond the particular history of early modern England contributing to a broader understanding of religious revivals fundamentalisms and the persistent link between religion nationalism and ethnic identity in the modern world Table of Contents Introduction Church History as a Cultural System Part I Social Form 1590 1690 Reverend Histories Geography and Landscape Parts Persons and Participants in the Commonwealth Social Relations Institutions and Authority Under the Hand of God Parish Communities and Rites of Mortality Part II Social Process 1590 1690 Circumcisions of the Heart Church Courts Social Relations and Religious Conflict 1591 1620 A Circle of Order The Politics of Religious Symbolism 1631 1640 To Unchurch a Church Civil War and Revolution 1642 1660 Astraea Redux Religious Conflict Restoration and the Parish 1660 1689 Bloody the ascendancy of multicultural historians and the degradation of European history China s ecological endowments and imperial windfalls military revolutions in Europe 1300 1800 the science and chivalry of Henry the Navigator Judaism and its contribution to Western rationalism the cultural richness of Max Weber versus the intellectual poverty of Pomeranz Wong Goldstone Goody and A G Frank change without progress in the East Hegel s Phenomenology of the Western Spirit Nietzsche and the education of the Homeric Greeks Kojeve s master slave dialectic and the Western state of nature Christian virtues and German aristocratic expansionism

the Nettle Chester A. Crocker, 2005 Among the unwelcome legacies of the past century are a group of conflicts both intrastate and interstate that seem destined never to end. From Kashmir to Nagorno Karabakh Colombia to Sudan the Korean Peninsula to the Middle East these deeply entrenched intermittently violent conflicts have so far resisted all outside efforts to resolve them. What lessons aside from the apparent futility of mediation can such dismal situations possibly offer? As the distinguished contributors to Grasping the Nettle make plain this is not a rhetorical question. Unyielding conflicts offer numerous insights not only about the sources of intractability but also about such facets of mediation and conflict management as how to gain leverage when to engage and disengage how to balance competing goals and who to enlist to play supporting roles. The first part of this eye opening volume identifies and analyzes the defining characteristics and underlying dynamics of intractable conflicts. The second part turns the spotlight on no fewer than eight current cases in each instance chronicling the conflict's evolution evaluating the internal and external factors that have conspired to prevent a settlement and assessing whether past peacemaking initiatives have in fact only aggravated the conflict. The conclusion makes the point that even intractable conflicts eventually end and highlights the strategic approaches and tactical steps that have yielded success in the past for mediators and conflict managers from governments international organizations and NGOs.
