The Marriage Epidemic June Portnoy, 2010-05-06 Jen Greenberg is first exposed to the marriage epidemic when her best friend announces her engagement As the epidemic spreads to other friends Jen develops symptoms like experiencing chest pains at the mere sight of bridal gowns Jen searches for a husband believing that a marriage proposal will cure her She gets so caught up looking for a treatment namely an engagement ring that she forgets about an important detail like love As a result she breaks up with the guy she falls in love with when he mentions that he has no plans to get married until he's well into his senior years Determined to beat this epidemic Jen goes into remission when she meets a nice guy who happens to be looking for Ms Right But is this really the man she wants to spend her life with or is she just staying with him so that she too can walk down the aisle Perhaps the road to recovery is more about finding true happiness than saying I do

The Poetical Works of Robert Browning Robert Inglesfield,2025-05-13 The English first edition of Dramatis Person was published in May 1864 with the American first edition appearing hard on its heels in the following September This was the second of the two great collections of Robert Browning s middle years the first Men and Women having appeared nine years previously The new collection with its inspired general title which Browning seems to have hit upon only weeks before the publication of the English first edition was certainly an extraordinary imaginative and technical achievement the poems are remarkable for their modernity of subject matter and close psychological interest as well as their assertive individuality of conception An outstanding feature is the inventive handling of tone as for example in Apparent Failure Browning seems to have regarded the collection very much as a continuation and development of Men and Women with its varied contrasting dramatic lyrics and dramatic argumentative poems As in the earlier collection the great majority of the poems are essentially dramatic in conception
