Arts and Business Elena Raviola,Peter Zackariasson,2016-10-04 Arts and Business aims at bringing arts and business scholars together in a dialogue about a number of key topics that today form different understandings in the two disciplines Arts and business are many times positioned as opposites Where one is providing symbolic and aesthetic immersion the other is creating goods for a market and markets for a good They often deal and struggle with the same issues framing it differently and finding different solutions This book has the potential of offering both critical theoretical and empirical understanding of these subjects and guiding further exploration and research into this field Although this dichotomy has a well documented existence it is reconstructed through the writing out of business in art and vice versa This edited volume distinguishes itself from other writings aimed at closing the gap between art and business as it does not have a firm standpoint in one of these fields but treating them as symmetrical and equal The belief that by giving art and business an equal weight the editors also create the opportunity to communicate to a wider audience and construct a path forward for art and business to coexist ICIE 2015

3rd International Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship Deresh Ramjugernath, 2015-02-24 These proceedings represent the work of researchers participating in the 3rd International Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship ICIE 2015 which is being co hosted by The University of KwaZulu Natal Durban and the Ethekwini Municipality Durban South Africa on the 19 20 March 2015 The ICIE Conference constitutes a valuable platform for individuals to present their research findings display their work in progress and discuss conceptual advances in many different branches of innovation and entrepreneurship in business and management At the same time it provides an important opportunity for researchers and managers to come together with peers share knowledge and exchange ideas ICIE builds on the now well established European Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship and allows universities outside the European Boundaries the opportunity to host an academic conference on these important topics In addition to the presentations of research the conference will feature a knowledge cafe led by Dr Shawren Singh looking at this topic How can academics focus research efforts to better serve the business and public sector communities The second day will open with a panel discussion looking at Smart cities Opportunities for Entrepreneurship and Economic growth Following an initial submission of 85 abstracts that have undergone a double blind peer review process 26 research papers 3 PhD research papers 2 work in progress papers are published in these Conference Proceedings representing research results from the Czech Republic Denmark Italy Kazakhstan Kenya Lithuania Nigeria Poland Saudi Arabia South Africa Sweden The Netherlands UK USA and Zambia Social Entrepreneurship David Wasieleski, James Weber, 2021-11-24 Volume Five of Business and Society 360 focuses on research from leading scholars in this discipline contribute to a 360 degree evaluation of theory including cross discipline research empirical explorations cross cultural studies literature critiques and meta analysis projects Challenging Entrepreneurship Research Hans Landstrom, Annaleena Parhankangas, Alain Fayolle, Philippe Riot, 2016-06-10 The growth of entrepreneurship research has been accompanied by an increased convergence and institutionalization of the field In many ways this is of course positive but it also represents how the field has become mainstream with the concomitant risk that individual scholars become embedded in a culture and incentive system that emphasizes and rewards incremental research questions while reducing the incentives for scholars to conduct challenging research This book challenges this status quo from accepted theories methodologies and paradigmatic assumptions to the relevance or lack of for contemporary practice and the impact of key journals on scholars directions in entrepreneurship research An invited selection of the younger generation of scholars within the field of entrepreneurship research adopt a critical and constructive posture on what has been achieved in entrepreneurship research the main assumptions which underly it but also open up new paths for creative entrepreneurship research in the future This is a must read for all scholars educators and advanced students in entrepreneurship research Social Entrepreneurship Anders Lundström, Chunyan Zhou, Yvonne von Friedrichs, Elisabeth
