The Basic Concepts of Social Studies Oladele Odanye,2003 A Sourcebook of HIV/AIDS Prevention Programs Alexandria Valerio,Michael Beasley,Donald A. P. Bundy,2008 Abstract This Sourcebook aims to support efforts by countries to strengthen the role of the education sector in the prevention of HIV AIDS It was developed in response to numerous requests for a simple forum to help countries share their practical experiences of designing and implementing programs that are targeted at school age children The Sourcebook seeks to fulfill this role by providing concise summaries of programs using a standard format that highlights the main elements of the programs and makes it easier to compare the programs with each other A Sourcebook of HIV AIDS Prevention Programs 2nd Edition documents 13 education based HIV AIDS prevention programs targeting children and youth from 7 sub Saharan African countries It is sponsored by UNAIDS UNICEF UNESCO UNFPA DFID USAID Ireland Aid and the World Bank The Sourcebook represents the work of many contributors and was developed by the Partnership for Child Development with the World Bank Social and Economic Studies ,1975

CHALLENGES AND PROSPECTS IN AFRICAN EDUCATION SYSTEMS SOJI ONI (Ph.D.),2013 Challenges and Prospects in African Education System The general idea this book is trying to disseminate is to inform readers about the compelling challenges and prospects in African system of education As we all know when issues of Africa educational system is raised the first set of thoughts that come to mind is decline in standard deterioration of facilities examination malpractices cult crises or school based violence shortage of teachers underqualified teachers and poor teachers performance which results in poor learning standards lack of classroom discipline that is exacerbated by insufficient resources and inadequate infrastructure failure of appropriate inspection and monitoring and confusion caused by changing curricula without proper communication and training All these have led to massive demoralization and disillusionment among teachers and a negative and worsening perception of African system of education This therefore calls for in depth analysis aimed at tutoring every stakeholder in education on how their action and inactions have individually and collectively contributed to the collapsing state of education in Africa However the prospect is that Africa s recovery and sustainable development can only be guaranteed through expansion and sustenance of both quantitative and qualitative of the continent s stock of human capital through education In order for education to realize its key role in development it must be provided to the younger segments of African society as quickly as human and financial resources permit with the ultimate goal of developing a comprehensive meaningful and sustainable system of education at all levels and for all age groups This is the message that this book puts across in the six knitted sections Library Bulletin Fitchburg Public Library,1900 NewsNet American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies,2001 Nigerian Educational Systems Administration A.  Armand L Mauss s long awaited magnum opus on the evolution of traditional Mormon beliefs and practices concerning minorities He examines how members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints have defined themselves and others in terms of racial lineages Mauss describes a complex process of the broadening of these self defined lineages during the last part of the twentieth century as the modern Mormon church continued its world wide expansion through massive missionary work Mauss contends that Mormon constructions of racial identity have not necessarily affected actual behavior negatively and that in some cases Mormons have shown greater tolerance than other groups in the American mainstream Employing a broad intellectual historical analysis to identify shifts in LDS behavior over time All Abraham s Children is an important
