Roadtripping On The Move With The Buffalo Gals:

Roadtripping Conni Massing, 2011-02-01 Roadtripping documents a decade of road trips through the fiefdom of Alberta. The men and women who make up the Buffalo Gals first set out in July 1999 to experience the unusual and charming roadside attractions of south central Alberta. Never dreaming that this one off adventure would turn into an annual event it's ten years later and they continue their escapades. Each year a new destination is chosen and the weekend long travel begins. Traditions have evolved including elaborate scrapbooking, eating in gourmet dining rooms when available and excessive snacking without fail. Beyond the joys and challenges of being on the road and a deepening bond of friendship, this book is a love poem to Alberta, a province often misunderstood and mislabelled as being the right wing cowboy haunt of Canada. With trip route maps, hilarious photos and appendices including checklists and recipes, Roadtripping explores the bizarre and wonderful attractions of wild rose country, stuffed gophers, political fanaticism, mad cows and more. The work offers more than 5,000 three to five star entries: three stars good, four stars excellent, five stars masterpiece, and yes, author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut. In addition to a precis, each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist. Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children. Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying, Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing: recommended, acceptable, cautionary, and unacceptable. Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre, i.e. animated, drama, sports, mystery, adventure, etc. as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death. Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection. The Rugelach Road Trip Jessica Topper, 2024-12-23 Meet the OG Matzo Ballers.
