Social Problems William Kornblum, Joseph Julian, 2003 With historical and multicultural sensitivity this best selling book probes the nature and causes of the major social changes confronting today's citizens Using the latest research current statistics examples charts and tables it delves into the social control and action issues inherent to each problem in a clear easy to read format Balancing viewpoints and supporting material with research and policy the book covers topics in a micro to macro format pointing out the interrelationships among today's social problems and approaching them from several perspectives The first few chapters focus on individual behaviors such as drug use and crime The middle chapters deal with inequality and discrimination discussing such topics as poverty prejudice sexism ageism family life and work The final chapters discuss the problems of cities environmental pollution and war and terrorism matters of global significance Because the nature of the United States is changing with health and health care crises military invasions economic downturn shrinking public budgets and rising fiscal deficits and environmental issues this book becomes a necessary read for members of the medical profession that confront the tragedy of AIDS law enforcement professionals who cope with crime and violence elected officials and other political leaders who are expected to formulate sound social policies to address social problems and citizens who wish to learn more about the social problems that are pervasive in our lives

Gender Violence Laura L. O'Toole, Jessica R. Schiffman, Margie L. Kiter Edwards, 2007-08 The approach of the year 2000 has made the study of apocalyptic movements trendy But groups anticipating the end of the world will continue to predict Armageddon even after the calendar clicks to triple 0s A Doomsday Reader brings together pronouncements edicts and scriptures written by prominent apocalyptic movements from a wide range of traditions and ideologies to offer an exceptional look into their belief systems Focused on attaining paradise millenarianism often anticipates great cosmic change While most think of religious belief as motivating such fervor Daniels comparative approach encompasses secular movements such as environmentalism and the Montana Freeman and argues that such groups are often more political than religious in nature The book includes documents from groups such as the Branch Davidians the Order of the Solar Temple Heaven s Gate and white supremacists Each document is preceded by a substantive introduction placing the movement and its beliefs in context This important overview of contemporary politics of the End will remain a valuable resource long after the year 2000 has come and gone

Courts United States. National Advisory Commission on Criminal Justice Standards and Goals, 1973 This report presents

proposals for the restructuring and streamlining of the processing of criminal cases at state and local levels A major restructuring and streamlining of procedures and practices in processing criminal cases at state and local levels is proposed by the National Advisory Commission on Criminal Justice Standards and Goals The proposals of the Commission appear in the form of specific standards and recommendations almost 100 in all that spell out in detail where why how and what improvements can and should be made in the judicial segment of the criminal justice system The report on courts is a reference work for the practitioner judge court administrator prosecutor or defender as well as the interested layman The Commission argues that the problems which keep the criminal court system from performing its functions are inconsistency in the processing of criminal defendants uncertainty concerning results obtained unacceptable delays and alienation of the community In composing suggested improvements for the court system the Commission's first priority is to devise standards for attaining speed and efficiency in the pretrial and trial processes and prompt finality in appellate proceedings The second priority is the upgrading of defense and prosecution functions and the third priority is the assurance of a high quality in the judiciary To expedite pretrial procedures the prosecutor should screen all criminal cases coming before him and divert from the system all cases wherein further processing by the prosecutor is not appropriate Among Commission recommendations are elimination of all but the investigative function of the grand jury elimination of formal arraignment unification of all courts within each state and the upgrading of criminal court personnel
