for a curriculum that recognizes the value of queer and trans lives What began in fits and starts in activism and educational materials across the late twentieth century led to the passage of California's landmark FAIR Education Act in 2011 ensuring that LGBTQ history has a place in the K-12 classroom Historian Don Romesburg the lead scholar who worked with advocacy organizations to pass the act recounts the decades-long struggle to integrate LGBTQ content into history education policy textbooks and classrooms Looking at California and states that followed its lead he assesses the challenges and opportunities presented by this new way of teaching history Romesburg's powerful case for LGBTQ inclusive education is all the more urgent in this era of anti-gay book bans regressive legislation and attempts to diminish the vital role that inclusive and honest history education should play in a democratic nation Research in Education, 1969-05 Globalisation and National Identity in History Textbooks Joseph Zajda, 2017-07-06 Globalisation and National Identity in History Textbooks The Russian Federation the 16th book in the 24 volume book series Globalisation Comparative Education and Policy Research discusses trends in dominant discourses of identity politics and nation building in school history textbooks in the Russian Federation RF The book addresses one of the most profound examples of the re-writing of history following a geo-political change Various book chapters examine debates pertaining to national identity patriotism and the nation building process The book discusses the way in which a new sense of patriotism and nationalism is documented in prescribed Russian history textbooks and in the Russian media debate on history textbooks It explores the ambivalent and problematic relationship between the state globalisation and the construction of cultural identity in prescribed school history textbooks By focusing on ideology identity politics and nation building the book examines history teachers' responses to the content of history textbooks and how teachers depict key moments in modern Russian history This book an essential sourcebook of ideas for researchers practitioners and policymakers in the fields of globalisation and history education provides timely information on history teachers' attitudes towards historical knowledge and historical understanding in prescribed Russian history textbooks

Negotiating Ethnic Diversity and National Identity in History Education Helen Mu Hung Ting, Luigi Cajani, 2023-05-26 This edited book explores the problems and challenges of negotiating the representation of ethnic minorities within history education It investigates how states balance the non-acknowledgement of the reality of cultural or religious diversity and the promotion of a point of convergence in history education to foster national identity Shifting our attention away from the intractable challenges posed by post-conflict countries for reconciliation the contributors draw attention to the need to explore ways to prevent or pre-empt conflicts and exclusion through history education which could contribute to developing a more sustainable culture of peace Drawing on a wide range of contexts and sources this book asks how history education could contribute to forming critical historically informed and committed young citizens The book will be of interest to students and academics working on themes such as nationalism citizenship ethnicity history education multicultural education peace studies and area studies as well as practitioners in the fields of history social studies civic or citizenship

Rethinking School-University Partnerships Prentice T. Chandler, Lisa Barron, 2021-05-01 Rethinking School University Partnerships A New Way Forward provides educational leaders in K 12 schools and colleges of education with insight advice and direction into the task of creating partnerships In current times colleges of education and local school districts need each other like never before School districts struggle with pipeline recruitment and retention issues Colleges of education face declining enrollment and a shifting educational landscape that fundamentally changes the way that teachers are trained and what local school districts expect their teachers to be able to do It is with these overlapping constraints and converging interests that partnerships emerge as a foundational strategy for strengthening the education of our teachers With nearly 80 contributors from 16 states and Jamaica representing 39 educational institutions the partnerships described in this book are different from the ways in which colleges of education and school districts have traditionally worked with one another In the past these loose relationships centered primarily on student teaching and or field experience placements In this arrangement the relationship was directed towards ensuring that the local schools were amenable to hosting students from the college of education so that the student candidate could complete the requirements to earn a teaching license In our view this paradigm needs to be enlarged and shifted
