The Essence of Multivariate Thinking Lisa L. Harlow, 2014-02-18 By focusing on underlying themes this book helps readers better understand the connections between multivariate methods For each method the author highlights the similarities and differences between the methods when they are used and the questions they address the key assumptions and equations and how to interpret the results The concepts take center stage while formulas are kept to a minimum Examples using the same data set give readers continuity so they can more easily apply the concepts Each method is also accompanied by a worked out example SPSS and SAS input and an example of how to write up the results EQS code is used for the book's SEM applications This extensively revised edition features New SEM chapters including an introduction ch 10 path analysis ch 11 confirmatory factor analysis ch 12 and latent variable modeling ch 13 the last three with an EQS application A new chapter on multilevel modeling ch 8 that is now used more frequently in the social sciences More emphasis on significance tests effect sizes and confidence intervals to encourage readers to adopt a thorough approach to assessing the magnitude of their findings A new data set that explores the work environment More discussion about the basic assumptions and equations for each method for a more accessible approach New examples that help clarify the distinctions between methods A new website at <https://sites.google.com/site/multivariate-second-edition> that features the datasets for all of the examples in the book for use in both SPSS and SAS and in EQS for the SEM chapters The first two chapters review the core themes that run through most multivariate methods The author shows how understanding multivariate methods is much more achievable when we notice the themes that underlie these statistical techniques This multiple level approach also provides greater reliability and validity in our research After providing insight into the core themes the author illustrates them as they apply to the most popular multivariate methods used in the social and behavioral sciences First two intermediate methods are explored multiple regression and analysis of covariance Next the multivariate grouping variable methods of multivariate analysis of variance discriminant function analysis and logistic regression are explored Next the themes are applied to multivariate modeling methods including multilevel modeling path analysis confirmatory factor analysis and latent variable models that include exploratory structural methods of principal component and factor analysis The book concludes with a summary of the common themes and how they pertain to each method discussed in this book Intended for advanced undergraduate and or graduate courses in multivariate statistics taught in psychology education human development business nursing and other social and life sciences researchers also appreciate this book's applied approach Knowledge of basic statistics research methods basic algebra and finite mathematics is recommended

Cumulated Index to the Books ,1999 Reinventing Intercultural Education Neal Dreamson,2016-11-25 Most existing books in the fields of multicultural or intercultural education have been written based on anthropologists cultural dimensions which presume culture is a fixed entity Reinventing Intercultural Education is the first book to review multiple cultures and religions from a metaphysical understanding It argues that intercultural value interactions can be managed and taught in a way that facilitates individuals to reveal how they are metaphysically positioned within intercultural value networks This book proposes a metaphysical understanding of interculturality by reviewing popular cultural and religious narratives found in multicultural society By doing so it develops an alternative pedagogy for multicultural education founded on the concept of intercultural hermeneutics Beginning with a critical review of multicultural policies and existing models of multicultural education Dreamson advocates the necessity of an intercultural approach to multicultural education He then moves on to argue for the methodological aspects of interculturality by reviewing and adopting philosophical hermeneutics theories Throughout the book it is argued that values incarnated as a cultural framework are networked and interact via our minds to sustain our intercultural realities Furthermore when intercultural interactions transpire which is the goal of multicultural education we can see a larger part of the world that in turn helps us cultivate ourselves for further intercultural interactions The book should be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students engaged in the study of multicultural education the philosophy of education religious pluralism religious education cultural studies theology and indigenous education Book Review Index Cumulation Dana Ferguson,2005-09 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year Criminological Theories James F. Anderson,2014-06-24 Designed for undergraduate criminology and criminological theory courses Criminological Theories Understanding Crime in America Second Edition explores crime crime theory and various forms of criminal behavior within the United States It focuses exclusively on theory avoiding superfluous discussion of the criminal justice system Students will come away from the text with plausible explanations of crime causation a greater appreciation of criminological theory and the ability to think critically about the social reality of crime Current and highly relevant the text includes coverage of new developments in the field of criminology including cultural integrative life course and green criminological theories
