provoking perspectives within these pages Learning as Development Daniel A. Wagner,2017-10-04 Learning is the foundation of the human experience It begins at birth and never stops a continuous and malleable link across life stages of human development Disparities in learning access and outcomes around the world have deep consequences for income social mobility health and well being For international development practitioners faced with today s unprecedented environmental and geopolitical pressures learning should be viewed as a touchstone and target for those seeking to truly effect global change This book traces the path of international development work from its pre colonial origins to the emergence of economics as the dominant discipline in the field and lays out a new agenda for policymakers researchers and practitioners from early education through adulthood Learning as Development is an attempt to rethink international education in a changing world Global Perspectives on Recognising Non-formal and Informal Learning Madhu Singh,2015-06-05 This book deals with the relevance of recognition and validation of non formal and informal learning education and training the workplace and society In an increasing number of countries it is at the top of the policy and research agenda ranking among the possible ways to redress the glaring lack of relevant academic and vocational qualifications and to promote the development of competences and certification procedures which recognise different types of learning including formal non formal and informal learning The aim of the book is therefore to present and share experience expertise and lessons in such a way that enables its effective and immediate use across the full spectrum of country contexts whether in the developing or developed world It examines the importance of meeting institutional and political requirements that give genuine value to the recognition of non formal and informal learning it shows why recognition is important and clarifies its usefulness and the role it serves in education working life and voluntary work it emphasises the importance of the coordination interests motivations trust and acceptance by all stakeholders The volume is also premised on an understanding of a learning society in which all social and cultural groups irrespective of gender race social class ethnicity mental health difficulties are entitled to quality learning throughout their lives Overall the thrust is to see the importance of recognising non formal and informal learning as part of the larger movement for re directing education and training for change This change is one that builds on an equitable society and economy and on sustainable development principles and values such as respect for others respect for difference and diversity exploration and dialogue The Statesman's Yearbook 2013 B. Turner,2017-01-12 Now in its 149th edition The Statesman s Yearbook continues to be the reference work of choice for accurate and reliable information on every country in the world Covering political economic social and cultural aspects the Yearbook is also available online for subscribing institutions www.statesmansyearbook.com Mobile Phones & Literacy Belalcázar, Carolina,UNESCO,2015-09-03 Despite the advancements made by Information and Communication Technologies in several international development sectors further evidence is needed on how mobile phone technology is reaching women improving their learning and providing them with new opportunities and better living conditions Can mobile phones develop womens literacy and strengthen their capability to choose and benefit from wider educational social and decent work opportunities that can improve their lives Based on a cross analysis of nine mobile learning projects in three world regions this publication sheds light on the extent to which mobile phones can enhance womens literacy and lead to their empowerment The challenges encountered among the nine projects reviewed and the recommendations derived from these experiences provide a way forward for policy makers and practitioners in the conceptualization and implementation of quality mobile learning as part of womens human development

New Drivers of Division Ya Ping Wang, Keith Kintrea, David Everatt, Debolina Kundu, 2025-09-02 This open access book provides recent trends of urbanization and inequality in Africa and Asia It addresses the inequality challenges of urbanization and large scale rural to urban migration It answers questions around socio economic and spatial inequalities and how serious those are in cities in Africa and Asia under 21st century urbanization Chapters demonstrate how the old neighborhood division in cities based on race ethnicity religion apartheid tribes caste and migrant are replaced by social class through sorting in the housing market The analyses go beyond the normal income inequality consideration and take a broader perspective on inequality by considering these issues at the neighborhood level to reveal the new spatial divisions in cities As such it is essential reading for academics and students in urban studies sociology geography planning and policymakers working on urban development around the world

Promoting sustainable local economic development initiatives Marius Venter, 2022 This book endeavours to outline case studies that promote sustainable Local Economic Development LED initiatives It is generally believed that local governments are the foot soldiers of LED However this seems to be a myth as local governments in South Africa and elsewhere have not yet fulfilled this mandate and have been struggling for several years to implement LED initiatives The distinctive merit of this book lies in the way it combines the South African context with the wider international development context in ways that there is a flow of information and ideas both ways The book is an essential part of this sequence of ideas development and action at a critical time for strategic action directed at a sustainable future It showcases case studies and responses to the impacts of globalisation as a bridge between urban rural and institutional action and reveals avenues for local government leadership in communities research student engagement and wider interactions

Learning Inclusion in a Digital Age Stephen Dobson, Brit Svoen, Gabriella Agrusti, Pip Hardy, 2024-02-22 This open access book considers how inclusive learning wellbeing and active citizenship can be encouraged taught learnt and supported in a digital world The book poses and seeks to address three questions How can governments and intergovernmental organisations support learning inclusion and active citizenship How can the education sector and public private enterprises support learning inclusion and active citizenship How can professionals and communities work with vulnerable adults who are disadvantaged in a participatory empowering manner The Examples discussed in the book draw on the experiences of adult refugees and migrants as well as people who may experience disadvantage and or discrimination as a result of their social economic political cultural religious physical mental age or gender related status One methodological pillar in this work is the development of skills in digital storytelling and digital stories creation for personal community and professional purposes Conceptually and of interest for researcher and policy makers at local national and transnational levels this book brings together a number of related concepts to generate innovative understanding and practices of applied relevance in the age of the pandemic and its aftermath

Essential Readings in International and Comparative Adult Education Jost Reischmann,2021-06-01 Often in international comparative studies it is difficult to refer to older basic texts because they are hidden in old publications difficult to locate This book makes a selection of such old but essential texts available and wants to document the long history of the international comparative perspective Standing on the shoulder of giants allows not only a grounded look back but hopefully also a reliable and experience based look in the future The editor of this book Jost Reischmann Prof em Bamberg University Germany has a long history in international and comparative adult education He presented papers on conferences around the world from San Diego USA to Seoul Korea When the International Society for Comparative Adult Education ISCAE was founded in 1992 he became the first president and developed this society over many years We hope this new book will help old timers and new comers to contribute to the enriching world of international comparative adult education Fresh

Perspectives on Later Life Learning Brian Findsen,2018-10-29 Over the last decade there has been a resurgence of interest in what adults learn in their later years often described as beyond 65 and how this learning is linked to current personal social and global issues This learning commonly occurs in informal ways as seniors go about their daily lives This kind of informal learning can be supplemented by non formal education via participation in planned learning as members of organizations and less frequently in formal education structures such as universities This book highlights how older people are learning in a myriad of ways and conditions It covers everything from individualistic learning through to national issues of older adult education Fresh perspectives are provided on biographical insights into retirement and higher education how older people generate know how in the company of others and in cross cultural aspects such as Chinese elders in Hong Kong and Mori seniors in Aotearoa New Zealand In addition the links between health and learning are explored as well as the commitment universities in three countries have made to become age friendly This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Lifelong Education Level-setting and recognition of learning outcomes
