

Chapter 24

- Rain is steadily falling on the snow
- As the rain and wind continues, Per Gerson becomes gleeful and announces that the rain will turn to snow and there will be a blizzard
- For the next few days, everyone had to stay in their houses because of the snow and cold
- They remark that the Germans must be really cold, as they're living in their hastily built barracks
- Bunny is happy because Peter and Louise are about to play with him again
- Per Gerson continues to be joyful because of the weather

Chapter 25

- Peter returns to the Snake, where the snow is knee-deep
- Peter sees snowshoes and gets nervous that the Germans are near, he meets Per Gerson in the cave, who tells him that Miles and Ole made the tracks to cover the children's tracks to the cave
- Per Gerson tells Peter that he is sking around a lot to cover their sled tracks - he remarks that they need to be careful or the Germans will find the cave
- Peter is in awe at the careful preparation of the adults and how they're protecting the children
- From the lookout, the children could see that the German barracks survived the storm and that the German commander was not in a good mood
- Peter meets the Commandant down at the beach - the Commandant tells him in Germany he'd be part of Hitler Youth and asks Peter if he'd like to work for him
- Peter doesn't reply and the Commandant calls all Norwegians dumb, stupid cattle and announces that the sledding will end and school will begin on Monday

Chapter 26

- Even with Mr. Anders away in the army, the Commandant ordered that schools be reopened
- Peter comes home from school one day to see the German soldiers taking notices around town that life must return to normal - he marvels at how orderly and efficient they are
- The adults are unnerved by the German soldiers walking around their town
- Peter joins his mother at the bakery and then they go to see Dr. Aker
- Dr. Aker remarks that Rikvaag has enjoyed a very healthy winter with hardly any illness
- He continues that it's good for the kids to go to school but then Peter starts to say that they can't do the gold anymore before his mother stops him
- Dr. Aker notes that an epidemic would mean the schools would shut down

Chapter 27

- A new disease struck the youngest children with red spots from head to foot
- It was really red and looked like the spots painted on
- Because Bunny was infected, Peter and Louise had to go live Helga's house
- Dr. Aker went to the Commandant to tell him school could not be reopened - a German doctor asked Dr. Aker all sorts of questions about the disease and wanted to go with the doctor to see a patient
- Dr. Aker warned that the illness spreads quickly and could infect the whole camp, this didn't dissuade the doctor but the Commandant talked the doctor out of it, saying he should focus his efforts on keeping the German troops well
- The disease only lasts three days, but new cases continued to crop up
- The children resume sledding the gold to the Snake
