A Taste for Brown Sugar Mireille Miller-Young, 2014-12-08 A Taste for Brown Sugar boldly takes on representations of black women's sexuality in the porn industry. It is based on Mireille Miller Young's extensive archival research and her interviews with dozens of women who have worked in the adult entertainment industry since the 1980s. The women share their thoughts about desire and eroticism, black women's sexuality and representation and ambition and the need to make ends meet. Miller Young documents their interventions into the complicated history of black women's sexuality, looking at individual choices, however small: a costume, a gesture, an improvised line as small acts of resistance of what she calls illicit eroticism. Building on the work of other black feminist theorists and contributing to the field of sex work studies, she seeks to expand discussion of black women's sexuality to include their eroticism and desires as well as their participation and representation in the adult entertainment industry. Miller Young wants the voices of black women sex workers heard and the decisions they make, albeit often within material and industrial constraints, recognized as their own. Taboo Tales - Aubrey (Forbidden Taboo Erotica) Starr Serena (author), 1901
