UNIT 1 – Paper 01*1 hour 30 minutes01 JUNE 2022 (p.m.)*READ THE FOLLOWING INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY.

1. This test consists of 45 items. You will have 1 hour and 30 minutes to answer them.
2. In addition to this test booklet, you should have an answer sheet.
3. Do not be concerned that the answer sheet provides spaces for more answers than there are items in this test.
4. Each item in this test has four suggested answers lettered (A), (B), (C), (D). Read each item you are about to answer and decide which choice is best.
5. On your answer sheet, find the number which corresponds to your item and shade the space having the same letter as the answer you have chosen. Look at the sample item below.

Sample Item

Which theoretical approach is associated with microsociology?

- (A) Marxism
(B) Neofunctionalism
(C) Classical functionalism
(D) Symbolic interactionism

Sample Answer

The best answer to this item is “Symbolic interactionism”, so (D) has been shaded.

6. If you want to change your answer, erase it completely before you fill in your new choice.
7. When you are told to begin, turn the page and work as quickly and as carefully as you can. If you cannot answer an item, go on to the next one. You may return to that item later.
8. You may do any rough work in this booklet.
9. You may use a silent, non-programmable calculator to answer items.

DO NOT TURN THIS PAGE UNTIL YOU ARE TOLD TO DO SO.

In the Shadow of Marriage Anne M. O. Griffiths, 1997 Anne Griffiths originally went to Botswana to establish a university course in family law But independent fieldwork in Botswana convinced her of the central role of the traditional customary legal system that stands alongside the colonial common law of courts and magistrates she was examining in her course In the first comparative work on these two systems Griffiths shows how the structure of both legal institutions is based on power and gender relations that heavily favor males Griffiths s analysis is based on careful observation of how people actually experience the law as well as the more standard tools of statutes and cases familiar to Western legal scholars She explains how women s access to law is determined by social relations over which they have little control In this powerful feminist critique of law and anthropology Griffiths shows how law and custom are inseparable for Kwena women Both colonial common law and customary law pose comparable and constant challenges to Kwena women s attempts to improve their positions in society

Alan G. Smith,1997-08-30 This interdisciplinary study applies human rights theory to the problems of rural poverty in the Third World Considering the interdependence of minimal food and health security with minimal assurance of basic freedoms political scientist Alan G Smith traces the linkage to the need of the food insecure to seek clientelistic dependencies on better off neighbors relationships that often operate to restrict freedom of choice In contrast to conventional rural development aid which can introduce new client dependency if pursued alone Smith stresses the need to find other forms of aid that would provide the option of assured minimal survival while avoiding the constraints imposed by dependency Arguing for bolstering bottom up human rights momentum he suggests the transfer of appropriate tools into the hands of the target group Recipients would make use of them to enhance autonomous food crop production thereby making client dependency a matter of choice rather than necessity Smith illustrates the Third World predicament of food insecurity leading to infringement of rights by drawing together empirical evidence from Bangladesh Botswana and Tanzania He further argues that respect for human rights involves a duty on the part of advantaged nations to address the Third World predicament with practical measures fully consistent with human rights and for each of these three country cases Smith recommends direct locally specific minimalist aid His model its practical illustration and recommendations should be valuable to academics and students in the fields of rural sociology anthropology and political science especially those focusing on human rights poverty and Third World development as well as bureaucrats and consultants in the development aid field Monthly Catalogue,
