Bernstein, Annalyn Swan, 2008-12-02 From Wall Street to the West Coast from blue collar billionaires to blue blood fortunes from the Google guys to hedge fund honchos this compulsively readable book gives us the lowdown on today's richest Americans. Veteran journalists Peter W. Bernstein and Annalyn Swan delve into who made and lost the most money in the past twenty-five years: the fields and industries that have produced the greatest wealth; the biggest risk takers; the most competitive players; the most wasteful family feuds; the trophy wives; the most conspicuous consumers; the biggest art collectors; and the most and least generous philanthropists. Incorporating exclusive, never-before-published data from Forbes magazine, All the Money in the World is a vastly entertaining behind-the-scenes look at today's Big Rich. A Bibliography of the Personal

Leadership tools are usually defined as computers, spreadsheets, data, and even experience, but in reality, leaders need thinking tools that are hard to come by, so they find themselves hunting and pecking for answers in books, at seminars, through on-the-job training programs from mentors, and at business schools, and still they're left with gaps. Surely, most leaders are good at what they do, but the daily challenges of their jobs, like accelerating growth, increasing productivity, driving innovation, doing more with less, and balancing work with life, don't come with some sort of leadership toolkit until now. In Paid to Think, international consultant David Goldsmith presents his groundbreaking approach to leadership and management based on research revealing the twelve specific activities that all leaders perform on a daily basis, and he provides you with each activity's accompanying tools and instructions, proven to boost your performance and that of your entire organization. Take the uncertainty out of everyday leading, convert ideas to realities, and maximize your intellectual value. Learn how decision makers at some of the world's most successful organizations have already used Paid to Think's universal and easily transferable tools, regardless of their industries, sectors, geographic locations, or management levels, as their greatest advantages in achieving more, earning more, and living more. Across the Board, 2004
