With the rise of social networking sites, the process of writing a thesis has become even more challenging.

Social networking sites have become a significant part of our daily lives. These platforms allow us to connect with others, share our thoughts and ideas, and access vast amounts of information. However, the constant use of social media can also be a distraction and a hindrance to academic work.

One of the biggest challenges of writing a thesis is staying focused and avoiding distractions. With social networking sites, it's easy to get sidetracked and spend hours scrolling through feeds, watching videos, or chatting with friends.
