To: Mr. Sample

From: Barry Ellis, Twin Rivers Community Bank IT Manager

Subject: Twin Rivers free Internet Banking System improvements.

Dear Mr. Sample,

The staff at Twin Rivers Community Bank wants to ensure that all your banking needs are met with the best quality service.

As you may be aware, we are in the process of implementing a new banking and bill pay internet service. Because we want to give our customers the best quality service, our system will be operational approximately two weeks later than originally announced. Our technicians are currently working to improve the system. Once the system becomes fully operational, it will be totally free of charge to all Twin Rivers Community Bank customers. Also, free candy for the kids will be available during the holiday seasons.

Please feel free to call or stop by Twin Rivers Community Bank and let us know how we can help you. Our staff looks forward to seeing you again if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Barry R. Ellis, IT Department

Effective Business Letters Edward Hall Gardner, Robert Ray Aurner, 1928 Standby Letters of Credit in International Trade Ramandeep Kaur Chhina, 2012-12-01 The question of what constitutes fraud in the transaction with respect to international letters of credit varies considerably among jurisdictions In proving allegations of fraud it is crucial for the practitioner to know the relevant jurisdiction s case law especially if wider defences such as inducement unconscionable conduct or bad faith must be invoked In this book the author argues that whereas fraud in the documents is generally sufficient in cases involving commercial letters of credit standby letters of credit demand a wider fraud exception The central issue how wide that fraud exception should be is what this book explores in depth This author compares and critically examines the application of the fraud exception in four major trade jurisdictions the United States England Canada and Australia With an overall focus on how each jurisdiction s fraud tests treat the autonomy of standby letters of credit she builds her arguments on such relevant sources and concepts as the following when it can be shown that the beneficiary has no bona fide belief in the validity of its claim demand guarantees international initiatives ICC Rules and the UN Convention on Independent Guarantee and Standby Letters of Credit the Sztejn Rule parameters of the fraud in the transaction defence materiality standard prerequisites for injunctive relief arguing fraud in the formation of the contract performance bond cases applying the breach of good faith defence negative stipulation in the underlying contract and equitable versus statutory broader notion of unconscionability The presentation includes detailed summaries and analyses of leading cases in all four jurisdictions Lawyers and corporate counsel responsible for arguing claims or defences in letter of credit transactions will welcome the way the author s research and insight define the range of options in each case they handle Academics also will appreciate the systematic way the book frames a complex area of international trade law Letter to Beaumont, Letters Written from the Mountain, and Related Writings Jean-Jacques Rousseau, 2013-05-14 Published between 1762 and 1765 these writings are the last works Rousseau wrote for publication during his lifetime Responding in each to the censorship and burning of Emile and Social Contract Rousseau airs his views on censorship religion and the relation between theory and practice in politics The Letter to Beaumont is a response to a Pastoral Letter by Christophe de Beaumont Archbishop of Paris also included in this volume which attacks the religious teaching in Emile Rousseau s response concerns the general theme of the relation between reason and revelation and contains his most explicit and boldest discussions of the Christian doctrines of creation miracles and original sin In Letters Written from the Mountain a response to the political crisis in Rousseau s homeland of Geneva caused by a dispute over the burning of his works Rousseau extends his discussion of Christianity and shows how the political principles of the Social Contract can be applied to a concrete constitutional crisis One of his most important statements on the relation between political philosophy and political practice it is accompanied by a fragmentary History of the Government of Geneva Finally Vision of Peter of the Mountain Called the Seer is a humorous response to a resident of Motiers who had been inciting attacks on Rousseau during his exile there Taking the form of a scriptural account of a vision it is one of the rare examples of satire from Rousseau's pen and the only work he published anonymously after his decision in the early 1750s to put his name on all his published works Within its satirical form the Vision contains Rousseau's last public reflections on religious issues Neither the Letter to Beaumont nor the Letters Written from the Mountain has been translated into English since defective translations that appeared shortly after their appearance in French These are the first translations of both the History and the Vision
