Jonathan K. Okinaga, 2022-09-23 Since Benjamin Rush first introduced the disease of wills as the cause of alcoholism a steady and slow infiltration of the disease model has infected how the church treats those who struggle with addictions The first organization that truly sought to remove the soul care of addicts from the church was Alcoholics Anonymous AA through their bestselling The Big Book of AA and the introduction of the 12 Steps AA's influence on how the church confronts addiction still reverberates today with many of the ministries that address addiction firmly rooted in what can be found in AA literature Addictions were once viewed as an issue caused by sin and best addressed through faith and prayer Currently addiction is seen through the lens of disease The ramifications are consequential as more church members are struggling with addictions than ever before Tracing the progression of addiction from sin to disease will reveal that the SBC and its churches have been negligent in understanding the underlying foundations of AA and the influence that the medicalization of substance abuse has had on how churches approach what should be classified as a sin issue The Red Atlantis J.

Hoberman, 1998 For most of the twentieth century American and European intellectual life was defined by its fascination with a particular utopian vision Both the artistic and political vanguards were spellbound by the Communist promise of a new human era so much so that its political terrors were rationalized as a form of applied evolution and its collapse hailed as the end of history The Red Atlantis argues that Communism produced a complex culture with a dialectical relation to both modernism and itself Offering examples ranging from the Stalinist show trial to Franz Kafka's posthumous career as a dissident writer And The work of filmmakers painters and writers which can be understood only as criticism of existing socialism made from within The Red Atlantis suggests that Communism was an aesthetic project perhaps the aesthetic project of the twentieth century Author note J Hoberman staff writer for the Village Voice writes on film and culture for the Voice the Voice Literary Supplement Artforum and other publications His books include Bridge of Light Yiddish Film Between Two Worlds Temple 1995 and Vulgar Modernism Writing on Movies and Other Media Temple 1991 which was nominated For The National Book Critics Circle award in criticism He is an Adjunct Professor of Cinema at the Cooper Union
