Roll no. 200674

INTRODUCTION

Every society stratifies itself for different purposes, either unanimously or by one specific group. It has rightly been said that an “unstratified society, which has real equality of its members is a myth as with stratification it is an inevitable fact that particular group/s won't feel superior to another. Though the form and proportions may vary, its essence remains more or less permanent. In India we find a unique system of social stratification based on birth, which is not found elsewhere in the world. The term 'Caste' is derived from a Portuguese word 'Casta' meaning breed, race or group. An individual is born into a caste, and this status is usually permanent. Though the elements of castes are found outside India, it is only in India that numerous castes are found. Different people have defined the term 'caste' differently. According to G.S.Ghurye “Castes are small and complete social worlds in themselves marked off definitely from one another though subsisting within the larger society.”

According to Maclver “When status is wholly predetermined so that men are born to their lot without any hope of change in it, then the class takes the extreme form of caste.”

According to A.W.Green, “Caste is a system of stratification in which mobility, movement up and down in the status ladder, at least ideally, may not occur.”

FEATURES OF CASTE SYSTEM

Segmental Division of Society

Under the caste system, the society is divided into several small social groups called castes. Each of these groups or castes is a well-developed social group, the
